

THE BRAINERD DAILY DISPATCH

Volume 28, Number 131

Full Licensed Wire Service of United Press Association

BRAINERD, MINNESOTA MONDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1928

Printed on Paper Made in Brainerd

Price Three Cents

GREATEST OUTPOURING OF AMERICAN VOTERS

BY ANOTHER NIGHTFALL VOTE WILL BE CAST

AMERICAN PEOPLE TO CHOOSE MAN TO RULE DESTINIES NEXT FOUR YEARS

OFFICIALS ARE TO BE TAXED IN MOST PLACES

RAYMOND CLAPPER (United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Oct. 5.—(UP)—By another nightfall the American people will have chosen the man who is to rule their destinies for the next four years.

The fates of Herbert Hoover and Alfred E. Smith probably already have been decided in the minds of the voters. It only remains for the votes to be cast and counted.

Tuesday will see the greatest outpouring of American voters in history. Election officials will be heavily taxed in most places. The count may be late in coming in from many localities for this reason, although it may be that the results will be known before midnight Tuesday. Between 35,000,000 and 40,000,000 votes are expected to be cast as against the 29,000,000 in 1924, the previous record.

This election will not only decide who is to be president and vice president, but an entirely new house of representatives at Washington is to be elected. One-third of the seats in the United States senate must be filled. Thirty-four states will elect governors. Many states will choose new legislatures and state and county officials.

The drama of the presidential race, one of the most exciting in many years, overshadows everything else in this impending election. The choice for the highest office—as befits the tradition of a democratic nation—lies between two men who started at the bottom of the ladder and rose by sheer superiority.

Both started from scratch and both finally came face to face in a grapple for the nation's highest honor but by widely diverse routes. Hoover is running for office for the first time in his life. Smith has been running for office twenty-five years.

Each has conducted a campaign typical of his past career, except for a radio speech by Hoover tonight from his home in Palo Alto, Cal., and two by Smith from studios here. They have rested their case with the voters.

What will happen is uncertain because of the intense bitterness which has been stirred by factors which never before have entered prominently into a presidential campaign—religion and the prohibition question. In spite of the intensity of the fight around these two questions, Hoover has conducted the most restrained campaign any republican presidential candidate ever staged.

He has made just seven set addresses, including his acceptance speech. Smith, on the contrary, has swept about the country on three major campaign trips carrying him as far west as Montana and down to Oklahoma.

Hoover has discussed general topics for the most part, practically ignoring Smith except to charge recently that his program on prohibition, water power and farm relief constituted state socialism.

Hoover has conducted his campaign on the assumption that the country is satisfied with conditions under President Coolidge and wants to continue that plan. He has promised an extra session to deal with farm relief but otherwise his basic appeal has been that he will keep things as they are under Coolidge.

Smith has recognized from the beginning this would be Hoover's strategy and he sought to meet it by making the democratic party essentially a high tariff party. His whole strategy has been to round up the wet votes and inspire confidence among enough republicans to compensate for the natural democratic shortage of votes.

Religious prejudice has played a tremendous part despite the admonition of both candidates that it must not be brought into the campaign. Democrats have accused the republicans of covertly fostering anti-Catholic prejudice and republicans on the other hand feel the democrats have exploited the role of martyrdom as much as possible and have covertly appealed to all Catholics to support the democratic ticket.

Prohibition is the most active issue discussed by the candidates and

"Yankee Doodle" Airplane Crashes to Its Doom

BETTING IN WALL STREET IS LIGHT ON COMING ELECTION

New York, Nov. 5.—(U.P.)—Although betting on the presidential election has increased in the last week, it was reported in Wall street today to be unusually light in comparison to other years.

Some brokers estimated the total amount wagered here was between $4,000,000 and $5,000,000, much of which was placed in the last few days. Odds in the last few days lengthened to 4½ and 5 to 1 on the Hoover-Curtis ticket.

they clash here more directly than on any other question. Hoover has declared against repeal of the eighteenth amendment. Smith is for modification of it—Hoover called prohibition a "noble experiment which must be worked out constructively." Smith declared the Volstead act was a failure and a change was necessary.

On farm relief there is divergence with Hoover opposing the McNary-Haugen bill and favoring stabilization corporations and greater tariff protection with Smith offering to appoint a commission to study a plan and endorsing the fundamental principle of the McNary-Haugen bill.

On water power Hoover is fundamentally for private ownership and Smith favors government ownership and control.

Governor Smith has reversed the historic policy of the democratic party on the tariff and has obtained pledge from 90 per cent of the democratic candidates for congress to support his position. He would not permit any change in the tariff which would take one cent from the pockets of any workman or disturb business, he has said in many speeches.

Republicans have charged Smith favors letting down restrictions on immigration but he denies this and insists he stands with Hoover in favor of restriction.

Other issues count for little in this campaign. The battle has been waged furiously with hundreds of stump speakers. It probably has been the most expensive in the nation's history and the officially reported costs probably will run to $12,000,000 besides thousands of dollars spent which will never be accounted for.

Radio has come into a dominating position in the mechanics of the campaign with each party spending thousands of dollars to buy time on the air. Dozens of speakers have supplemented the efforts of the candidates. Radio has forced the candidates to change tactics. It requires a new speech each time.

With so many novel factors in the campaign, the tremendous number of new voters, the religious and the prohibition issues which never have been tested in a national election, the uncertainty as to how the voters in mass have reacted to the impressions of the candidates received direct over the radio makes this election extremely difficult to judge.

Politicians in many states are frankly baffled. No human being knows what will happen in states like Massachusetts and Missouri.

Among many political experts, it is considered that the following three points are likely to react against Gov. Smith:

1. The United States is normally republican by 5,000,000 votes or more.
2. The nation is dry—or was theoretically so ten years ago when every state except Connecticut and Rhode Island ratified the federal prohibition amendment.
3. The nation has a Protestant tradition, has never elected a Catholic president, and has a Catholic population only in the proportion of about one to five.

Furthermore the record of the Tweed ring and other Tammany figures has been stressed in many sections as an argument against Smith, who is a Tammany man. On the other hand, democrats have countered with the argument that the "oil scandals" react against a republican administration.

After an 11,000-mile trip as political correspondent of United Press which took this correspondent into every section of the United States, the situation may be stated conservatively as follows:

Hoover is fairly certain of 250 electoral votes with 16 more needed to win. Smith is fairly certain of 759 electoral votes—the solid south and New York—with 107 more needed to win.

Hoover Comes Home to California and Ends Campaign Today Among Friends of Youth

CALIFORNIA GIVES A NOISY WELCOME TO HIM

HOOVER IS CONFIDENT, CLEAR-EYED AND VIGOROUS TODAY

APPEARS TO BE IN EXCELLENT HEALTH ON EVE OF ELECTION DAY

By THOMAS L. STOKES (United Press Staff Correspondent)

Aboard Herbert Hoover's Special Train En Route to Palo Alto, Calif., Nov. 5.—Herbert Hoover came home to California and to the end of his campaign today to be among his friends in the scenes of his young manhood while the nation decides at thousands of ballot boxes whether he is to be the next president of the United States.

He will learn at his home on the campus of Stanford University whether the colorful career that began there when both the college and himself were young and that was pounded itself out in all parts of the world will come to its climax in the White House.

Noisily, merrily, with a gay abandon, California began her welcome early this morning, soon after the train had crossed the state line.

The Hoover whom California welcomed today was a man confident, clear-eyed and vigorous. His smile was ready. He repeated to friends again today his confidence of election. He appeared in excellent health.

The campaign has been trying. It has been a different type of campaign from that conducted by Governor Alfred E. Smith. Hoover's has been almost a "desk" campaign. He has ventured forth but few times to take the stump.

Hoover has a reputation as a hard worker. He sometimes wears out his aides on big jobs. This has been another "job" to him, a slightly different type of job but tackled in his usual way.

Hoover was expected to get a royal welcome when he steps from his train at Palo Alto at 2:05 P. M. Pacific coast time. A host of college students will be in the crowd at the station to give him an old-fashioned college rah rah reception. He and Mrs. Hoover and their son, Allan, will go immediately to their home from the station.

At 6:45 Pacific coast time, the republican candidate will speak into the microphone his last message before the election, a brief nationwide appeal over the radio for voters to go to the polls. It will be a non-partisan address.

Tuesday morning early, he will go to the Stanford Union, on the campus to cast his vote for himself for president. Four other members of the family also will vote for him at the same time, Mrs. Hoover, Allan, who will cast his first vote, Herbert Hoover, Jr. and his wife.

The candidate expects to spend Tuesday quietly while the nation is voting. He will receive election returns Tuesday night over a special United Press wire which has been installed in his home.

The republican candidate was fresh and eager today. He spent a restful Sunday. It was interrupted but a few times as the train crossed the wild waste lands, and speeded between the stark mountains of Utah and Nevada, country familiar to the candidate and his wife from the mining-engineer days.

At the infrequent stops, crowds, which gathered about the back platform, showed their friendliness for him. Hoover expressed his pleasure at the receptions along the way, but declined to discuss politics because it was the Sabbath. He explained this to the crowds.

St. Paul, Nov. 5.—(U.P.)—Week-end burglars robbed two business establishments of $825 in cash it was reported to police here today. A safe containing $725 was stolen from the Gilbert tea shop and $100 was taken from the E. S. Nelson pool room.

TOMORROW Be Sure to Vote

Let every citizen, having prepared himself by study and prayer, go to the polls as to a holy place and cast his ballot as a sacred service to God and to his country.

SHOOTING OF GAMBLER HEAD IS MYSTERIOUS

ARNOLD ROTHSTEIN, SHOT, STAGGERS INTO NEW YORK HOTEL

REFUSES TO COMMENT ON SHOOTING, SERIOUSLY WOUNDED IN ABDOMEN

New York, Nov. 5.—(U.P.)—The shooting of Arnold Rothstein, leader of New York's gambling set, appeared almost as mysterious today as the life the 46-year-old gambler has led. Rothstein staggered into the Park Central Hotel shortly before midnight.

"I'm shot, get me a taxi-cab," he mumbled to the starter. Instead an ambulance was ordered and he was removed to the hospital. He refused to comment on who had shot him in the abdomen, the reason for the shooting, or any of the circumstances.

A few minutes after Rothstein appeared at the hotel a taxi-cab driver handed police a pistol he had picked up in the street near the hotel. It was believed the pistol of Rothstein's attacker—thrown away after the shooting.

The only conceivable theory police could advance was that Rothstein had been shot by one of his enemies perhaps in an attempt to gain revenge for a gambling loss.

REGARD DEATH OF LAKE BLUFF GIRL AS MURDER

REWARD OF $1,000 OFFERED BY LAKE COUNTY, ILLINOIS

OFFICIALS DISREGARD PRETTY BOOK AGENT'S DEATH-BED STATEMENT

Lake Bluff, Ill., Nov. 5.—(U.P.)—Lake county officials recognized as murder today the mysterious burning of Elfrieda Knaak, disregarding the pretty book agent's deathbed statement that she submitted her body to the furnace of the village hall here to "purify" herself.

Upon recommendation of State's Attorney A. V. Smith, the Lake county board of supervisors announced it would pay a reward of $1,000 for information leading to the apprehension of any person who was involved in the weird furnace burning.

Elfrieda, 29-year-old encyclopedia saleswoman, was found fatally burned in the basement of the village police station last Tuesday morning. She lived three days during which she mumbled incoherent statements of her "spiritual love" for Charles W. Hitchcock, handsome village night policeman.

Belief that the girl was murdered was supported by her dying statement, "Why did they do it?"

An inquest scheduled for Thursday, was postponed today until Saturday by Coroner John L. Taylor.

CALL FOR STATE BANKS ISSUED AS OF OCT. 29

St. Paul, Nov. 5.—(U.P.)—A. J. Vögel, state banking commissioner, today issued a call for condition of state banks as of October 29.

SEVEN-YEAR-OLD KILLS MOTHER

"The gun went boom and Mamma fell down. Then she went to sleep and I couldn't wake her up." Leo Kroek, 7, pictured above, is innocent of the fact that when he "played Indian" with the big gun he found on the back porch he ended the life of his mother, Mrs. Tillie Kroek of Chicago, a widow and mother of eight children.

36 DEATHS IN TYPHUS EPIDEMIC NEAR BUDAPEST

Budapest, Nov. 5.—(U.P.)—Thirty-six deaths had been reported today in an epidemic of typhus which broke out in the countryside of the pest. Two hundred and sixty-five cases of the disease had been reported and infection was traced to the village of Kava, where typhus breaks out nearly every autumn.

GOVERNOR SMITH ENDS CAMPAIGN WITH HUSKY VOICE

HAPPY WARRIOR, AS USUAL, SHOWS UNCONQUERED SPIRIT

ONE SPEECH, ADDRESSED TO FARMERS BROADCAST AT 12:30 P. M.

By PAUL R. MALLON (United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Nov. 5.—Gov. Alfred E. Smith will end his presidential campaign today with a husky voice and an unconquered spirit.

The happy warrior was happy still although fatigued, as he finished his last two speeches, working with his stenographer at his hotel home high above the city streets where he was raised.

The first speech, addressed to the farmers, will be broadcast over a national radio network at 12:30 P. M. and at 10 P. M. the democratic nominee will devote an hour to his final appeal to all voters. This too will be broadcast nationally, just as the first speech.

At dinner tonight he will meet his old friends, the newboys of New York who, along with members of the radio cast of "Up From the City Streets," will be guests of his campaign manager, John J. Raskob, at his hotel. Later he will go to his old home in Oliver Street to visit in the Tammany clubhouse which he haunted as assemblyman.

Whatever may happen to the democratic presidential nominee in the balloting tomorrow will be just one of those things to him—he has his wife and family, a good reputation and a quick thinking mind. He is not wealthy, but he has friends with millions of dollars.

If he fails to be elected president he probably will get a job running a friend's trucking business in New York and thereby make some money for the second time in his life. At least that is the way he reasons it all out. It is six of one and half a dozen of the other, whether he wins or loses, he says.

Those who are nearest him contend he would rather stay here with his arms about the shoulders of his old friends than go to the White House, where everything would be new, where difficult problems would have to be worked out and where his friends would be as strange as he would be.

Smith is so tired from the campaign that the last few of his speeches have not been up to his standard for fire and enthusiasm. He has saved himself from the usual haphazard ordeal of democratic candidates who have rushed up to the finish wire with a gasp. He has put his foot down upon the expansive program which was outlined for him by the various local leaders in various states and has cared for his strength up until the final moment. But no democratic nominee has had a more tiresome campaign. Smith has met frenzied crowds who tumbled police before them in their desire to touch his coat; he has waved the brown derby across the United States; he has fought vigorously as only he knows how to fight political campaigns and he is finishing with the same smile with which he started.

Tomorrow the governor will go to a stationery store near his hotel to cast his vote and then will retire to obtain reports of the progress of the election over a special United Press wire.

New York, Nov. 5.—A final appeal to the farmers was made by Gov. Alfred E. Smith in a short radio speech delivered today from a local broadcasting station.

The democratic presidential nominee outlined proposals he had endorsed for handling the agricultural problem and argued that his republican

MOTOR FALTERS AND CRAFT HITS A SIDE HILL

VENEZIER RESIDENTS HEARD A TERRIFIC IMPACT, FOLLOWED BY EXPLOSION

SEARCHERS FIND THE MANGLED BODIES OF C. B. COLLYER AND HARRY TUCKER

Prescott, Ariz., Nov. 5.—(U.P.)—Motor trouble, which caused the swift monoplane "Yankee Doodle" to falter while over a rugged section of Arizona Saturday night on an attempt to break the coast-to-coast speed record, was blamed today for the crash which killed Captain C. B. D. Colyer, round-the-world flyer, and Harry Tucker, sportsman and capitalist.

The airplane appeared over Arizona at dusk, after leaving Los Angeles at 3:29 P. M. Saturday. As it approached Prescott, its motor was sputtering. A drizzle of rain was falling and thick clouds scurried overhead.

Residents of the district near Venezier, 15 miles to the south, next heard the sputtering roar of the "Yankee Doodle's" motor. Then there was a sudden sound of a terrific impact, then an explosion that echoed up and down the adjacent valleys.

Searchers found the splintered wreckage of the "Yankee Doodle" and the shattered bodies of its occupants. The gasoline tank had exploded, showering portions of the plane over an area 1,000 feet square. The bodies of Colyer and Tucker were ripped and torn.

The plane had struck the side of a hill at an altitude of more than 7,500 feet. It had skidded through a growth of trees from the force of the landing and the effect of the explosion.

The only explanation here was that Colyer, with a balky motor on his hands and in desperate need of a landing place, had taken his chances on the mountainside, hoping he could bring the plane safely to earth.

The Yankee Doodle was holder of the speed records for crossing the continent in both directions. It had made the west to east flight in 18 hours and 52 minutes, and the New York to Los Angeles flight in 24 hours, 52 minutes.

Tucker owned the Yankee Doodle, Colyer became associated with Tucker as pilot of the flight in which together they broke the record for east to west flight.

COL. LINDBERGH TO FLY TO ST. LOUIS TO CAST HIS VOTE

Fort Worth, Tex., Nov. 5.—(U.P.)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh takes off from here today for St. Louis to vote.

The "flying colonel" arrived yesterday from Midland, Tex., by airplane after an all night drive in an automobile from the Luis Leon ranch in Mexico where he had been hunting.

The flier proved an excellent hunter, bagging several bears and an antelope, the latter from a plane.

Hoover opponent, Herbert Hoover, and the republican party had no solution. The crux of the farm problem, he said, is the disposal of surplus crops, a principle which, he contended was not recognized by the republican candidate or platform.

Carrying his charges directly to Hoover, Smith said: "The republicans have been in power for seven and a half years. Mr. Hoover said last Friday night that they had 'been alive to the situation of agriculture.' I know you will agree with me that they did nothing about it; that the promises they made have never been kept and that the situation is worse today than when the republicans came into office."

Smith contended that it was upon Hoover's advice that President Coolidge vetoed the only farm relief measure which thus far has been proposed.

The governor discussed the republican proposal for development of inland waterways, for adequate marketing facilities, saying he was in complete accord with all these proposals but that they were inadequate to meet the situation.

THE BRAINERD DAILY DISPATCH

Volume 28, Number 131

Full Leased Wire Service of United Press Association

BRAINERD, MINNESOTA MONDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1928

Printed on Paper Made in Brainerd

Price Three Cents

GREATEST OUTPOURING OF AMERICAN VOTERS

BY ANOTHER NIGHTFALL VOTE WILL BE CAST

AMERICAN PEOPLE TO CHOOSE MAN TO RULE DESTINIES
NEXT FOUR YEARS

OFFICIALS ARE TO BE TAXED IN MOST PLACES

RAYMOND CLAPPER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
New York, Oct. 5.—(UP)—By another nightfall the American people will have chosen the man who is to rule their destinies for the next four years.

The fates of Herbert Hoover and Alfred E. Smith probably already have been decided in the minds of the voters. It only remains for the votes to be cast and counted.

Tuesday will see the greatest outpouring of American voters in history. Election officials will be heavily taxed in most places. The count may be late in coming in from many localities for this reason, although it may be that the results will be known before midnight Tuesday. Between 35,000,000 and 40,000,000 votes are expected to be cast as against the 29,000,000 in 1924, the previous record.

This election will not only decide who is to be president and vice president, but an entirely new house of representatives at Washington is to be elected. One-third of the seats in the United States senate must be filled. Thirty-four states will elect governors. Many states will choose new legislatures and state and county officials.

The drama of the presidential race, one of the most exciting in many years, overshadows everything else in this impending election. The choice for the highest office—as befits the tradition of a democratic nation—lies between two men who started at the bottom of the ladder and rose by sheer superiority.

Both started from scratch and both finally came face to face in a grapple for the nation's highest honor but by widely diverse routes. Hoover is running for office for the first time in his life. Smith has been running for office twenty-five years.

Each has conducted a campaign typical of his past career, except for a radio speech by Hoover tonight from his home in Palo Alto, Cal., and two by Smith from studios here. They have rested their case with the voters.

What will happen is uncertain because of the intense bitterness which has been stirred by factors which never before have entered prominently into a presidential campaign—religion and the prohibition question. In spite of the intensity of the fight around these two questions, Hoover has conducted the most restrained campaign any republican presidential candidate ever staged.

He has made just seven set addresses, including his acceptance speech. Smith, on the contrary, has swept about the country on three major campaign trips carrying him as far west as Montana and down to Oklahoma.

Hoover has discussed general topics for the most part, practically ignoring Smith except to charge recently that his program on prohibition, water power and farm relief constituted state socialism.

Hoover has conducted his campaign on the assumption that the country is satisfied with conditions under President Coolidge and wants to continue that plan. He has promised an extra session to deal with farm relief but otherwise his basic appeal has been that he will keep things as they are under Coolidge.

Smith has recognized from the beginning this would be Hoover's strategy and he sought to meet it by making the democratic party essentially a high tariff party. His whole strategy has been to round up the wet voters and inspire confidence among enough republicans to compensate for the natural democratic shortage of votes.

Religious prejudice has played a tremendous part despite the admonition of both candidates that it must not be brought into the campaign. Democrats have accused the republicans of covertly fostering anti-Catholic prejudice and republicans on the other hand feel the democrats have exploited the role of martyrdom as much as possible and have covertly appealed to all Catholics to support the democratic ticket.

Prohibition is the most active issue discussed by the candidates and

"Yankee Doodle" Airplane Crashes to Its Doom

BETTING IN WALL STREET IS LIGHT ON COMING ELECTION

New York, Nov. 5.—(U.P.)—Although betting on the presidential election has increased in the last week, it was reported in Wall street today to be unusually light in comparison to other years. Some brokers estimated the total amount wagered here was between $4,000,000 and $5,000,000, much of which was placed in the last few days. Odds in the last few days lengthened to 4½ and 5 to 1 on the Hoover-Curtis ticket.

they clash here more directly than on any other question. Hoover has declared against repeal of the eighteenth amendment. Smith is for modification of it. Hoover called prohibition a "noble experiment which must be worked out constructively." Smith declared the Volstead act was a failure and a change was necessary.

On farm relief there is divergence with Hoover opposing the McNary-Haugen bill and favoring stabilization corporations and greater tariff protection with Smith offering to appoint a commission to study a plan and endorsing the fundamental principle of the McNary-Haugen bill.

On water power Hoover is fundamentally for private ownership and Smith favors government ownership and control.

Governor Smith has reversed the historic policy of the democratic party on the tariff and has obtained pledge from 90 per cent of the democratic candidates for congress to support his position. He would not permit any change in the tariff which would take one cent from the pockets of any workman or disturb business, he has said in many speeches.

Republicans have charged Smith favors letting down restrictions on immigration but he denies this and insists he stands with Hoover in favor of restriction.

Other issues count for little in this campaign. The battle has been waged furiously with hundreds of stump speakers. It probably has been the most expensive in the nation's history and the officially reported costs probably will run to $12,000,000 besides thousands of dollars spent which will never be accounted for.

Radio has come into a dominating position in the mechanics of the campaign with each party spending thousands of dollars to buy time on the air. Dozens of speakers have supplemented the efforts of the candidates. Radio has forced the candidates to change tactics. It requires a new speech each time.

With so many novel factors in the campaign, the tremendous number of new voters, the religious and the prohibition issues which never have been tested in a national election, the uncertainty as to how the voters in mass have reacted to the impressions of the candidates received direct over the radio makes this election extremely difficult to judge.

Politicians in many states are frankly baffled. No human being knows what will happen in states like Massachusetts and Missouri.

Among many political experts, it is considered that the following three points are likely to react against Gov. Smith:

1. The United States is normally republican by 5,000,000 votes or more.
2. The nation is dry—or was theoretically so ten years ago when every state except Connecticut and Rhode Island ratified the federal prohibition amendment.
3. The nation has a Protestant tradition, has never elected a Catholic president, and has a Catholic population only in the proportion of about one to five.

Furthermore the record of the Tweed ring and other Tammany figures has been stressed in many sections as an argument against Smith, who is a Tammany man. On the other hand, democrats have countered with the argument that the "oil scandals" react against a republican administration.

After an 11,000-mile trip as political correspondent of United Press which took this correspondent into every section of the United States, the situation may be stated conservatively as follows:

Hoover is fairly certain of 250 electoral votes with 16 more needed to win. Smith is fairly certain of 759 electoral votes—the solid south and New York—with 107 more needed to win.

Hoover Comes Home to California and Ends Campaign Today Among Friends of Youth

CALIFORNIA GIVES A NOISY WELCOME TO HIM

HOOVER IS CONFIDENT, CLEAR-EYED AND VIGOROUS TODAY

APPEARS TO BE IN EXCELLENT HEALTH ON EVE OF ELECTION DAY

By THOMAS L. STOKES
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Aboard Herbert Hoover's Special Train En Route to Palo Alto, Calif., Nov. 5.—Herbert Hoover came home to California and to the end of his campaign today to be among his friends in the scenes of his young manhood while the nation decides at thousands of ballot boxes whether he is to be the next president of the United States.

He will learn at his home on the campus of Stanford University whether the colorful career that began there when both the college and himself were young and that was pounded itself out in all parts of the world will come to its climax in the White House.

Noisily, merrily, with a gay abandon, California began her welcome early this morning, soon after the train had crossed the state line.

The Hoover whom California welcomed today was a man confident, clear-eyed and vigorous. His smile was ready. He repeated to friends again today his confidence of election. He appeared in excellent health.

The campaign has been trying. It has been a different type of campaign from that conducted by Governor Alfred E. Smith. Hoover's has been almost a "desk" campaign. He has ventured forth but few times to take the stump.

Hoover has a reputation as a hard worker. He sometimes wears out his aides on big jobs. This has been another "job" to him, a slightly different type of job but tackled in his usual way.

Hoover was expected to get a royal welcome when he steps from his train at Palo Alto at 2:05 P. M. Pacific coast time. A host of college students will be in the crowd at the station to give him an old-fashioned college rah rah reception. He and Mrs. Hoover and their son, Allan, will go immediately to their home from the station.

At 6:45 Pacific coast time, the republican candidate will speak into the microphone his last message before the election, a brief nationwide appeal over the radio for voters to go to the polls. It will be a non-partisan address.

Tuesday morning early, he will go to the Stanford Union, on the campus to cast his vote for himself for president. Four other members of the family also will vote for him at the same time, Mrs. Hoover, Allan, who will cast his first vote, Herbert Hoover, Jr. and his wife.

The candidate expects to spend Tuesday quietly while the nation is voting. He will receive election returns Tuesday night over a special United Press wire which has been installed in his home.

The republican candidate was fresh and eager today. He spent a restful Sunday. It was interrupted but a few times as the train crossed the wild waste lands, and speeded between the stark mountains of Utah and Nevada, country familiar to the candidate and his wife from the mining-engineer days.

At the infrequent stops, crowds, which gathered about the back platform, showed their friendliness for him. Hoover expressed his pleasure at the receptions along the way, but declined to discuss politics because it was the Sabbath. He explained this to the crowds.

St. Paul, Nov. 5.—(U.P.)—Week-end burglars robbed two business establishments of $825 in cash it was reported to police here today. A safe containing $725 was stolen from the Gilbert tea shop and $100 was taken from the E. S. Nelson pool room.

TOMORROW Be Sure to Vote

Let every citizen, having prepared himself by study and prayer, go to the polls as to a holy place and cast his ballot as a sacred service to God and to his country.

SHOOTING OF GAMBLER HEAD IS MYSTERIOUS

ARNOLD ROTHSTEIN, SHOT, STAGGERS INTO NEW YORK HOTEL

REFUSES TO COMMENT ON SHOOTING, SERIOUSLY WOUNDED IN ABDOMEN

New York, Nov. 5.—(U.P.)—The shooting of Arnold Rothstein, leader of New York's gambling set, appeared almost as mysterious today as the life the 46-year-old gambler has led. Rothstein staggered into the Park Central Hotel shortly before midnight.

"I'm shot, get me a taxi-cab," he mumbled to the starter. Instead an ambulance was ordered and he was removed to the hospital. He refused to comment on who had shot him in the abdomen, the reason for the shooting, or any of the circumstances.

A few minutes after Rothstein appeared at the hotel a taxi-cab driver handed police a pistol he had picked up in the street near the hotel. It was believed the pistol of Rothstein's attacker—thrown away after the shooting.

The only conceivable theory police could advance was that Rothstein had been shot by one of his enemies perhaps in an attempt to gain revenge for a gambling loss.

SEVEN-YEAR-OLD KILLS MOTHER

"The gun went boom and Mamma fell down. Then she went to sleep and I couldn't wake her up." Leo Krock, 7, pictured above, is innocent of the fact that when he "played Indian" with the big gun he found on the back porch he ended the life of his mother, Mrs. Tillie Krock of Chicago, a widow and mother of eight children.

REGARD DEATH OF LAKE BLUFF GIRL AS MURDER

REWARD OF $1,000 OFFERED BY LAKE COUNTY, ILLINOIS

OFFICIALS DISREGARD PRETTY BOOK AGENT'S DEATH-BED STATEMENT

Lake Bluff, Ill., Nov. 5.—(U.P.)—Lake county officials recognized as murder today the mysterious burning of Elfrieda Knaak, disregarding the pretty book agent's deathbed statement that she submitted her body to the furnace of the village hall here to "purify" herself.

Upon recommendation of State's Attorney A. V. Smith, the Lake county board of supervisors announced it would pay a reward of $1,000 for information leading to the apprehension of any person who was involved in the weird furnace burning.

Elfrieda, 29-year-old encyclopedia saleswoman, was found fatally burned in the basement of the village police station last Tuesday morning. She lived three days during which she mumbled incoherent statements of her "spiritual love" for Charles W. Hitchcock, handsome village night policeman.

Belief that the girl was murdered was supported by her dying statement, "Why did they do it?"

An inquest scheduled for Thursday was postponed today until Saturday by Coroner John L. Taylor.

CALL FOR STATE BANKS ISSUED AS OF OCT. 29

St. Paul, Nov. 5.—(U.P.)—A. J. Veigel, state banking commissioner, today issued a call for condition of state banks as of October 29.

36 DEATHS IN TYPHUS EPIDEMIC NEAR BUDAPEST

Budapest, Nov. 5.—(U.P.)—Thirty-six deaths had been reported today in an epidemic of typhus which broke out in the countryside of the pest. Two hundred and sixty-five cases of the disease had been reported and infection was traced to the village of Kava, where typhus breaks out nearly every autumn.

GOVERNOR SMITH ENDS CAMPAIGN WITH HUSKY VOICE

HAPPY WARRIOR, AS USUAL, SHOWS UNCONQUERED SPIRIT

ONE SPEECH, ADDRESSED TO FARMERS BROADCAST AT 12:30 P. M.

By PAUL R. MALLON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
New York, Nov. 5.—Gov. Alfred E. Smith will end his presidential campaign today with a husky voice and an unconquered spirit.

The happy warrior was happy still although fatigued, as he finished his last two speeches, working with his stenographer at his hotel home high above the city streets where he was raised.

The first speech, addressed to the farmers, will be broadcast over a national radio network at 12:30 P. M. and at 10 P. M. the democratic nominee will devote an hour to his final appeal to all voters. This too will be broadcast nationally, just as the first speech.

At dinner tonight he will meet his old friends, the newsmen of New York who, along with members of the radio cast of "Up From the City Streets," will be guests of his campaign manager, John J. Raskob, at his hotel. Later he will go to his old home in Oliver Street to visit in the Tammany clubhouse which he haunted as assemblyman.

Whatever may happen to the democratic presidential nominee in the balloting tomorrow will be just one of those things to him—he has his wife and family, a good reputation and a quick thinking mind. He is not wealthy, but he has friends with millions of dollars.

If he fails to be elected president he probably will get a job running a friend's trucking business in New York and thereby make some money for the second time in his life. At least that is the way he reasons it all out. It is six of one and half a dozen of the other, whether he wins or loses, he says.

Those who are nearest him contend he would rather stay here with his arms about the shoulders of his old friends than go to the White House, where everything would be new, where difficult problems would have to be worked out and where his friends would be as strange as he would be.

Smith is so tired from the campaign that the last few of his speeches have not been up to his standard for fire and enthusiasm. He has saved himself from the usual haphazard ordeal of democratic candidates who have rushed up to the finish wire with a gasp. He has put his foot down upon the expansive program which was outlined for him by the various local leaders in various states and has cared for his strength up until the final moment. But no democratic nominee has had a more tiresome campaign. Smith has met frenzied crowds who tumbled police before them in their desire to touch his coat; he has waved the brown derby across the United States; he has fought vigorously as only he knows how to fight political campaigns and he is finishing with the same smile with which he started.

Tomorrow the governor will go to a stationery store near his hotel to cast his vote and then will retire to obtain reports of the progress of the election over a special United Press wire.

New York, Nov. 5.—A final appeal to the farmers was made by Gov. Alfred E. Smith in a short radio speech delivered today from a local broadcasting station.

The democratic presidential nominee outlined proposals he had endorsed for handling the agricultural problem and argued that his republic-

MOTOR FALTERS AND CRAFT HITS A SIDE HILL

VENEZIER RESIDENTS HEARD A TERRIFIC IMPACT, FOLLOWED BY EXPLOSION

SEARCHERS FIND THE MANGLED BODIES OF C. B. COLLYER AND HARRY TUCKER

Prescott, Ariz., Nov. 5.—(U.P.)—Motor trouble, which caused the swift monoplane "Yankee Doodle" to falter while over a rugged section of Arizona Saturday night an attempt to break the coast-to-coast speed record, was blamed today for the crash which killed Captain C. B. D. Collyer, round-the-world flyer, and Harry Tucker, sportsman and capitalist.

The airplane appeared over Arizona at dusk, after leaving Los Angeles at 3:29 P. M. Saturday. As it approached Prescott, its motor was sputtering. A drizzle of rain was falling and thick clouds scurried overhead.

Residents of the district near Venezier, 15 miles to the south, next heard the sputtering roar of the "Yankee Doodle's" motor. Then there was a sudden sound of a terrific impact, then an explosion that echoed up and down the adjacent valleys.

Searchers found the splintered wreckage of the "Yankee Doodle" and the shattered bodies of its occupants. The gasoline tank had exploded, showering portions of the plane over an area 1,000 feet square. The bodies of Collyer and Tucker were ripped and torn.

The plane had struck the side of a hill at an altitude of more than 7,500 feet. It had skidded through a growth of trees from the force of the landing and the effect of the explosion.

The only explanation here was that Collyer, with a balky motor on his hands and in desperate need of a landing place, had taken his chances on the mountainside, hoping he could bring the plane safely to earth.

The Yankee Doodle was holder of the speed records for crossing the continent in both directions. It had made the west to east flight in 18 hours and 52 minutes, and the New York to Los Angeles flight in 24 hours, 52 minutes.

Tucker owned the Yankee Doodle, Collyer became associated with Tucker as pilot of the flight in which together they broke the record for east to west flight.

COL. LINDBERGH TO FLY TO ST. LOUIS TO CAST HIS VOTE

Fort Worth, Tex., Nov. 5.—(U.P.)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh takes off from here today for St. Louis to vote.

The "flying colonel" arrived yesterday from Midland, Tex., by airplane after an all night drive in an automobile from the Luis Leon ranch in Mexico where he had been hunting.

The flier proved an excellent nimrod, bagging several bears and an antelope, the latter from a plane.

His opponent, Herbert Hoover, and the republican party had no solution. The crux of the farm problem, he said, is the disposal of surplus crops, a principle which, he contended was not recognized by the republican candidate or platform.

Carrying his charges directly to Hoover, Smith said: "The republicans have been in power for seven and a half years. Mr. Hoover said last Friday night that they had 'been alive to the situation of agriculture.' I know you will agree with me that they did nothing about it; that the promises they made have never been kept and that the situation is worse today than when the republicans came into office."

Smith contended that it was upon Hoover's advice that President Coolidge vetoed the only farm relief measure which thus far has been proposed.

The governor discussed the republican proposal for development of inland waterways, for adequate marketing facilities, saying he was in complete accord with all these proposals but that they were inadequate to meet the situation.

PERSONAL, CLUB and LOCAL NEWS

Telephone 74

Sam Newman spent Sunday in Minneapolis.

A. M. Kane of So. Paul is a Brainerd visitor this afternoon.

K. Anderson of Duluth was a Brainerd caller this afternoon.

Mrs. A. E. Thon spent Sunday in Minneapolis with relatives.

Roger Holden is confined to his home on account of illness.

Henry Mills is spending several days in Minneapolis on business.

A. J. Schultz of St. Paul was a business visitor in Brainerd this afternoon.

Bell Orchestra at Clara Lutheran church Friday, Nov. 9. 13112

Mrs. A. E. Thon spent the week-end in St. Paul visiting friends and relatives.

92-100 K. perfect blue white diamond, mounted $235. 205 South Seventh street. 11

Scout Executive B. Perry Newton was a business visitor in Crosby and Atkin today.

ELKS
Will Have Open House
TUESDAY EVENING, NOV. 6
To Get Election Returns
All Welcome
13012

Attorney F. E. Murphy of Crosby was a business visitor in the city Saturday afternoon.

Radiator glycerine. Anti Freeze, one filling lasts many seasons. Houle Motor. 12916

Miss Ina Geer of the Vanity Beauty Shop is spending a few days in Minneapolis on business.

ELECTION RETURNS at the Lyceum Tuesday night. 13112

Mrs. E. F. Gates has returned from Chicago where she spent the past week buying holiday goods.

Mrs. Mae Cannon returned last night from St. Cloud, where she spent the week-end with relatives.

Try our extra heavy malted milk. Olympia Cafe. 1231f

Mrs. Julius Viken returned yesterday from Minneapolis, where she has spent the past few days.

Four men from the Northern Pacific railway are taking down the water tower near the tie plant.

You must be satisfied. Performance of every Arvin heater guaranteed for all cars at 52 Gamble Stores—Chevrolet and Whippet. $2.68. 11

Chester Benson has returned from Minneapolis where he spent the week-end.

Regular meeting Ascalon Commandery, Nov. 6, 8 o'clock 6:30. All Sir Knights and ladies are invited. 11

Mrs. Fred Moody of Bemidji spent the week-end in Brainerd as the guests of her sister, Mrs. Fred Bishop.

Togo Ericson, who is attending the University of Minnesota spent the week-end here in Brainerd with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Snodgrass left yesterday for St. Paul after spending the week-end at the home of G. L. Harris.

Phone your orders for Motorcycle Quick Delivery to R. F. Roller, at Studebaker Garage, 251-W. 13012p

Mr. and Mrs. Don C. Freeman and Mrs. Archie Seymour of St. Cloud

BRAINERD PAINT & WALL PAPER CO.

We do all kinds of Painting and Decorating
Phone 204 608 Laurel St.

Raise Rabbits

Association buys all rabbits raised by members. Time payments may be arranged on breeding stock. Write or call for details.

Chinchilla Fur Breeders Assn.
1220 So. Broadway, Brainerd

Minnesota — Cloudy tonight; Tuesday probably fair, moderate temperature.

Nov. 3.—In evening 30.
Nov. 4.—Maximum 52, minimum 20. Southeast wind. Cloudy. In evening 30.
Nov. 5.—Maximum 43, minimum 24. Southeast wind. Cloudy.

BULLETIN BOARD

Men's club of Norwegian-Danish Lutheran church, 8 P. M. — J. B. Johnson.

City council—City hall.
School board—City hall.
DeMolay—Masonic hall.
Women's Catholic council study class.

Legion Auxiliary—Iron Exchange hall.

Florence Rebekah lodge—I. O. O. F. hall.

Brainerd Fire Department, Hose Company No. 2—Central station.

Brainerd Fire Department, Hose Company No. 3—Northeast station.

Rushworth Encampment—Ironton.

Comrade club, 7 P. M.—Y. M. C. A.

TOMORROW

Rotarians, 12 M.—Ransford.

spent the week end with friends in Brainerd

Regular meeting of American Legion, Monday, November 5, 8 p. m. Installation of new officers. 12812m

Sheriff Claus A. Theorin and Deputy Sheriff Charles Oberg were business visitors in Crosby and Ironton this morning.

Miss Minnie Larson of Minneapolis spent the week-end in the city as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Larson.

Don Chaney is coming to the Lyceum Tuesday in "While The City Sleeps." 11

Miss Laura Cossette and Miss Helen McCaffrey returned last night from the Twin Cities, where they spent the week-end.

Mrs. Fred Bishop of this city and Mrs. Fred Moody of Bemidji visited their mother, Mrs. Birnsdahl in Pillager yesterday.

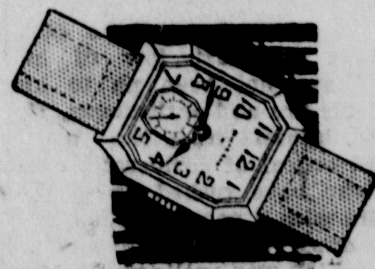

Special tonight, Judefsk, Hewitt's Cafe. 12815p

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mraz of Minneapolis visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Mraz, 613 South 9th street, over the week-end.

George Sweet returned this afternoon from Minneapolis after spending several days there visiting with his sister, Mrs. F. J. Weyl.

Mrs. J. A. Forrester, district president of the American Legion Auxiliary, will be an attendant at the Auxiliary meeting tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. William Campbell and

Is Your Watch Misbehaving?

If your watch is running irregularly, stopping occasionally and losing time, it probably needs a thorough cleaning.

Leave it with us for a few days and get it back running like new. We do expert work at moderate prices.

S. LUNDBORG
614 Laurel St.

Ask about the new Elgin Watch

son, Donald, returned Saturday evening from Montana where they have been visiting for the past three weeks.

Raymond Mee and James Richmond visited their mother, Mrs. M. Mee, at Deerwood sanitarium yesterday and report her much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Peterson and daughter, Faye, of Crosby, and Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Anderson spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Daniels.

Until further notice — A FREE INNER TUBE with each G. & J. Tread Cord or Balloon Tire. At any Gamble Store. 11

Clerk of Court W. A. M. Johnstone issued a marriage license Saturday afternoon to Ernest Swift and Miss Pearl A. Cunningham, both of Crow Wing county.

Try your breakfast, dinner or supper at Olympia Cafe; also your Sunday dinner. 1171f

Born to Dr. and Mrs. James Jennings Warner, of Vergas, a daughter, Nanette Elizabeth, on October 28. Mrs. Warner was formerly Miss Virginia Casey.

"Ha Dees" hot-water heaters for all cars at Houle Motor. 12916

James F. Wieland returned to his home in St. Paul yesterday afternoon after spending several days here as the guests of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Wieland.

Mrs. Walter Butka and daughter, Dorothy, Mrs. F. A. Butka and children, and Mrs. M. Berggreen and daughter, Evelyn, visited with friends in Crow Wing yesterday.

Modern Woodmen of America Camp 2337 please note next regular meeting tomorrow Tuesday, November 6, instead of November 9. C. Bruhn, clerk. 11p

Dr. and Mrs. M. G. Gillespie and son, Malcolm, of Duluth, spent the week-end here in the home of Mrs. Gillespie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Peterson, 703 North Seventh street.

Mrs. A. F. Hutchins and daughter Eloise and son Royal and Edward Klossky, week-end guests at the home of D. G. Nichols, returned to their home in Duluth last evening.

Storage hot or cold. Houle Motor. 12916

Walter Engbretson, who is a student at Augsburg college in Minneapolis, spent the week-end in the city with his parents, Mr. and Mrs.

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT—Inserted by and for A. G. Anderson, Brainerd, for which regular rates are paid.

To the Voters of 1st, 4th and 5th Wards of Brainerd

The office of County Commissioner is an important one. The responsibility is great, and it is becoming greater each year. During my 8 years as commissioner the county has:

Built, furnished and entirely PAID for the New Court House. Finished payments on old Court House.

Built and fully PAID for steel and concrete bridge across the Mississippi.

Adopted a program to put Crow Wing County entirely OUT of DEBT by 1930.

Established a modern system of continuous road maintenance of 165 miles of White Line Roads.

Built and fully PAID for 82 miles of Modern Roads.

I cite the above statements to give you an idea of the responsibility involved, so I can ask you this question: Will not the public be better served by continuing to entrust this important work to one who has had experience?

Since assuming the office, it has been my constant endeavor to conduct it fairly, faithfully and efficiently. It is a custom of long standing, in this county, to reward with re-election officials who have rendered satisfactory service. I believe my endeavor has been successful enough to justify a claim to the benefit of that custom. Should you be one who may doubt the soundness of that claim, I know you nevertheless want to be fair, and therefore, ask you this question: Wherein have I failed?

I am most grateful for the expression of confidence accorded me at the primary election. If I am successful at the general election, I will exert every effort to merit that confidence.

Yours very truly,

A. G. ANDERSON

BE SURE TO VOTE ON NOVEMBER 6!

S. E. Engbretson, 1215 Oak Street S. E.

Marion Davies is now playing at the Lyceum. 11

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Dietz and daughter, Dorothy and son, Wayne, returned this afternoon from Minneapolis, where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Dietz's mother, Mrs. Wheeler.

Ask about our liberal allowance on old radio sets in exchange for the All Electric 7-8 tube Arcadia with dynamic Power speaker. Your old set and $10.00 as down payment. Gamble Stores. —11

Earl Engbretson and son, Billie, returned to their home in Milwaukee, Wis., yesterday after spending the past week here visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Engbretson.

Lydia Darrah candies, always fresh, for sale exclusively in Brainerd at Archer's. One price, 70 cents a pound. New shipment received 13016

Vernon Dieckhaus, who is a student at Gustavus Adolphus college, returned to St. Peter today noon after spending the week-end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Dieckhaus, 411 North Broadway.

Nice Russett potatoes, 60c bushel delivered. No decay. Call 850-W. Samples, Fred Drexler shop. 13013p

J. Neil Van Alstine has returned from Colorado where he has been making a timber survey with the forestry service. He is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Van Alstine, 518 D street N. E.

Herbert Skarohlid, who is attending the University of Minnesota, returned to Minneapolis last evening, after spending the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Skarohlid, 415 A Street N. E.

NOTICE—Brotherhood of American Yeomen No. 602, our meeting nights have been changed back to the 1st and 3rd Wednesdays at the Old Elks hall. Dance after meeting. All archers in arrears are respectfully requested to come to meeting Wednesday evening and reinstate. E. I. Soliday, Corrspt. 12912fm

W. H. Irwin and Dr. Roy Williams were fortunate enough to bring down a 15½ pound white Canadian goose yesterday while duck hunting in a boat on Pelican lake. A flock of five geese flew over the men and Irwin fired, bringing down the large goose with one shot. The men also bagged nine ducks during their shoot.

Norwegian-Danish Men's Club
The Men's club of the Norwegian-Danish Lutheran church meets this evening at 8 o'clock at the home of B. Johnson, 1824 East Oak street. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Franson will entertain.

TWO CARS COLLIDE

Buicks Driven by Charles Falkenreck and Mr. Kirkwood of Robbinsdale in Smash

Two Buick cars driven by Charles Falkenreck of Brainerd and a Mr. Kirkwood of Robbinsdale respectively collided late Saturday afternoon at the 18 mile corner east of Brainerd, at the junction of Trunk Highway No. 18 and the Bay Lake road.

People in the Wilson store at the junction heard the crash and rushed out, giving first aid. The cars were badly damaged, one striking the other amidship.

Charles Falkenreck was bruised and his son Gerald had his face and head cut by flying glass. Mr. and Mrs. Kirkwood suffered bruises. Both cars were brought to Brainerd for repairs.

Epworth League Social

There will be an Epworth League social meeting tonight in the basement of the First Methodist church. All Leaguers and their friends are invited to come.

Birthday Party

About 30 friends of Dan Nichols surprised him at his home on Thirteenth street Saturday evening, in honor of his birthday. The evening was spent in playing cards and dancing. A luncheon was served at a late hour.

Miss Stadlbauer Entertains

Miss Helen Marie Stadlbauer entertained a number of friends at her home Saturday evening, the occasion being her birthday. The evening was spent in playing bridge, after which a delicious luncheon was served.

Election Day Supper

The Forward society of the Clara Lutheran church will serve supper in the church parlors tomorrow evening beginning at 5:30 o'clock.

DR. R. A. HALLQUIST

Veterinarian

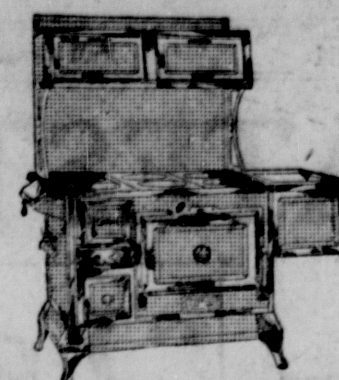

Phone 782-R

Brainerd

Minn.

GORHAM'S 10,000 LaKes Studio
PHONE 203

CORAL Range

Here is a range that will bring real comfort and helpfulness into your kitchen. The air-insulated oven is a perfect baker. The firebox is easier to handle. It's wonderfully easy to keep bright and clean and it can't rust. Come and see it, for it's the greatest value for your money that you ever saw. We have just the size you want!

Sanico Coral Range

Without reservoir, finished gray porcelain ————— $95.00

Sanico Coral Range

Baked Japan finish, trimmed with white porcelain and nickel ————— $67.50

ALDERMAN-MAGHAN COMPANY
Complete House Furnishers

Tomorrow
will soon be Today

When will you begin to save?

Small, regular deposits in a bank account will increase steadily with time and compound interest.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK
BRAINERD, MINNESOTA

Interest Paid on Time and Savings Accounts

This is Just One of the Attractive Borders
We Have for Your Ad
Ask Us

Brainerd Dispatch

PERSONAL, CLUB and LOCAL NEWS

Telephone 74

Sam Newman spent Sunday in Minneapolis.

A. M. Kane of So. Paul is a Brainerd visitor this afternoon.

K. Anderson of Duluth was a Brainerd caller this afternoon.

Mrs. A. E. Thon spent Sunday in Minneapolis with relatives.

Roger Holden is confined to his home on account of illness.

Henry Mills is spending several days in Minneapolis on business.

A. J. Schultz of St. Paul was a business visitor in Brainerd this afternoon.

Bell Orchestra at Clara Lutheran church Friday, Nov. 9. 13112

Mrs. A. E. Thon spent the week-end in St. Paul visiting friends and relatives.

92-100 K. perfect blue white diamond, mounted $235. 205 South Seventh street. 1t

Scout Executive E. Perry Newton was a business visitor in Crosby and Atkin today.

ELKS
Will Have Open House
TUESDAY EVENING, NOV. 6
To Get Election Returns
All Welcome
13012

Attorney F. E. Murphy of Crosby was a business visitor in the city Saturday afternoon.

Radiator glycerine. Anti Freeze, one filling lasts many seasons. Houle Motor. 12916

Miss Ina Geer of the Vanity Beauty Shop is spending a few days in Minneapolis on business.

ELECTION RETURNS at the Lyceum Tuesday night. 13112

Mrs. E. F. Gates has returned from Chicago where she spent the past week buying holiday goods.

Mrs. Mae Cannon returned last night from St. Cloud, where she spent the week-end with relatives.

Try our extra heavy malted milk. Olympia Cafe. 1231f

Mrs. Julius Viken returned yesterday from Minneapolis, where she has spent the past few days.

Four men from the Northern Pacific railway are taking down the water tower near the tie plant.

You must be satisfied. Performance of every Arvin heater guaranteed—for all cars at 52 Gamble Stores—Chevrolet and Whippet. $2.68. 1t

Chester Benson has returned from Minneapolis where he spent the week-end.

Regular meeting Ascalon Commandery, Nov. 6. Banquet 6:30. All Sir Knights and ladies are invited. 1t

Mrs. Fred Moody of Bemidji spent the week-end in Brainerd as the guests of her sister, Mrs. Fred Bisham.

Togo Ericson, who is attending the University of Minnesota spent the week-end here, in Brainerd with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Snodgrass left yesterday for St. Paul after spending the week-end at the home of G. L. Harris.

Phone your orders for Motorcycle Quick Delivery to R. F. Roller, at Studebaker Garage, 251-W. 13012p

Mr. and Mrs. Don C. Freeman and Mrs. Archie Seymour of St. Cloud

BRAINERD PAINT & WALL PAPER CO.

We do all kinds of Painting and Decorating
Phone 204 608 Laurel St.

Raise Rabbits

Association buys all rabbits raised by members. Time payments may be arranged on breeding stock. Write or call for details.

Chinchilla Fur Breeders Assn.
1400 So. Broadway, Brainerd

Minnesota — Cloudy tonight; Tuesday probably fair, moderate temperature.

Nov. 3.—In evening 80.
Nov. 4.—Maximum 52, minimum 20. Southeast wind. Cloudy. In evening 30.
Nov. 5.—Maximum 43, minimum 24. Southeast wind. Cloudy.

BULLETIN BOARD

Men's club of Norwegian-Danish Lutheran church, 8 P. M. — J. B. Johnson.

City council—City hall.
School board—City hall.
DeMolay—Masonic hall.

Women's Catholic council study class.

Legion Auxiliary—Iron Exchange hall.

Florence Rebekah lodge—I. O. O. F. hall.

Brainerd Fire Department, Hose Company No. 2—Central station.

Brainerd Fire Department, Hose Company No. 3—Northeast station.

Rushworth Encampment—Ironton. Comrade club, 7 P. M.—Y. M. C. A.

TOMORROW
Rotarians, 12 M.—Ransford.

spent the week-end with friends in Brainerd

Regular meeting of American Legion, Monday, November 5, 8 p. m. Installation of new officers. 12812m

Sheriff Claus A. Theorin and Deputy Sheriff Charles Oberg were business visitors in Crosby and Ironton this morning.

Miss Minnie Larson of Minneapolis spent the week-end in the city as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Larson.

Don Chaney is coming to the Lyceum Tuesday in "While the City Sleeps." 1t

Miss Laura Cossette and Miss Helen McCaffrey returned last night from the Twin Cities, where they spent the week-end.

Mrs. Fred Bisham of this city and Mrs. Fred Moody of Bemidji visited their mother, Mrs. Birnsdahl in Pillager yesterday.

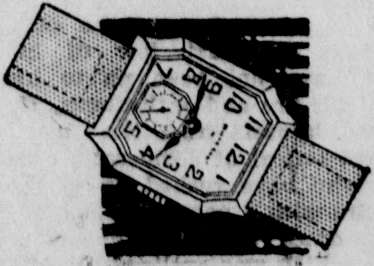

Special tonight, Judeisk, Hewitt's Cafe. 12815p

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mraz of Minneapolis visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Mraz, 613 South 9th street, over the week-end.

George Sweet returned this afternoon from Minneapolis after spending several days visiting with his sister, Mrs. F. J. Weyel.

Mrs. J. A. Forrester, district president of the American Legion Auxiliary, will be an attendant at the Auxiliary meeting tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. William Campbell and

Is Your Watch Misbehaving?

If your watch is running irregularly, stopping occasionally and losing time, it probably needs a thorough cleaning.

Leave it with us for a few days and get it back running like new. We do expert work at moderate prices.

S. LUNDBORG
614 Laurel St.

Ask about the new Elgin Watch

son, Donald, returned Saturday evening from Montana where they have been visiting for the past three weeks.

Raymond Mee and James Richmond visited their mother, Mrs. M. Mee, at Deerwood sanitarium yesterday and report her much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Peterson and daughter, Faye, of Crosby, and Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Anderson spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Daniels.

Until further notice — A FREE INNER TUBE with each G. & J. Tread Cord or Balloon Tire. At any Gamble Store. 1t

Clerk of Court W. A. M. Johnstone issued a marriage license Saturday afternoon to Ernest Swift and Miss Pearl A. Cunningham, both of Crow Wing county.

Try your breakfast, dinner or supper at Olympia Cafe; also your Sunday dinner. 1171f

Born to Dr. and Mrs. James Jennings Warner, of Vergas, a daughter, Nanette Elizabeth, on October 28. Mrs. Warner was formerly Miss Virginia Casey.

"Ha Dees" hot-water heaters for all cars at Houle Motor. 12916

James F. Wieland returned to his home in St. Paul yesterday afternoon after spending several days here as the guests of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Wieland.

Mrs. Walter Butka and daughter, Dorothy, Mrs. F. A. Butka and children, and Mrs. M. Berggreen and daughter, Evelyn, visited with friends in Crow Wing yesterday.

Modern Woodmen of America Camp 2337 please note next regular meeting tomorrow Tuesday, November 6, instead of November 9. C. Bruhn, clerk. 11p

Dr. and Mrs. M. G. Gillespie and son, Malcolm, of Duluth, spent the week-end here in the home of Mrs. Gillespie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Peterson, 703 North Seventh street.

Mrs. A. F. Hutchins and daughter, Eloise, and son Royal and Edward Klossky, week-end guests at the home of D. G. Nichols, returned to their home in Duluth last evening.

Storage hot or cold. Houle Motor. 12916

Walter Engbretson, who is a student at Augsburg college in Minneapolis, spent the week-end in the city with his parents, Mr. and Mrs.

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT—Inserted by and for A. G. Anderson, Brainerd, for which regular rates are paid.

To the Voters of 1st, 4th and 5th Wards of Brainerd

The office of County Commissioner is an important one. The responsibility is great, and it is becoming greater each year. During my 8 years as commissioner the county has:

Built, furnished and entirely PAID for the New Court House. Finished payments on old Court House.

Built and fully PAID for steel and concrete bridge across the Mississippi.

Adopted a program to put Crow Wing County entirely OUT of DEBT by 1930.

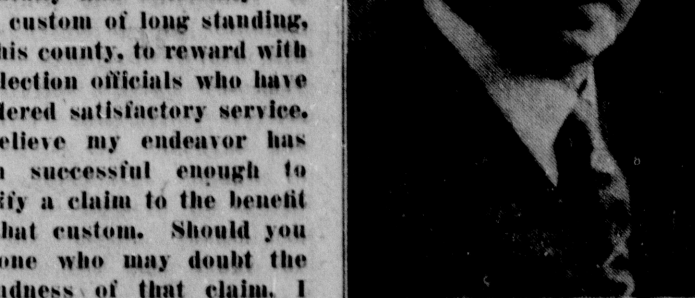

Established a modern system of continuous road maintenance of 165 miles of White Line Roads.

Built and fully PAID for 82 miles of Modern Roads.

I cite the above statements to give you an idea of the responsibility involved, so I can ask you this question: Will not the public be better served by continuing to entrust this important work to one who has had experience? Since assuming the office, it has been my constant endeavor to conduct it fairly, faithfully and efficiently. It is a custom of long standing, in this county, to reward with re-election officials who have rendered satisfactory service. I believe my endeavor has been successful enough to justify a claim to the benefit of that custom. Should you be one who may doubt the soundness of that claim, I know you nevertheless want to be fair, and therefore, ask you this question: Wherein have I failed?

I am most grateful for the expression of confidence accorded me at the primary election. If I am successful at the general election, I will exert every effort to merit that confidence.

Yours very truly,

A. G. ANDERSON

BE SURE TO VOTE ON NOVEMBER 6!

S. E. Engbretson, 1215 Oak Street S. E.

Marion Davies is now playing at the Lyceum. 1t

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Dietz and daughter, Dorothy and son, Wayne, returned this afternoon from Minneapolis, where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Dietz's mother, Mrs. Wheeler.

Ask about our liberal allowance on old radio sets in exchange for the All Electric 7-8 tube Arcadia with dynamic Power speaker. Your old set and $10.00 as down payment. Gamble Stores. 11

Earl Engbretson and son, Billie, returned to their home in Milwaukee, Wis., yesterday after spending the past week here visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Engbretson.

Lydia Darrah candies, always fresh, for sale exclusively in Brainerd at Archer's. One price, 70 cents a pound. New shipment received weekly. 13016

Vernon Dieckhaus, who is a student at Gustavus Adolphus college, returned to St. Peter today noon after spending the week-end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Dieckhaus, 411 North Broadway.

Nice Russett potatoes, 60c bushel delivered. No decay. Call 850-W. Samples, Fred Drexler shop. 13013p

J. Neil Van Alstine has returned from Colorado where he has been making a timber survey with the forestry service. He is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Van Alstine, 518 D street N. E.

Herbert Skarohild, who is attending the University of Minnesota, returned to Minneapolis last evening, after spending the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Skarohild, 415 A Street N. E.

NOTICE—Brotherhood of American Yeomen No. 602, our meeting nights have been changed back to the 1st and 3rd Wednesdays at the Old Elks hall. Dance after meeting. All archers in arrears are respectfully requested to come to meeting Wednesday evening and reinstate. E. I. Soliday, Corrspt. 12912fm

W. H. Irwin and Dr. Roy Williams were fortunate enough to bring down a 15½ pound white Canadian goose yesterday while duck hunting in a boat on Pelican lake. A flock of five geese flew over the men and Irwin fired, bringing down the large goose with one shot. The men also bagged nine ducks during their shoot.

Norwegian-Danish Men's Club
The Men's club of the Norwegian-Danish Lutheran church meets this evening at 8 o'clock at the home of B. Johnson, 1824 East-Oak street. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Franson will entertain.

TWO CARS COLLIDE

Buicks Driven by Charles Falkenreck and Mr. Kirkwood of Robbinsdale in Smash

Two Buick cars driven by Charles Falkenreck of Brainerd and a Mr. Kirkwood of Robbinsdale respectively collided late Saturday afternoon at the 18 mile corner east of Brainerd, at the junction of Trunk Highway No. 18 and the Bay Lake road.

People in the Wilson store at the junction heard the crash and rushed out, giving first aid. The cars were badly damaged, one striking the other amidship.

Charles Falkenreck was bruised and his son Gerald had his face and head cut by flying glass. Mr. and Mrs. Kirkwood suffered bruises. Both cars were brought to Brainerd for repairs.

Epworth League Social

There will be an Epworth League social meeting tonight in the basement of the First Methodist church. All Leaguers and their friends are invited to come.

Birthday Party

About 30 friends of Dan Nichols surprised him at his home on Thirteenth street Saturday evening, in honor of his birthday. The evening was spent in playing cards and dancing. A luncheon was served at a late hour.

Miss Stadlbauer Entertains
Miss Helen Marie Stadlbauer entertained a number of friends at her home Saturday evening, the occasion being her birthday. The evening was spent in playing bridge, after which a delicious luncheon was served.

Election Day Supper

The Forward society of the Clara Lutheran church will serve supper in the church parlors tomorrow evening beginning at 5:30 o'clock.

DR. R. A. HALLQUIST

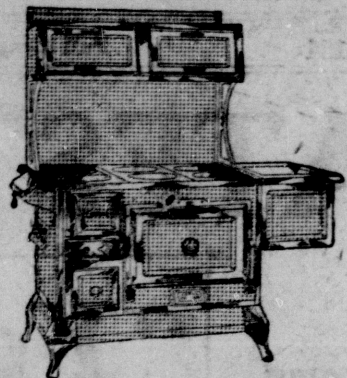

Veterinarian

Phone 782-R

Brainerd Minn.

Give Photographs for Christmas

GORHAM'S 10,000 Lakes Studio
PHONE 203

CORAL Range

Here is a range that will bring real comfort and helpfulness into your kitchen. The air-insulated oven is a perfect baker. The firebox is easier to handle. It's wonderfully easy to keep bright and clean and it can't rust. Come and see it, for it's the greatest value for your money that you ever saw. We have just the size you want!

Sanico Coral Range

Without reservoir, finished gray porcelain $95.00

Sanico Coral Range

Baked Japan finish, trimmed with white porcelain and nickle $67.50

ALDERMAN-MAGHAN COMPANY

Complete House Furnishers

Tomorrow will soon be Today

When will you begin to save?

Small, regular deposits in a bank account will increase steadily with time and compound interest.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK
BRAINERD, MINNESOTA

Interest Paid on Time and Savings Accounts

This is Just One of the Attractive Borders We Have for Your Ad Ask Us

Brainerd Dispatch

GIRL KILLED ON THIRD AVENUE

Aileen Nelson, age 7, was instantly killed this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock when she was accidentally struck by an automobile driven by Mrs. John Elkins.

According to reports received the little girl was crossing on Third avenue from the Lowell school which she attends. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anton G. Nelson, 503 Second Avenue Northeast, and leaves five sisters and a brother.

The car driven by Mrs. Elkins is said to have run over the curb and onto an adjacent lawn after the accident.

The body of the little girl was picked up by Earl Koop and Joseph Gustafson and was taken to the hospital.

The Boy Scouts of America are again this year assisting in the national campaign to "get out the vote." In line with this effort Tuesday morning, November 6, there will be a Scout at each polling place in the city who will blow assembly simultaneous with brother scouts all over the United States to remind people that the poll is open and to assemble there to vote. This will be repeated again at noon, at 5 o'clock and again just before the polls close.

The scouts will be located at the following places:
Lee Clarkson, old city lock-up.
Robert Wilson, library.
Robert Jackson, N. E. fire house.
Toisto Pohjola, S. E. fire house.
Robert Jackson, Lowell school.
Ross Olmsted, city hall.
George Sundberg, Cobb's meat market.

It is hoped that many will vote because of this reminder on November 6.

The Harrison P. T. A. troop of S. E. Brainerd will meet Wednesday, November 7, at 7:30 o'clock in the regular place in the S. E. fire house. A. H. Enemark, president of the P. T. A., called a meeting of the new troop committee which organized, electing him as chairman with H. E. Whitlock, Charles D. Sundberg and George B. Falconer members of the committee. They elected Axel Anderson, a five-year veteran scoutmaster, as the new leader of their troop. The entire committee was very happy indeed over the acceptance of Mr. Anderson to take this position. They have all pledged their wholehearted support which, with the continuance of the splendid assistance the P. T. A. has always given the troop, should do much to make troop four an outstanding scout organization of this council.

Mr. Anderson is well known in scout circles and having respected by the parents and boys of the entire community.

S. C. Bakken, assisting Mr. Newton in the local scout office, will attend the meeting.

The local scout office announces that on Sunday, November 25, at 2:30 o'clock there will be the first fall Court of Honor. This is a departure from the old time but it is thought that it will give many more an opportunity to attend the Court of Honor than is possible on Saturday night. The Court of Honor ceremony is of such a nature that it is very appropriate that it should be on Sunday. This will be the first opportunity for troops to compete for the Court of Awards Honor Troop pennant. Any troops interested in gaining the distinction of receiving a very good looking Boys' Life 100 percent banner should inquire for particulars from Mr. Newton. The troops which are re-registering at this time particularly should be interested in this as they have the opportunity then of getting Boys' Life for $1.00 a year when registering.

Good news is here. Because many of the public school teachers are to attend a state teachers' meeting November 8, 9, and 10, we are to have a three-day camp at Clearwater. Boy, doesn't that send a thrill clear through you? There's nothing like a camp in the crisp autumn air.

Here's the plan: S. C. Bakken, now assisting Mr. Newton in the Crow Wing Area Council, will personally supervise the camp from 10 A. M. Thursday, November 8, till 4 P. M. Saturday, November 12. Mr. Bakken is an experienced camp man and a brother of the man who assisted in the summer camp two years ago. Any registered scout may come out, bring his own food and blankets and cooking utensils and stay as long as he likes. Since most of the grade schools remain in session, the grade school boys should make arrangements to come Friday after school. Get your scoutmaster to come out. This is the second annual fall camp. Last year, 52 scouts attended.

JAIL LAKE

Clough Lake school gave a Halloween party Friday evening, the money was taken to buy books for the eighth grade. Many of the young folks and parents were present.

Miss Marmion Tollefsrud spent Friday evening with her little friend, Miss Blossom Johnson.

Raymond Seaburg worked on the phone line Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Glover moved over with Glenn's mother, Mrs. Martha Glover, while Leon, who has been staying with his mother, moved on his own respective farm a quarter of a mile east of her place.

Raymond Van Kempen visited Friday evening at the home of his friend Donald Glover.

Jack Nelson, who has been visiting two weeks with Mother Glover, departed for his home at Owatonna, Minn., last Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Glover visited Sunday at the home of his mother, Mrs. Martha Glover.

Those going to Brainerd this week were Mrs. Oscar Seaburg, Ed. Johnson and family and Henry Jokela and wife.

BIDS WANTED

Washington High School Brainerd, Minn.

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Education of the School District of Brainerd, Minn., will receive sealed proposals up to the hour of 8 o'clock P. M., Friday, November 30th, 1928, at the office of the undersigned, for the erection and completion of the proposed Washington High School Building to be erected by said School District in accordance with plans and specifications prepared therefor by Croft & Boerner, Architects and Engineers, 1004 Marquette Avenue, Minneapolis, Minn.

Separate bids will be received for the following:

1. General Construction.
2. Heating Work.
3. Ventilation Work.
4. Plumbing Work.
5. Electric Work.
6. Temperature Control System.

Bids will be received only on the proposal form as bound with each set of specifications.

Bids must be accompanied by a certified check for an amount equal to five percent (5%) of the total base bid, said check to be made payable to the Treasurer of the Board of Education, Brainerd School District.

The successful bidder for each part of the work will be required to furnish a contract surety bond for the full amount of the accepted proposal in the form prescribed in the specifications.

Copies of the approved plans and specifications may be seen at the offices of the Secretary of the Board of Education and the Architects and the Builders Exchanges of Minneapolis, St. Paul and Duluth.

Applicants requiring prints for their own use may obtain same from the Architects after November 7th.

A deposit of $50 will be required on all copies of said plans and specifications, which deposit will be refunded upon return of the plans and specifications in good condition and in case a bona fide bid is submitted. Blue print cost will be retained in case the plans are mutilated or a bona fide bid is not submitted.

The Board of Education reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

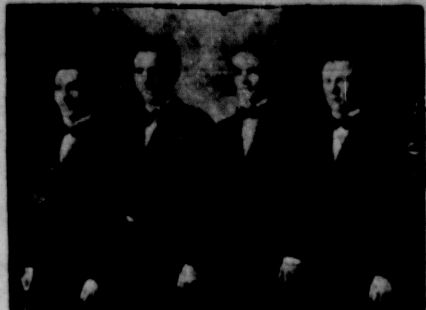

By order of the Board of Education.

L. F. HOHMAN, Secretary.

Brainerd, Minn. 130132ms

There Is No Reform

The trouble with reform is that every one insists upon it, and there is none. It is natural for us to muddle along as we have been muddling along for ages, and nature cannot be reformed at wholesale. An individual may accomplish a little reform for himself, but not for others.—E. W. Howe's Monthly.

The Harmony Four

Will appear at the Clara Lutheran church Friday, Nov. 9, with the Swedish American Bell Orchestra.

BRAINERD 25 YEARS AGO

From the Daily Dispatch

November 5, 1903

Mrs. J. G. Batcheller returned this afternoon from South Dakota, where she has been visiting with relatives. J. C. Small, who was taken sick recently while at work at the shops, is much improved today and it is expected that he will be able to be out again in a day or so.

Sam Parker and Joe Weitzel left for the north today where they will enjoy a two weeks hunting trip. They will be joined later by Drs. Batcheller and Mowers.

August Beck has opened a feed barn on Ninth street South.

William Armsdale was in the city yesterday afternoon with a wolf's hide and received $6.50 from the county as state bounty. This is the second one that Mr. Armsdale has brought in this fall. This is a case where, "keeping the wolf away from the door" is a paying proposition.

Miss Ruth Tyler, who has been in the hospital for some time where an operation was performed on her for appendicitis, was able to leave for her home today, fully recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swanson are in Minneapolis. It is understood that Mr. Swanson's health is not the best, and being examined by a specialist in Minneapolis, it was discovered that she is suffering with a tumor.

Mrs. William Donahue left this afternoon on belated No. 6 for Dassel, Minn.

Mrs. Charles Ekman left for Verdale this afternoon for a visit with friends and relatives.

ELECT HOOVER FOR PROSPERITY

Attorney Hilding Swanson Urges Young Voters to Vote Republican for Good Times

DANCE LARGELY ATTENDED

Walter F. Wieland Reviews Life of Hoover, Urging Support on His Platform

Prosperity under republican administrations was stressed by Attorney Hilding Swanson in a brief talk to young voters who filled the Finnish hall, Southeast Brainerd to capacity Saturday night as he urged all voters to continue such prosperity and vote a straight republican ticket.

Walter F. Wieland, assistant attorney general for the state of Minnesota gave a review of the life of Herbert Hoover, of his accomplishments and his stand on farm relief, immigration, and waterways that warranted his support at the polls Tuesday.

The dance closed a highly successful day for young voters, the noon luncheon and dance being sponsored by republican young voters.

The Northern Serenaders furnished peppy music for the dance.

Odd Precious Stone

H. W. B. Moreno, member of the legislative council of Bengal, possesses a ruby which contains in its center the image of a dark man dressed in white robes and turban. No one is able to explain how the image got within the ruby.

Same Price

for over

38 Years

25 ounces for 25¢

KC BAKING POWDER

Guaranteed Pure

use less than of high priced brands

MILLIONS of POUNDS USED BY THE GOVERNMENT

BUTLER BROTHERS SELL INTERESTS

Dispose of Ransford Hotel Furniture, Fixtures, Etc., to Hardy Hotel Operating Co.

PHILIP KNOLL NEW MANAGER

Hotel Building is Owned by J. Herchel Hardy, Chicago Real Estate Man

Butler Brothers of Brainerd have sold their Ransford hotel business including furniture, fixtures, lease and good will to the Hardy Hotel Operating Company of Chicago. The hotel building is owned by C. Herchel Hardy of Chicago.

Phillip Knoll of Bloomington, Ill., has been engaged as hotel manager by the new owner, and is expected to arrive tomorrow.

Butler Brothers firm is composed of Ernest and Harry Butler. They conducted the Ransford hotel the past ten years and wish to thank the public for the loyal and generous support accorded them in business, and also wish to thank the Rotary and Lions clubs and the commercial travelers.

Messrs. Butler are not leaving the city, but will remain at the hotel for some time.

The hotel is widely known. It has 83 rooms and was conducted on the European plan. Mr. Hardy was in town several days last week concluding the negotiations.

Lon Chaney's "While the City Sleeps" Last Word in Thrills and Romance at Lyceum

Tuesday
Lon Chaney has played many roles, sinister, mysterious and otherwise, but for the first time in his life he is now playing a policeman. The great character star is cast as a plainclothesman on the New York police force in his latest picture, "While the City Sleeps," which comes to the Lyceum theatre Tuesday.

Co-eds Like Film Work, So Portray Themselves

In her new starring picture, "The Cardboard Lover," now at the Lyceum theatre, Marion Davies plays the role of a young college girl touring Europe with a party of youthful friends.

When those pretty girls who worked with her in her picture, "The Fair Co-ed," heard about it, they asked permission to appear with her again and, at Miss Davies' request, their plea was granted.

Eagles Prey on Lambs

There is a high mortality among the young of the big horn or mountain sheep. This is due to the toll of young taken by eagles. The lambs fall easy victim to the big birds of prey.

Lyceum LAST TIME TONIGHT

Marion Davies in
The CARDBOARD LOVER

with JETTA GOUDAL
NILS ASTHER

How would you like to be hired to protect the man you love from the woman he has fallen for?

Sennett Comedy and News Reel

Tues.-Wed.—LON CHANEY in
"While the City Sleeps"

Election Returns

Clara Lutheran Choir
The choir of the Clara Lutheran church will practice this evening at 7:30 o'clock instead of Wednesday evening.

King's Heralds Meet

The King's Heralds of the M. E. church met at the home of Mrs. G. E. Lammon Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. After a business session an election of officers was held, and the following officers elected:

President—Catherine Fox.
Secretary—Treasurer—Gladys Sander.
Reporter—Beverly Britton.
A luncheon was served.

No General Law

There is no federal law on the subject of vaccination. Congress in legislating for the District of Columbia has enacted laws relating to vaccination, but these are applicable only to the District.

Oysters Make Mischief

Wireless under-water experiments off Hatteras, North Carolina, had to be abandoned because the oysters "hummed." The delicate mechanism was put out of gear by the oysters' noise, which resembles a person humming a tune.

FAIR WEATHER

GENERALLY IN U. S.

ON ELECTION DAY

Washington, Nov. 5.—(UP)—Fair weather generally throughout the United States was predicted for election today by the United States weather bureau today.

"Mild temperatures will prevail quite generally throughout the country," the bureau announced.

A disturbance now centered over Manitoba will move eastward rapidly and likely will cause light showers near the northern border from Michigan eastward, according to the announcement.

Slight precipitation was indicated along the north Pacific coast, the bureau said.

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT — Inserted by and for John Holvick, for which regular rates are paid.

Storage

Live or Dead

Courteous Service at All Times

Reasonable Rates by Day, Week or Month

Wels Motor Co.

Phone 124
Opposite Court House
Corner 4th and Laurel Sts.

JOHN HOLVICK
for County Commissioner
Third District

"I stand for decreasing, instead of increasing taxes. Economy will do it."

General Election Tuesday, Nov. 6th

PAY CASH
PAY LESS
NO BILLS
TO DISTRESS

A NATION-WIDE INSTITUTION
J.C. PENNEY Co.
"quality—always at a saving"

A HELPFUL
STORE,
PAY LESS,
GET MORE!

Corner 7th and Laurel

Brainerd, Minnesota

Smart Apparel

Authentic... Varied... Valueful!

A J. C. Penney Company Specialization

Sunburst Skirts

Youthful Smart!
New Values!

$4.98

For school and sportswear—with blouse or sweater.
Novelty checks, stripes, and plaids...pleated in an animated way.

Wool Frocks

For Important Miss 7 to 14

$4.98

It is offerings such as this one that have established J. C. Penney Company as an authority on children's clothes...as well as on values! Chic little dresses—in jerseys and novelty woollens—with pleats, belts, pert bows, and other youthful touches.

Sheepskin Leather Helmet

Full light tan, shearling knit lined, three side earholes, chin snap fastener.

$1.69

4-Piece Suits for Boys

Every Suit has Coat and Vest, with 2 Longies or 2 Knickers or 1 Longie and 1 Knicker.

Of Cashmere in novelty weaves, shadow and fancy stripes and over-plaids.

9.90

"Ma-Ma" Doll In Dainty Dress and Bonnet

Few little girls can resist this doll's "ma-ma" cry.

$1.98

The pleasure such a doll brings is worth several times our low price.

GIRL KILLED ON THIRD AVENUE

Aileen Nelson, age 7, was instantly killed this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock when she was accidentally struck by an automobile driven by Mrs. John Elkins.

According to reports received the little girl was crossing on Third avenue from the Lowell school which she attends. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anton G. Nelson, 503 Second Avenue Northeast, and leaves five sisters and a brother.

The car driven by Mrs. Elkins is said to have run over the curb and onto an adjacent lawn after the accident.

The body of the little girl was picked up by Earl Koop and Joseph Gustafson and was taken to the hospital.

The Boy Scouts of America are again this year assisting in the national campaign to "get out the vote." In line with this effort Tuesday morning, November 6, there will be a Scout at each polling place in the city who will blow assembly simultaneous with brother scouts all over the United States to remind people that the poll is open and to assemble there to vote. This will be repeated again at noon, at 5 o'clock and again just before the polls close.

The scouts will be located at the following places:

Lee Clarkson, old city lock-up.
Robert Wilson, library.
Robert Jackson, N. E. fire house.
Toisto Pohjola, S. E. fire house.
Robert Jackson, Lowell school.
Ross Olmsted, city hall.
George Sundberg, Cobb's meat market.

It is hoped that many will vote because of this reminder on November 6.

The Harrison P. T. A. troop of S. E. Brainerd will meet Wednesday, November 7, at 7:30 o'clock in the regular place in the S. E. fire house. A. H. Enemark, president of the P. T. A., called a meeting of the new troop committee which organized, electing him as chairman with H. E. Whitlock, Charles D. Sundberg and George B. Falconer members of the committee. They elected Axel Anderson, a five-year veteran scoutmaster, as the new elader of their troop. The entire committee was very happy indeed over the acceptance of Mr. Anderson to take this position. They have all pledged their wholehearted support which, with the continuance of the splendid assistance the P. T. A. has always given the troop, should do much to make troop four an outstanding scout organization of this council.

Mr. Anderson is well known in scout circles and having respected by the parents and boys of the entire community.

S. C. Bakken, assisting Mr. Newton in the local scout office, will attend the meeting.

The local scout office announces that on Sunday, November 25, at 2:30 o'clock there will be the first fall Court of Honor. This is a departure from the old time but it is thought that it will give many more an opportunity to attend the Court of Honor than is possible on Saturday night. The Court of Honor ceremony is of such a nature that it is very appropriate that it should be on Sunday. This will be the first opportunity for troops to compete for the Court of Awards Honor Troop pennant. Any troops interested in gaining the distinction of receiving a very good looking Boys' Life 100 percent banner should inquire for particulars from Mr. Newton. The troops which are re-registering at this time particularly should be interested in this as they have the opportunity then of getting Boys' Life for $1.00 a year when registering.

Good news is here. Because many of the public school teachers are to attend a state teachers' meeting November 8, 9, and 10, we are to have a three-day camp at Clearwater. Boy, doesn't that send a thrill clear through you? There's nothing like a camp in the crisp autumn air.

Here's the plan: S. C. Bakken, now assisting Mr. Newton in the Crow Wing Area Council, will personally supervise the camp from 10 A. M. Thursday, November 8, till 4 P. M. Saturday, November 12. Mr. Bakken is an experienced camp man and a brother of the man who assisted in the summer camp two years ago. Any registered scout may come out, bring his own food and blankets and cooking utensils and stay as long as he likes. Since most of the grade schools remain in session, the grade school boys should make arrangements to come Friday after school. Get your scoutmaster to come out. This is the second annual fall camp. Last year, 52 scouts attended.

JAIL LAKE

Clough Lake school gave a Halloween party Friday evening, the money was taken to buy books for the eighth grade. Many of the young folks and parents were present.

Miss Marmion Tollefsrud spent Friday evening with her little friend, Miss Blossom Johnson.

Raymond Seaburg worked on the phone line Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Glover moved over with Glenn's mother, Mrs. Martha Glover, while Leon, who has been staying with his mother, moved on his own respective farm a quarter of a mile east of her place.

Raymond Van Kempen visited Friday evening at the home of his friend Donald Glover.

Jack Nelson, who has been visiting two weeks with Mother Glover, departed for his home at Owatonna, Minn., last Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Glover visited Sunday at the home of his mother, Mrs. Martha Glover.

Those going to Brainerd this week were Mrs. Oscar Seaburg, Ed Johnson and family and Henry Jokela and wife.

BIDS WANTED

Washington High School Brainerd, Minn.

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Education of the School District of Brainerd, Minn., will receive sealed proposals up to the hour of 8 o'clock P. M., Friday, November 30th, 1928, at the office of the undersigned, for the erection and completion of the proposed Washington High School Building to be erected with plans and specifications prepared therefor by Croft & Boerner, Architects and Engineers, 1004 Marquette Avenue, Minneapolis, Minn.

Separate bids will be received for the following:

1. General Construction.
2. Heating Work.
3. Ventilation Work.
4. Plumbing Work.
5. Electric Work.
6. Temperature Control System.

Bids will be received only on the proposal form as bound with each set of specifications.

Bids must be accompanied by a certified check for an amount equal to five percent (5%) of the total base bid, said check to be made payable to the Treasurer of the Board of Education, Brainerd School District.

The successful bidder for each part of the work will be required to furnish a contract surety bond for the full amount of the accepted proposal in the form prescribed in the specifications.

Copies of the approved plans and specifications may be seen at the offices of the Secretary of the Board of Education and the Architects and the Builders Exchanges of Minneapolis, St. Paul and Duluth.

Applicants requiring prints for their own use may obtain same from the Architects after November 7th.

A deposit of $50 will be required on all copies of said plans and specifications, which deposit will be refunded upon return of the plans and specifications in good condition and in case a bona fide bid is submitted.

Blue print cost will be retained in case the plans are mutilated or a bona fide bid is not submitted.

The Board of Education reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

By order of the Board of Education.

L. F. HOHMAN, Secretary.

Brainerd, Minn. 13013ams

There Is No Reform

The trouble with reform is that every one insists upon it, and there is none. It is natural for us to muddle along as we have been muddling along for ages, and nature cannot be reformed at wholesale. An individual may accomplish a little reform for himself, but not for others.—E. W. Howe's Monthly.

The Harmony Four

Will appear at the Clara Lutheran church Friday, Nov. 9, with the Swedish American Bell Orchestra.

BRAINERD 25 YEARS AGO

From the Daily Dispatch

November 5, 1903

Mrs. J. G. Batcheller returned this afternoon from South Dakota, where she has been visiting with relatives.

J. C. Small, who was taken sick recently while at work at the shops, is much improved today and it is expected that he will be able to be out again in a day or so.

Sam Parker and Joe Weitzel left for the north today where they will enjoy a two weeks hunting trip. They will be joined later by Drs. Batcheller and Mowers.

August Beck has opened a feed barn on Ninth street South.

William Armsdale was in the city yesterday afternoon with a wolf's hide and received $6.50 from the county as state bounty. This is the second one that Mr. Armsdale has brought in this fall. This is a case where "keeping the wolf away from the door" is a paying proposition.

Miss Ruth Tyler, who has been in the hospital for some time where an operation was performed on her for appendicitis, was able to leave for her home today, fully recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swanson are in Minneapolis. It is understood that Mr. Swanson's health is not the best, and being examined by a specialist in Minneapolis. It was discovered that she is suffering with a tumor.

Mrs. William Donahue left this afternoon on belated No. 6 for Dassel, Minn.

Mrs. Charles Ekman left for Verndale this afternoon for a visit with friends and relatives.

ELECT HOOVER FOR PROSPERITY

Attorney Hilding Swanson Urges Young Voters to Vote Republican for Good Times

DANCE LARGELY ATTENDED

Walter F. Wieland Reviews Life of Hoover, Urging Support on His Platform

Prosperity under republican administrations was stressed by Attorney Hilding Swanson in a brief talk to young voters who filled the Finnish hall, Southeast Brainerd to capacity Saturday night as he urged all voters to continue such prosperity and vote a straight republican ticket.

Walter F. Wieland, assistant attorney general for the state of Minnesota gave a review of the life of Herbert Hoover, of his accomplishments and his stand on farm relief, immigration, and waterways that warranted his support at the polls Tuesday.

The dance closed a highly successful day for young voters, the noon luncheon and dance being sponsored by republican young voters.

The Northern Serenaders furnished peppy music for the dance.

Odd Precious Stone

H. W. B. Moreno, member of the legislative council of Bengal, possesses a ruby which contains in its center the image of a dark man dressed in white robes and turban. No one is able to explain how the image got within the ruby.

Same Price
for over
38 Years

25 ounces for 25¢

KC BAKING POWDER

Guaranteed
Pure

use less than of high priced brands

MILLIONS of POUNDS USED
BY THE GOVERNMENT

BUTLER BROTHERS SELL INTERESTS

Dispose of Ransford Hotel Furniture, Fixtures, Etc., to Hardy Hotel Operating Co.

PHILIP KNOLL NEW MANAGER

Hotel Building is Owned by J. Herchel Hardy, Chicago Real Estate Man

Butler Brothers of Brainerd have sold their Ransford hotel business including furniture, fixtures, lease and good will to the Hardy Hotel Operating Company of Chicago. The hotel building is owned by C. Herchel Hardy of Chicago.

Phillip Knoll of Bloomington, Ill., has been engaged as hotel manager by the new owner, and is expected to arrive tomorrow.

Butler Brothers firm is composed of Ernest and Harry Butler. They conducted the Ransford hotel the past ten years and wish to thank the public for the loyal and generous support accorded them in business, and also wish to thank the Rotary and Lions clubs and the commercial travelers.

Messrs. Butler are not leaving the city, but will remain at the hotel for some time.

The hotel is widely known. It has 83 rooms and was conducted on the European plan. Mr. Hardy was in town several days last week concluding the negotiations.

Lon Chaney's "While the City Sleeps" Last Word in Thrills and Romance at Lyceum Tuesday

Lon Chaney has played many roles, sinister, mysterious and otherwise, but for the first time in his life he is now playing a policeman. The great character star is cast as a plainclothesman on the New York police force in his latest picture, "While the City Sleeps," which comes to the Lyceum theatre Tuesday.

Co-eds Like Film Work, So Portray Themselves

In her new starring picture, "The Cardboard Lover," now at the Lyceum theatre, Marion Davies plays the role of a young college girl touring Europe with a party of youthful friends.

When those pretty girls who worked with her in her picture, "The Fair Co-ed," heard about it, they asked permission to appear with her again and, at Miss Davies' request, their plea was granted.

Eagles Prey on Lambs

There is a high mortality among the young of the big game or mountain sheep. This is due to the toll of young taken by eagles. The lambs fall easy victim to the big birds of prey.

Lyceum LAST TIME TONIGHT

Marion Davies in
The CARDBOARD LOVER

with JETTA GOUDAL
NILS ASTHER

How would you like to be hired to protect the man you love from the woman he has fallen for?

Sennett Comedy and News Reel

Tues.-Wed.—LON CHANEY in
"While the City Sleeps"

Election Returns

Clara Lutheran Choir

The choir of the Clara Lutheran church will practice this evening at 7:30 o'clock instead of Wednesday evening.

King's Heralds Meet

The King's Heralds of the M. E. church met at the home of Mrs. G. E. Lammon Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. After a business session an election of officers was held, and the following officers elected:

President—Catherine Fox.

Secretary—Treasurer—Gladys Sanderson.

Reporter—Beverly Britton.

A luncheon was served.

No General Law

There is no federal law on the subject of vaccination. Congress in legislating for the District of Columbia has enacted laws relating to vaccination, but these are applicable only to the District.

Oysters Make Mischief

Wireless under-water experiments off Hatteras, North Carolina, had to be abandoned because the oysters "hummed." The delicate mechanism was put out of gear by the oysters' noise, which resembles a person humming a tune.

FAIR WEATHER

GENERALLY IN U. S.

ON ELECTION DAY

Washington, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Fair weather generally throughout the United States was predicted for election today by the United States weather bureau today.

"Mild temperatures will prevail quite generally throughout the country," the bureau announced.

A disturbance now centered over Manitoba will move eastward rapidly and likely will cause light showers near the northern border from Michigan eastward, according to the announcement.

Slight precipitation was indicated along the north Pacific coast, the bureau said.

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT—Inserted by and for John Holvick, for which regular rates are paid.

Storage

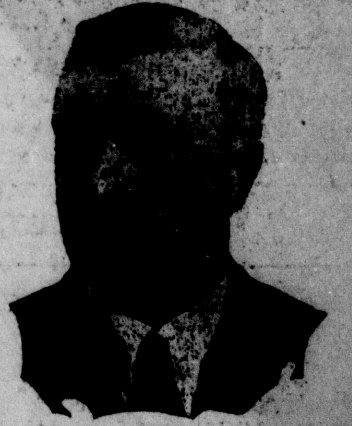

Live or Dead

Courteous Service at All Times

Reasonable Rates by Day, Week or Month

Wels Motor Co.

Phone 124
Opposite Court House
Corner 4th and Laurel Sts.

JOHN HOLVICK

for

County Commissioner
Third District

"I stand for decreasing, instead of increasing taxes. Economy will do it."

General Election Tuesday,
Nov. 6th

PAY CASH
PAY LESS
NO BILLS
TO DISTRESS

A NATION-WIDE INSTITUTION
J.C. PENNEY Co.
"quality—always at a saving."

A HELPFUL
STORE,
PAY LESS,
GET MORE

Corner 7th and Laurel

Brainerd, Minnesota

Smart Apparel

Authentic... Varied... Valueful!

A J. C. Penney Company Specialization

Sunburst
Skirts

Youthful Smart!
New Values!

$4.98

For school and sportswear—with blouse or sweater.
Novelty checks, stripes, and plaids...pleated in an animated way.

Sheepskin
Leather Helmet

Full light tan, shearting knit lined, three side carholes, chin snap fastener.

$1.69

Wool Frocks

For Important Miss 7 to 14

$4.98

It is offerings such as this one that have established J. C. Penney Company as an authority on children's clothes...as well as on values! Chic little dresses—in jerseys and novelty woollens—with pleats, belts, pert bows, and other youthful touches.

4-Piece
Suits for Boys

Every Suit has Coat and Vest, with 2 Longies or 3 Knickers or 1 Longie and 1 Knicker.

Of Cassmere in novelty weaves, shadow and fancy stripes and over-plaids.

9.90

"Ma-Ma" Doll
In Dainty Dress and Bonnet

Few little girls can resist this doll's "ma-ma" cry.

$1.98

The pleasure such a doll brings is worth several times our low price.

THE BRAINERD DAILY DISPATCH

THE BRAINERD DISPATCH CO.
Office in Dispatch Building, Sixth St. So.

Entered at the post office at Brainerd, Minn., as second class matter.

Advertising Rates Made Known on Application

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

Daily Dispatch by Carrier—One month, 50c; three months $1.25; 1 year, $5.00
Daily Dispatch by Mail, Outside of City—Three months $1.00; one year, $4.00
Weekly Dispatch—One year, $1.50.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1928

RE-ELECT AN EXPERIENCED PUBLIC SERVANT

In the heat of the presidential and senatorial campaign comparatively little interest has been taken in the campaign for the office which is of immediate concern to Brainerd and Crow Wing county. We refer to the office of representative at large, since the return of the incumbent, Edward P. Scallion, presages a continuance of the appropriation to the Brainerd school district and others in Crow Wing county, which have been secured through the supplemental aid bill of which Mr. Scallion has always been a successful champion. The city of Brainerd too has received a special appropriation of $10,000 per year through another bill passed in Mr. Scallion's first term in 1923. His vote on every measure we know of pertaining to both local and state-wide measures represents a sound progressive attitude.

Few people perhaps have stopped to consider that Mr. Scallion's election presents the only possibility of Crow Wing county having an experienced representative in the next session, as both candidates for the office of representative from Crow Wing county alone are new candidates, and the winner should be given the benefit of the association during his first term with a man like Mr. Scallion who now is a member of the most important committees, enjoys a wide acquaintance with the members and is thoroughly familiar with all problems of legislation. He has been a consistent friend of all humanitarian legislation such as the mothers' pension law and laws for the bettering of the conditions of labor.

It should also be borne in mind that the appropriations for the schools and the city must be secured at each session of the legislature, and in view of the heavy financial program now being assumed by the school district, the voters of Brainerd as a matter of self interest alone should return Edward P. Scallion to the legislature and inform friends and neighbors of the importance of so doing.

CANDIDATES FOR LOCAL OFFICES

THERE are very few local offices being contested for at this election and owing to the major presidential contest little interest is being shown in local offices. However, they are by no means unimportant and should be seriously considered.

For congressman Harold Knutson is being opposed by John Knutson, of St. Cloud, who opposed him two years ago, and received so few votes that Congressman Knutson can be said to have no opposition.

For judge there is only one candidate, Judge Torrance for re-election.

For representative at large there are two candidates, the present incumbent, Edward P. Scallion, of Crosby, and A. C. Bosel, also of Crosby.

For representative from Crow Wing county there are two candidates, A. M. Opsahl, of this city, and Wm. Syreen, of Crosby. Both are fine, capable men, and either one if elected would ably represent the county. Mr. Opsahl being a resident of Brainerd, the majority of the people here naturally wish him to succeed.

For judge of probate there is only one candidate, the present incumbent, Judge Kinder, to succeed himself. Judge Kinder has filled the office for four years successfully.

Other contests are for county commissioners in the 1st, 3rd and 5th districts. A. G. Anderson is a candidate to succeed himself. He has for an opponent John Holvick, a fine citizen and good business man. Mr. Anderson, however, has been a most capable and progressive official and should be elected to succeed himself.

In the first district John Dewing is opposed by Albert G. Nelson. Mr. Dewing has served in this position so long and so faithfully that he should be and undoubtedly will be re-elected.

In the 5th or Crosby-Ironton district, Ed. R. Burns and Archie B. Johnstone are opposing candidates. Mr. Burns served on the board a short period by appointment.

MAJOR ISSUE IN PRESENT CAMPAIGN

THE major issue in the present campaign is the agricultural question. Minnesota, long-known as the bread and butter state, now produces more butter than it does bread. The size of the cream check is of vital interest, not only to every farmer who milks a cow, but to the country merchant and the country banker as well.

The protective tariff has been a Republican policy for over fifty years; the Democratic policy was first free trade, and recently has been "tariff for revenue only."

The Democrat Underwood tariff law, which Governor Alfred E. Smith in his acceptance speech, speaks of with approval, provided for a two and one-half cents tariff on butter. The Fordney-McCumber Republican tariff, provided for eight cents which has been raised by a Republican President by executive order under the provisions of that bill, to twelve cents. The butter production of Crow Wing county in 1926, the last year for which figures are available, was 1,175,964 pounds and the farmers of this county received $111,716.58 more because of the Republican protective tariff than they would have received had the Underwood law been in effect. The Farmers Co-operative Creamery in Brainerd last year produced 392,802 pounds of butter.

Can we afford to take any chances with a Democratic administration and its tariff policy, when the protective tariff means so much to our producers of milk, cream and butter?

The attitude of Tammany on the protective tariff is well illustrated by the fact that Congressman Royal H. Weller, Tammany Democrat of New York City, and friend of Governor Smith, introduced a bill in the Sixty-ninth Congress, H. R. 7621, for the purpose of placing milk and cream on the free list.

If there were no other reason, the vital necessity of keeping in force tariff protection for butter, milk and cream is sufficient to merit the votes of Minnesota farmers and business men for the Republican ticket, and remember that Republican party policies cannot be enacted into law unless we have a Republican Senate and House.

THE CONTRAST

MINNESOTA's paramount political needs are economic, says the St. Paul Pioneer Press.

The type of man to represent it best in the United States Senate is one capable of direct action, possessed of definite opinions, trained in constructive administration, understanding business problems and the practical affairs of trade, commerce and transportation. Such a man is Arthur E. Nelson, Republican candidate for the Senate.

Minnesota's least political requirement is a program of obstruction, opposition, denunciation; indecision, impracticability, indefinite aims, bartering, trading and shifting for position, power and votes. These policies are exemplified in Henrik Shipstead, Farmer-Labor-Independent candidate for the Senate. In his record, to which he points with pride, all of them may be found.

It is more spectacular to criticize than to help; easier to condemn and tear down than to build and support. It requires ability, courage and decision to be a forward force in politics as well as in business. Minnesota will be best represented by men who can contribute affirmative action toward solving her material problems and advancing her important interests.

The criterion of representation in the future will be a stand for something definite, something constructive—to be a "pro" and not an "anti." This standard marks the difference between Nelson and Shipstead. In the records of the two men is a concrete example of their contrasting character and methods.

LUTEFISK, A DELICACY

LUTEFISK, as served by the Men's club of the Norwegian-Danish Lutheran church Friday night at their supper, is a real delicacy. That is the consensus of opinion of 650 people who attended.

Every one had a healthy appetite and after it was all over, the committee figured out that the toothsome menu included 600 pounds of fish, 75 pounds of butter, five bushels of potatoes, 50 gallons of coffee, streams of milk and cream, acres of lefsa and flatbrot, jars and jars of pickles, preserves, etc.

So great was the crush at all times from 4:30 p. m. to the finish, that the one entrance was crowded and ingress and egress was slow. It has been proposed to build another entrance into the basement, thus permitting those who have had their supper to walk out without inconveniencing those desiring to enter.

Mrs. Henry Ford Calls Hoover Choice of the Nation's Women

Wife of Automobile Manufacturer Says Issues of Campaign Are the Most Important Since Universal Suffrage.

Mrs. Henry Ford believes that most American women who love their homes and families will vote for Herbert Hoover in November.

So firmly convinced is Mrs. Ford that the issue of this year's presidential election is "of exceptional importance to women" that she decided to express her views in the first interview on politics she has ever granted.

"The issue is beyond politics," she declared in her home in Dearborn, Michigan, to a representative of the Women's National Committee for Hoover of which Mrs. F. Louis Slade is chairman.

"I shall vote for Mr. Hoover and I believe most home-loving women will achieve and by his life of fulfilling the ideals which women cherish."

It was not a desire to enter the arena of politics which prompted her to declare her support for Hoover.

do likewise because he more than any other candidate seems interested in the problems of women and of the home."

So far as women, generally, are concerned, she explained, the basic issue of the election this year is closely connected with Mr. Hoover's unusual interest in their special concerns. In this sense, home-loving women throughout the land and particularly on the farms have a personal stake in November's battle of the ballot boxes.

"Mr. Hoover," Mrs. Ford continued, "seems to me to be the type of man who would do more than talk about helping in such important matters as social legislation."

"Never since women have had the vote has any presidential candidate given such convincing promise not by his words alone but by his record of achievement and by his life of fulfilling the ideals which women cherish."

Not Politician
"I am not a politician," she remarked, "I helped to the best of my ability in the fight to get the vote. Since we have had the vote, I have always been interested in politics but I have never participated in any direct personal activities in that direction."

"We are for Hoover because we like the kind of work he has already done. His achievement in helping the Mississippi flood sufferers was remarkable, considering the shortness of time. He has done lots of other admirable things."

"We women are tremendously interested in legislation which relates to children or anything to do with the home. We are interested in proper legislation and getting the proper man to put it through. Mr. Hoover seems to be the right sort of man."

"Mrs. Hoover's early life and Mr. Hoover's in the old farm state of Iowa and on their present fine practical farm in California has helped them both to maintain a deep insight into farm conditions. Mr. Hoover realizes that it is of primary importance that life on the farms should be on the highest possible plane."

"Mr. Hoover will be doing a great thing if he succeeds in making the farm a better place to live on. He will earn the gratitude of thousands of women if he gives families on the farms the same sort of chance to lead a true good American life as most city families already have."

"This, you see, is outside of politics. Politics is too big a subject to discuss in a few minutes. This is true Americanism."

BRAVEST BOYS IN MIDDLE WEST

Edward Otway, 14, of Detroit, Mich. (left), and Eugene Duesberry, 12, of Flint, Mich. Life Saving Scouts, who have received the bronze Hero Award Medal through action of Salvation Army board, headed by Lieut. Commissioner John McMillan, after being adjudged the "bravest boys in Middle West." Both boys risked their lives to save drowning persons.

RADIO PROGRAMS

Today
WCCO (405)
5:30 p. m.—Children's safety campaign.
5:45 p. m.—Livestock market summary.
5:55 p. m.—Summary market report and road conditions bulletin.
6:00 p. m.—Frank Mayer—"Highlights of the Sports World."
6:30 p. m.—Dinner concert—Dick Long's orchestra; Meta Ashwin Birnbach, soprano; Paul Oberberg, accompanist.
7:30 p. m.—Republican state central committee—Arthur E. Nelson.
8:00 p. m.—Republican national committee.
8:30 p. m.—General Motors family party.
9:30 p. m.—Hamline university hour.
10:00 p. m.—Weather report.
10:05 p. m.—Walter Mallory, tenor; Paul Oberberg, accompanist.
10:35 p. m.—Musical program.
11:00 p. m.—Republican last minute appeals—Wally Erickson's orchestra.

KSTP Features
6:00 p. m.—The Percolators.
6:33 p. m.—Studio trio.
7:01 p. m.—Address—Democratic national committee.
8:01 p. m.—Seeger Melody Musketters.
9:00 p. m.—Address—Republican national committee.
9:15 p. m.—Address—Republican state central committee.
10:15 p. m.—Address—Senator Henrik Shipstead.
10:45 p. m.—Address—Republican state central committee.
11:15 p. m.—Dance program.

Five Best Features
Copyright 1928 by United Press
WJZ Network, 7:30 p. m.—Final campaign address, Norman Thomas.
WJZ Network, 8 p. m.—"America's Men of Destiny," with final campaign address by Herbert Hoover.
WJZ Network, 9 p. m.—Final campaign talk, Alfred E. Smith.
WEAF Network, 8:30 p. m.—General Motors hour.
WEAF Network, 9:30 p. m.—Herbert's opera, "Natoma."

Tuesday
WCCO (405)
7:00 a. m.—Time signal program.
9:00 a. m.—Hamline radio university.
9:15 a. m.—Program for the day and news bulletin.
9:50 a. m.—New York stock exchange; weather and market reports.
11:30 a. m.—Market reports and New York stock exchange.
12:00 p. m.—Dinner Bell hour.
12:45 p. m.—Lowry trio.
1:00 p. m.—Livestock market summary.
1:30 p. m.—Weather and market reports.
3:00 p. m.—New York stock exchange.
3:30 p. m.—Auction bridge game.
5:45 p. m.—Livestock market summary.
5:55 p. m.—Summary market report and road conditions bulletin.
6:00 p. m.—National League of Women Voters.
6:30 p. m.—The world book man.
6:35 p. m.—Music Box trio.
7:00 p. m.—Southern Sunshine.
8:00 p. m.—Eveready hour.
9:00 p. m.—Chiquet Club Eskimos.
9:30 p. m.—Election program.
10:00 p. m.—Weather report.
KSTP Features
6:00 p. m.—Dinner concert.
7:01 p. m.—KSTP world cruise.
8:01 p. m.—St. Paul association program—Orchestra and William O'Grady, tenor.

Those Who Catch Cold Easily

will find their powers of resistance much increased if they use

Father John's Medicine

This old fashioned family medicine has vitalizing and warmth giving qualities. It maintains strength because of its nourishing body building elements.

It has had over 73 years of success and is recommended for every member of the family because it does not contain alcohol or dangerous drugs

BEST BUILDING TONIC

9:00 p. m.—Phantom of the opera—Orchestra and Arthur Mannel, baritone.
9:30 p. m.—Musical Gems—Orchestra and Art White.
10:10 p. m.—Walter Anderson's orchestra.
10:30 p. m.—KSTP Limited—Dance feature.
11:30 p. m.—Capitol theatre organ—Walter F. Klingman.
Election Night Broadcast Schedule
Copyright 1928 by United Press
WEAF-WJZ combined networks (coast-to-coast, 100 stations), 6 p. m. central time to early morning—National Broadcasting company election program, including United Press national and state election return and musical program; Eveready hour, Socony-land sketches, Parnassus trio, Three-in-One theatre, Dutch Masters minstrels, Chiquet Eskimos and others.
Columbia network (24 stations), 7 p. m. central time to early morning—Election night program, including national and state returns and program by stars of stage and concert.

POLITICS ON THE AIR

New York, Nov. 5.—(UP)—Last minute appeals to the electorate of the nation will be made by the three leading presidential candidates tonight via the radio. In the order of their appearance on the network of the National Broadcasting company, they are Norman Thomas, socialist; Herbert Hoover, republican; and Alfred E. Smith, democrat.

A network of seven stations, including WEVD, the Debs memorial station in New York, will broadcast Thomas' election eve address from 8:30 to 9 p. m. eastern time. They are WJZ, WEAL, WREN, WHAM, WBZ, WBZA and WEVD.

The Hoover program from 9 to 10 p. m. eastern time, will go on the air over a nation-wide network. More than 200 members of the Hoover-Curtis theatrical league will participate in the pageant which is entitled "America's Men of Destiny."

The republican candidate will go on the network, speaking over a microphone installed in his Palo Alto home, at 9:45 p. m.

Smith will wind up his campaign from 10 to 11 p. m. eastern time, with his second speech of the day. He is scheduled for a special talk for farmers over an N. B. C. network headed by WEAF from 12:30 to 1 p. m. eastern time, in addition to his evening address.

The democratic national committee has engaged two networks, the coast-to-coast N. B. C. chain and the Columbia system of eastern and mid-western stations, for Smith.

General Election Facts

By United Press
Who—From 40,000,000 to 45,000,000 persons have registered in the United States, and from 35,000,000 are expected to vote.

When—Tomorrow, in most instances from 6 a. m. to 6 p. m.

For what—A president, a vice president, 31 U. S. senators, 435 U. S. representatives, 34 governors and innumerable state officers.

Where—In the 48 states of the union and its territories.

No More Piles

Pile sufferers can only get quick, safe and lasting relief by removing the cause—bad blood circulation in the lower bowel. Cutting and salves can't do this—an internal remedy must be used. Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid, a harmless tablet, succeeds because it relieves this blood congestion and strengthens the affected parts. Hem-Roid has a wonderful record for quick, safe and lasting relief to Pile sufferers. It will do the same for you or money back. H. P. Dunn, Johnson's Pharmacy and druggists anywhere sell Hem-Roid with this guarantee. —Advt.

HEAD COLDS

Melt in spoon; inhale vapors; apply freely up nostrils.

VICKS VAPORUB
Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

Cold Weather

Will soon be here. Better let me make those necessary repairs now.

Phone 462

Vernon E. White
Contractor and Builder

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth. Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

CREOMULSION
FOR THE COUGH FROM COLDS THAT HANG ON

Those Who Catch Cold Easily

Y Your Parlor Furnace works better with STOTT BRIQUETS

"It's the Blend" that Does It!

So clean to handle... so clean to burn... you're sure to like STOTT BRIQUETS. It's the blend of "quick-pick-up" Pocahontas Smokeless and "long-burning" Pennsylvania hard coal that makes your fire easy to start and easy to control for steady heat. And so convenient! No clinkers... very little ashes... and shaped like little pillows, 2 inches square, for easy handling! Order by this name... STOTT BRIQUETS... from your dealer... Today.

STOTT BRIQUETS
THE PERFECT FUEL
Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

THE BRAINERD DAILY DISPATCH

THE BRAINERD DISPATCH CO.
Office in Dispatch Building, Sixth St. So.

Entered at the post office at Brainerd, Minn., as second class matter.

Advertising Rates Made Known on Application

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

Daily Dispatch by Carrier—One month, 50c; three months $1.25; 1 year, $5.00
Daily Dispatch by Mail, Outside of City—Three months $1.00; one year, $4.00
Weekly Dispatch—One year, $1.50.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1928

RE-ELECT AN EXPERIENCED PUBLIC SERVANT

IN the heat of the presidential and senatorial campaign comparatively little interest has been taken in the campaign for the office which is of immediate concern to Brainerd and Crow Wing county. We refer to the office of representative at large, since the return of the incumbent, Edward P. Scallon, presages a continuance of the appropriation to the Brainerd school district and others in Crow Wing county, which have been secured through the supplemental aid bill of which Mr. Scallon has always been a successful champion. The city of Brainerd too has received a special appropriation of $10,000 per year through another bill passed in Mr. Scallon's first term in 1923. His vote on every measure we know of pertaining to both local and state-wide measures represents a sound progressive attitude.

Few people perhaps have stopped to consider that Mr. Scallon's election presents the only possibility of Crow Wing county having an experienced representative in the next session, as both candidates for the office of representative from Crow Wing county alone are new candidates, and the winner should be given the benefit of the association during his first term with a man like Mr. Scallon who now is a member of the most important committees, enjoys a wide acquaintance with the members and is thoroughly familiar with all problems of legislation. He has been a consistent friend of all humanitarian legislation such as the mothers' pension law and laws for the bettering of the conditions of labor.

It should also be borne in mind that the appropriations for the schools and the city must be secured at each session of the legislature, and in view of the heavy financial program now being assumed by the school district, the voters of Brainerd as a matter of self interest alone should return Edward P. Scallon to the legislature and inform friends and neighbors of the importance of so doing.

CANDIDATES FOR LOCAL OFFICES

THERE are very few local offices being contested for at this election and owing to the major presidential contest little interest is being shown in local offices. However, they are by no means unimportant and should be seriously considered.

For congressman Harold Knutson is being opposed by John Knutsen, of St. Cloud, who opposed him two years ago, and received so few votes that Congressman Knutson can be said to have no opposition.

For judge there is only one candidate, Judge Torrance for re-election.

For representative at large there are two candidates, the present incumbent, Edward P. Scallon, of Crosby, and A. C. Bosel, also of Crosby.

For representative from Crow Wing county there are two candidates, A. M. Opsahl, of this city, and Wm. Syreen, of Crosby. Both are fine, capable men, and either one if elected would ably represent the county. Mr. Opsahl being a resident of Brainerd, the majority of the people here naturally wish him to succeed.

For judge of probate there is only one candidate, the present incumbent, Judge Kinder, to succeed himself. Judge Kinder has filled the office for four years successfully.

Other contests are for county commissioners in the 1st, 3rd and 5th districts. A. G. Anderson is a candidate to succeed himself. He has for an opponent John Holvick, a fine citizen and good business man. Mr. Anderson, however, has been a most capable and progressive official and should be elected to succeed himself.

In the first district John Dewing is opposed by Albert G. Nelson. Mr. Dewing has served in this position so long and so faithfully that he should be and undoubtedly will be re-elected.

In the 5th or Crosby-Ironton district, Ed. R. Burns and Archie B. Johnstone are opposing candidates. Mr. Burns served on the board a short period by appointment.

MAJOR ISSUE IN PRESENT CAMPAIGN

THE major issue in the present campaign is the agricultural question. Minnesota, long-known as the bread and butter state, now produces more butter than it does bread. The size of the cream check is of vital interest, not only to every farmer who milks a cow, but to the country merchant and the country banker as well.

The protective tariff has been a Republican policy for over fifty years; the Democratic policy was first free trade, and recently has been "tariff for revenue only."

The Democrat Underwood tariff law, which Governor Alfred E. Smith in his acceptance speech, speaks of with approval, provided for a two and one-half cents tariff on butter. The Fordney-McCumber Republican tariff, provided for eight cents which has been raised by a Republican President by executive order under the provisions of that bill, to twelve cents. The butter production of Crow Wing county in 1926, the last year for which figures are available, was 1,175,964 pounds and the farmers of this county received $111,716.58 more because of the Republican protective tariff than they would have received had the Underwood law been in effect. The Farmers Co-operative Creamery in Brainerd last year produced 392,802 pounds of butter.

Can we afford to take any chances with a Democratic administration and its tariff policy, when the protective tariff means so much to our producers of milk, cream and butter?

The attitude of Tammany on the protective tariff is well illustrated by the fact that Congressman Royal H. Weller, Tammany Democrat of New York City, and friend of Governor Smith, introduced a bill in the Sixty-ninth Congress, H. R. 7621, for the purpose of placing milk and cream on the free list.

If there were no other reason, the vital necessity of keeping in force tariff protection for butter, milk and cream is sufficient to merit the votes of Minnesota farmers and business men for the Republican ticket, and remember that Republican party policies cannot be enacted into law unless we have a Republican Senate and House.

THE CONTRAST

MINNESOTA'S paramount political needs are economic, says the St. Paul Pioneer Press.

The type of man to represent it best in the United States Senate is one capable of direct action, possessed of definite opinions, trained in constructive administration, understanding business problems and the practical affairs of trade, commerce and transportation. Such a man is Arthur E. Nelson, Republican candidate for the Senate.

Minnesota's least political requirement is a program of obstruction, opposition, denunciation, indecision, impracticability, indefinite aims, bartering, trading and shifting for position, power and votes. These policies are exemplified in Henrik Shipstead, Farmer-Labor-Independent candidate for the Senate. In his record, to which he points with pride, all of them may be found.

It is more spectacular to criticize than to help; easier to condemn and tear down than to build and support. It requires ability, courage and decision to be a forward force in politics as well as in business. Minnesota will be best represented by men who can contribute affirmative action toward solving her material problems and advancing her important interests.

The criterion of representation in the future will be a stand for something definite, something constructive—to be a "pro" and not an "anti." This standard marks the difference between Nelson and Shipstead. In the records of the two men is a concrete example of their contrasting character and methods.

LUTEFISK, A DELICACY

LUTEFISK, as served by the Men's club of the Norwegian-Danish Lutheran church Friday night at their supper, is a real delicacy. That is the consensus of opinion of 650 people who attended.

Every one had a healthy appetite and after it was all over, the committee figured out that the toothsome menu included 600 pounds of fish, 75 pounds of butter, five bushels of potatoes, 50 gallons of coffee, streams of milk and cream, acres of lefsa and flatbrot, jars and jars of pickles, preserves, etc.

So great was the crush at all times from 4:30 p. m. to the finish, that the one entrance was crowded and ingress and egress was slow. It has been proposed to build another entrance into the basement, thus permitting those who have had their supper to walk out without inconveniencing those desiring to enter.

Mrs. Henry Ford Calls Hoover Choice of the Nation's Women

Wife of Automobile Manufacturer Says Issues of Campaign Are the Most Important Since Universal Suffrage.

Mrs. Henry Ford believes that most American women who love their homes and families will vote for Herbert Hoover in November.

So firmly convinced is Mrs. Ford that the issue of this year's presidential election is "of exceptional importance to women" that she decided to express her views in the first interview on politics she has ever granted.

"The issue is beyond politics," she declared in her home in Dearborn, Michigan, to a representative of the Women's National Committee for Hoover of which Mrs. F. Louis Slade is chairman.

"I shall vote for Mr. Hoover and I believe most home-loving women will achievement and by his t of life of fulfilling the ideals which women cherish."

It was not a desire to enter the arena of politics which prompted her to declare her support for Hoover.

Not Politician

"I am not a politician," she remarked, "I helped to the best of my ability in the fight to get the vote. Since we have had the vote, I have always been interested in politics but I have never participated in any direct personal activities in that direction."

"We are for Hoover because we like the kind of work he has already done. His achievement in helping the Mississippi flood sufferers was remarkable, considering the shortness of time. He has done lots of other admirable things."

"We women are tremendously interested in legislation which relates to children or anything to do with the home. We are interested in proper legislation and getting the proper men to put it through. Mr. Hoover seems to be the right sort of man."

"Mrs. Hoover's early life and Mr. Hoover's in the old farm state of Iowa and on their present fine practical farm in California has helped them both to maintain a deep insight into farm conditions. Mr. Hoover realizes that it is of primary importance that life on the farms should be on the highest possible plane."

"Mr. Hoover will be doing a great thing if he succeeds in making the farm a better place to live on. He will earn the gratitude of thousands of women if he gives families on the farms the same sort of chance to lead a true good American life as most city families already have."

"This, you see, is outside of politics. Politics is too big a subject to discuss in a few minutes. This is true Americanism."

do likewise because he more than any other candidate seems interested in the problems of women and of the home."

So far as women, generally, are concerned, she explained, the basic issue of the election this year is closely connected with Mr. Hoover's unusual interest in their special concerns. In this sense, home-loving women throughout the land and particularly on the farms have a personal stake in November's battle of the ballot boxes.

"Mr. Hoover," Mrs. Ford continued, "seems to me to be the type of man who would do more than talk about helping in such important matters as social legislation."

"Never since women have had the vote has any presidential candidate given such convincing promise not by his words alone but by his record of

do likewise because he more than any other candidate seems interested in the problems of women and of the home."

So far as women, generally, are concerned, she explained, the basic issue of the election this year is closely connected with Mr. Hoover's unusual interest in their special concerns. In this sense, home-loving women throughout the land and particularly on the farms have a personal stake in November's battle of the ballot boxes.

"Mr. Hoover," Mrs. Ford continued, "seems to me to be the type of man who would do more than talk about helping in such important matters as social legislation."

"Never since women have had the vote has any presidential candidate given such convincing promise not by his words alone but by his record of

do likewise because he more than any other candidate seems interested in the problems of women and of the home."

So far as women, generally, are concerned, she explained, the basic issue of the election this year is closely connected with Mr. Hoover's unusual interest in their special concerns. In this sense, home-loving women throughout the land and particularly on the farms have a personal stake in November's battle of the ballot boxes.

"Mr. Hoover," Mrs. Ford continued, "seems to me to be the type of man who would do more than talk about helping in such important matters as social legislation."

"Never since women have had the vote has any presidential candidate given such convincing promise not by his words alone but by his record of

do likewise because he more than any other candidate seems interested in the problems of women and of the home."

So far as women, generally, are concerned, she explained, the basic issue of the election this year is closely connected with Mr. Hoover's unusual interest in their special concerns. In this sense, home-loving women throughout the land and particularly on the farms have a personal stake in November's battle of the ballot boxes.

"Mr. Hoover," Mrs. Ford continued, "seems to me to be the type of man who would do more than talk about helping in such important matters as social legislation."

"Never since women have had the vote has any presidential candidate given such convincing promise not by his words alone but by his record of

do likewise because he more than any other candidate seems interested in the problems of women and of the home."

RADIO PROGRAMS

Today
WCCO (405)

5:30 p. m.—Children's safety campaign.
5:45 p. m.—Livestock market summary.
5:55 p. m.—Summary market report and road conditions bulletin.
6:00 p. m.—Frank Mayer—"Highlights of the Sports World."
6:30 p. m.—Dinner concert—Dick Long's orchestra; Meta Ashwin Birnbach, soprano; Paul Oberg, accompanist.
7:30 p. m.—Republican state central committee—Arthur E. Nelson.
8:00 p. m.—Republican national committee.
8:30 p. m.—General Motors family party.
9:30 p. m.—Hamline university hour.
10:00 p. m.—Weather report.
10:05 p. m.—Walter Mallory, tenor; Paul Oberg, accompanist.
10:35 p. m.—Musical program.
11:00 p. m.—Republican last minute appeals—Wally Erickson's orchestra.

KSTP Features

6:00 p. m.—The Percolators.
6:33 p. m.—Studio trio.
7:01 p. m.—Address—Democratic national committee.
8:01 p. m.—Seeger Melody Musketiers.
9:00 p. m.—Address—Republican national committee.
9:15 p. m.—Address—Republican state central committee.
10:15 p. m.—Address—Senator Henrik Shipstead.
10:45 p. m.—Address—Republican state central committee.
11:15 p. m.—Dance program.

Five Best Features

Copyright 1928 by United Press
WJZ Network, 7:30 p. m.—Final campaign address, Norman Thomas.
WJZ Network, 8 p. m.—"America's Men of Destiny," with final campaign address by Herbert Hoover.
WJZ Network, 9 p. m.—Final campaign talk, Alfred E. Smith.
WEAF Network, 8:30 p. m.—General Motors hour.
WEAF Network, 9:30 p. m.—Herbert's opera, "Natoma."

Tuesday
WCCO (405)

7:00 a. m.—Time signal program.
9:00 a. m.—Hamline radio university.
9:15 a. m.—Program for the day and news bulletin.
9:50 a. m.—New York stock exchange; weather and market reports.
11:30 a. m.—Market reports and New York stock exchange.
12:00 p. m.—Dinner Bell hour.
12:45 p. m.—Lowry trio.
1:00 p. m.—Livestock market summary.
1:30 p. m.—Weather and market reports.
3:00 p. m.—New York stock exchange.
3:30 p. m.—Auction bridge game.
5:45 p. m.—Livestock market summary.
5:55 p. m.—Summary market report and road conditions bulletin.
6:00 p. m.—National League of Women Voters.
6:30 p. m.—The world book man.
6:35 p. m.—Music Box trio.
7:00 p. m.—Southern Sunshine.
8:00 p. m.—Eveready hour.
9:00 p. m.—Cluquot Club Eskimos.
9:30 p. m.—Election program.
10:00 p. m.—Weather report.
KSTP Features
6:00 p. m.—Dinner concert.
7:01 p. m.—KSTP world cruise.
8:01 p. m.—St. Paul association program—Orchestra and William O'Grady, tenor.

Those Who Catch Cold Easily

will find their powers of resistance much increased if they use

Father
John's
Medicine

This old fashioned family medicine has vitalizing and warmth giving qualities. It maintains strength because of its nourishing body building elements.

It has had over 73 years of success and is recommended for every member of the family because it does not contain alcohol or dangerous drugs

BEST BUILDING TONIC

General Election Facts

By United Press
Who—From 40,000,000 to 45,000,000 persons have registered in the United States, and from 25,000,000 are expected to vote.

When—Tomorrow, in most instances from 6 a. m. to 6 p. m.
For what—A president, a vice president, 31 U. S. senators, 435 U. S. representatives, 34 governors and innumerable state officers.

Where—In the 48 states of the union and its territories.

No More Piles

Pile sufferers can only get quick, safe and lasting relief by removing the cause—bad blood circulation in the lower bowel. Cutting and salves can't do this—an internal remedy must be used. Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid, a harmless tablet, succeeds because it relieves this blood congestion and strengthens the affected parts. Hem-Roid has a wonderful record for quick, safe and lasting relief to Pile sufferers. It will do the same for you or money back. H. P. Dunn, Johnson's Pharmacy and druggists anywhere sell Hem-Roid with this guarantee. —Adv.

HEAD COLDS

Melt in spoon; inhale vapors; apply freely up nostrils.

VICKS
VAPORUB
Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

Cold Weather

Will soon be here.
Better let me make those necessary repairs now.

Phone 462

Vernon E. White
Contractor and Builder

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth. Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

CREOMULSION

FOR THE COUGH FROM COLDS THAT HANG ON

Your Parlor Furnace works better with STOTT BRIQUETS

"It's the Blend" that Does It!

So clean to handle... so clean to burn... you're sure to like STOTT BRIQUETS. It's the blend of "quick-pick-up" Pocahontas Smokeless and "long-burning" Pennsylvania hard coal that makes your fire easy to start and easy to control for steady heat. And so convenient! No clinkers... very little ashes... and shaped like little pillows, 2 inches square, for easy handling! Order by this name... STOTT BRIQUETS... from your dealer... Today.

STOTT BRIQUETS
THE PERFECT FUEL
Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

BRAVEST BOYS IN MIDDLE WEST

Edward Olway, 14, of Detroit, Mich. (left), and Eugene Duesberry, 12, of Flint, Mich. Life Saving Scouts, who have received the bronze Hero Award Medal through action of Salvation Army board, headed by Lieut. Commissioner John McMillan, after being adjudged the "bravest boys in Middle West." Both boys risked their lives to save drowning persons.

CLAIM KNUTE ROCKNE HAS SURPRISE UNDER HIS SLEEVE

IRISH TO FACE ARMY ELEVEN AT YANKEE STADIUM

EVERY AVAILABLE SEAT AND INCH OF STANDING ROOM SOLD OUT

NOTRE DAME TO CHECK CHRIS CAGLE FROM RUNNING WILD

By FRANK GETTY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Nov. 5.—(UP)—Out of the Indiana lowlands comes a whisper that Knute Rockne has a surprise up his sleeve for the Army when the Irish of Notre Dame come east for the big intersectional battle of the week, which already has sold out every seat and available inch of standing room in spacious Yankee stadium.

Whether it is a plan to stop Chris Cagle, who has run wild against Army's opponents this season, or whether it is a surprise attack as yet undisclosed by the South Bend backfield, deponent sayeth not.

The fact remains that the Cadets, topping, along with Georgetown, the unbeaten elevens of the east, are not looking forward to the coming encounter with any display of overconfidence.

A point has been raised by gridiron critics to the effect that the Army has a one-man attack. To some extent, the point is well taken. So have most of the good football teams of 1928. It is the new science of offense to build the attack around a single ball carrier.

Rockne, on the other hand, has a versatile offense, with Jack Chevigny, Johnny Nieniec and "Moon" Mullins all fast, hard, hitting backs. The Irish, after scoring early against Penn State, whom they defeated 9 to 0 Saturday, went into a shell and kept the extent of their capabilities to themselves.

One of the big unbeaten elevens of the east is due for a reverse next Saturday, when Georgetown and Carnegie Tech meet at Albany. The Blue and Grey, having disposed of New York University, 7 to 2, Saturday, may meet a tartar in the Tech team which enjoyed a day of rest.

Arnie Horween, Harvard head coach, was out in Chicago, scouting the Maroons while Pennsylvania was downing Stagg's eleven, 20 to 13, and reports that the Crimson, which showed new power in trouncing Lehigh, 39 to 0, has an excellent chance of beating the Red and Blue in the big game at Cambridge this week.

Down in Atlanta, two more unbeaten, untied teams of the year are to meet, Georgia Tech opposing Vanderbilt. The two remaining contenders for "Big Ten" honors, Iowa and Ohio State, meet at Columbus.

Altogether, it promises to be quite a Saturday for football.

ZEPPELIN STOWAWAY COMING HOME SOON

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 5.—(UP)—In a trans-Atlantic telephone call, Clarence Terhune, Graf-Zeppelin stowaway, in Berlin, told Mrs. Edna Hall here he would leave Southampton, England Wednesday and arrive in New York November 13.

"Why did you go so far?" Mrs. Hall, Terhune's half sister asked.

Terhune explained "he did not earn enough money to pay his way to get there some way or another."

Vacuum Sweepers No Worry to Corn Raisers

Oklahoma City, Okla.—Broomcorn producers, watching with increasing alarm the sale of modern housecleaning equipment, may not have as much cause for apprehension as the complexion of current market conditions indicate, federal investigators believe.

In answer to queries from Oklahoma, where 50 per cent of the American broomcorn crop is produced, G. A. Collier of the government market news service says that in relation to average consumption there is scarcely more than a month's supply of broomcorn carried over from 1927 and that pessimism is caused largely by the fact that dealers have a quantity of high-priced stock on hand.

The weather last year, he says, caused a decline in production and manufacturers bought brush at a relatively high price. There was no corresponding rise in price of brooms.

A Family Affair

Maryville, Tenn.—A double wedding in which four first cousins participated was celebrated here when Nellie and Beulah Courley, sisters, married Fate and Isaac Courley, brothers. The father of the girls is a brother of the boys' father.

23 Ounce Baby

Liverpool.—A baby weighing only twenty-three ounces was born at the Maternity hospital.

POSSES SCOUR COUNTRYSIDE FOR 31 CONVICTS

Houston, Tex., Nov. 5.—(UP)—Poses scoured the countryside here today for 31 convicts who escaped from the Clemens state prison farm Sunday night after sawing a hole in the barracks where they were housed.

Only one guard was on duty and he apparently failed to see the exodus until the convicts had scattered. An alarm was given and prison guards took up the chase.

The convicts were dressed in regulation prison uniforms and will be easy to identify.

200 HEAD BUFFALO AND ELK TO BE SOLD

St. Paul, Nov. 5.—Nearly 200 head of buffalo and elk are to be sold from the National Bison Range, also known as the Moose Range, along the Northern Pacific in the Flathead district of Montana, according to information received today by C. H. Goodhue, manager of mail, baggage and express on that railroad.

The Bureau of Biological Survey has called for bids to be opened November 5 of big game to be sold from four principal reservations this fall, including the Bison Range.

From the latter range the proposal is to sell not to exceed 107 head of buffalo, mostly animals from two to five years old, and 85 head of elk, ranging in age from calves to 10-year-olds.

According to Mr. Goodhue, the government conducts these big game sales annually to prevent overstocking the ranges. Accurate records are maintained and the number of head of animals is kept within the accommodations of the ranges. Cowboys, at the times of the sales, drive the animals into the corral. Some of the animals will be taken out alive in less than a carload and carload express shipments, although many of them will be slaughtered on the range and their carcasses shipped out for market.

Most Ancient Pyramid

Sakkara, Egypt.—The "Pyramid of Grades," or "of Degrees," which is 15 miles south of Cairo on the opposite side of the Nile from Helwan, has been declared by scientists to be the oldest of the Great Pyramids.

PLAYS NOT BREAKS CAUSED MINNESOTA TO LOSE SATURDAY

NORTHWESTERN U. TRIUMPHS OVER GOPHERS 10-9 AS MICHIGAN TAKES IN ILLINI, 3-0

LACK OF PLAYS IN THE PINCHES COSTS MINNESOTA SCORES; MORALE OF TEAM POOR

By PAUL M. JONES

The peak of the Big Ten schedule was reached Saturday and the results of the four teams playing were upsets according to the "dope" as the mighty Illini fell before Michigan, 3-0, and the sliding Gophers lost by the narrow margin of one point to Northwestern by the score of 10-9, for their second consecutive defeat.

Michigan, after losing three consecutive conference games, rose to the occasion before 80,000 people and defeated the highly touted Illini team by the score of 3-0, on its own field. This was the first defeat for Illini in two years and like many other victories in the Big Ten it was the uncovering of a new star, that made possible the victory for Michigan, a lad by the name of Dahlem, who was playing his first big game, and the goal kicking ability of Gembis, the hard-driving Wolverine fullback. Dahlem carried the ball within the shadows of the Illini goal line and Gembis kicked a field goal from placement. This victory will give the Wolverines lots of confidence and from now on the team will probably be hard to stop. They close the season with the Iowa team at Michigan and may make quite a day out of it as most Michigan teams do regardless of their start.

Wisconsin played Alabama from the south in an intersectional game at Madison and though Alabama was considered quite a team, they were unable to do much with the stubborn Badger team. Only once did Alabama threaten the Badgers' goal line but the sturdy Wisconsin team was equal to the danger and staved off their drive to score. Wisconsin has three hard games left with Chicago, Iowa and Minnesota, and she will probably lose to Iowa or Minnesota. Regardless of the results of the latter two they will both be battles, Iowa especially.

Iowa had a little rest from her severe game with Minnesota by meeting South Dakota, defeating them easily, 19-0, with their star fullback, McLain, out with an injured hand. Iowa meets Iowa State at Columbus this week and will find the Ohioans quite a task to defeat though in better condition for another hard game than the former before meeting Wisconsin and Michigan.

Ohio State surprised even its most ardent rooters by its great intersectional game with Princeton, which resulted in a tie, 6-6, after one of the greatest games played in the west in many a day. The Ohio stadium was filled to capacity, 72,000 people, and as the game was not decided until the closing minutes of play there was plenty of excitement. Princeton scored its points on an Ohio fumble in the third quarter, while the Buckeyes scored their points by an aerial attack that is not shown on every football field and simplified bewildered the "Tigers" in a mad effort to block the long passes. It left Ohio State as the outstanding team of the Big Ten and probably the only undefeated one for the season. Their hardest game left will be at Urbana at the close of the season with the strong Illini team.

Purdue had an easy time in disposing of Case, 19-0, putting her in good shape for her hard game with Northwestern Saturday after three hard conference games with Chicago, Minnesota and Wisconsin, which will be played at Evanston Saturday.

Chicago, after one of the most disastrous seasons in many a year at the midway school, was the only western team to fall to uphold the prestige of the conference by losing to Pennsylvania in the closing moments of play, 20-13, after gaining a tie just before the game closed to let it slip away by a long Penn forward pass. Chicago has Wisconsin and Illinois to play before the season is finished but as she lost to Iowa, Minnesota and Purdue, things do not look very bright for her to win a conference game this season.

Now we come to the Gophers. Northwestern, 10; Minnesota, 9. In two weeks Minnesota lost both games by one point. Had either game been played at Minneapolis, Minnesota would have won by decisive margins but away on poor fields things don't shape so well for them. Surely both teams played in the mud but the Gophers were the superior team in both of the last two combats with Iowa and Northwestern to whom they succumbed. The results of both contests, I couldn't believe, were the results of the Minnesota team I saw so early meet two good conference teams at Minneapolis. Before, the players formed a courageous, powerful, slashing team, while Saturday they comprised a meek, ineffective poor team of players. I feel the loss of Johnson in the defensive wall and Nagurski from the offensive drive took out the backbone of the Gopher team. Though both played for a while in the Northwestern game, the effectiveness of either one as players cost Minnesota a lot in their power. However, that does not excuse "Doc" Spears from devising something clever to score with when within scoring distance as we were once or twice Saturday that would have brought home the desired victory for the Gophers. There has been such a sameness to the offensive drive of the Gophers that it didn't take much scouting or watching to detect the scheme of their playing when in possession of the ball. Spears has been here three years and I can remember but one real trick for scoring he has given the team. "Doc" also cries over his injuries and the likes as alibis, but other teams have faced the injured lists and offensive holes but have managed to crawl out of them so why can't the Minnesota mentor? I can't understand a coach so capable as the "Doc" is in fundamentals, so weak in strategy.

The team, to me, now acts as though there is lack of harmony within the ranks, disgusted and the morale gone for the season. It is not the same team. The Gophers have two hard games to prepare for and though the team is in miserable condition and frame of mind, it is up to the coaches to meet the situation this week and defeat Indiana and Wisconsin. It can be done. If I used all the available material I would bag the two games. Give the quarter something besides the guard play and criss crosses on the goal line and a game by scores will be taken. Our plays are what are killing us more than the playing or material weaknesses. Every opponent knows exactly what to expect from a Minnesota team so "cunning and deceiving" are our plays.

Let's place a team in the field Saturday and scalp those Hoosiers, who are trying for ours and then we will have an easy week with the Haskell Indians and time enough to bring back the team for the real struggle at Madison and close a disastrous season by those two victories.

Minneapolis, Nov. 5.—(UP)—Mrs. Clarence Spears, wife of Dr. Spears, Minnesota University football coach, uttered a long silvery laugh today when asked if it were true, as was reported at Brainerd, that the doctor was about to resign.

"No, it's not true," Mrs. Spears said as soon as she could catch her breath. "I'm sure Dr. Spears would have told me if we were going to move."

"Those rumors bob up almost every week. When the doctor does resign it won't be a secret."

Experts Report U. S. Free of Dengue Fever

Washington.—Except for sporadic cases, the United States has been practically free since 1922 from dengue fever, the disease which had swept over Athens and Pines in the last few weeks.

Official reports received by the public health service indicate that almost the entire population of these historic centers has been affected by the epidemic, and some idea of the general misery it has caused is undoubtedly possessed by thousands in this country who passed through the last American outbreak six years ago in Texas, Louisiana, Alabama and Mississippi.

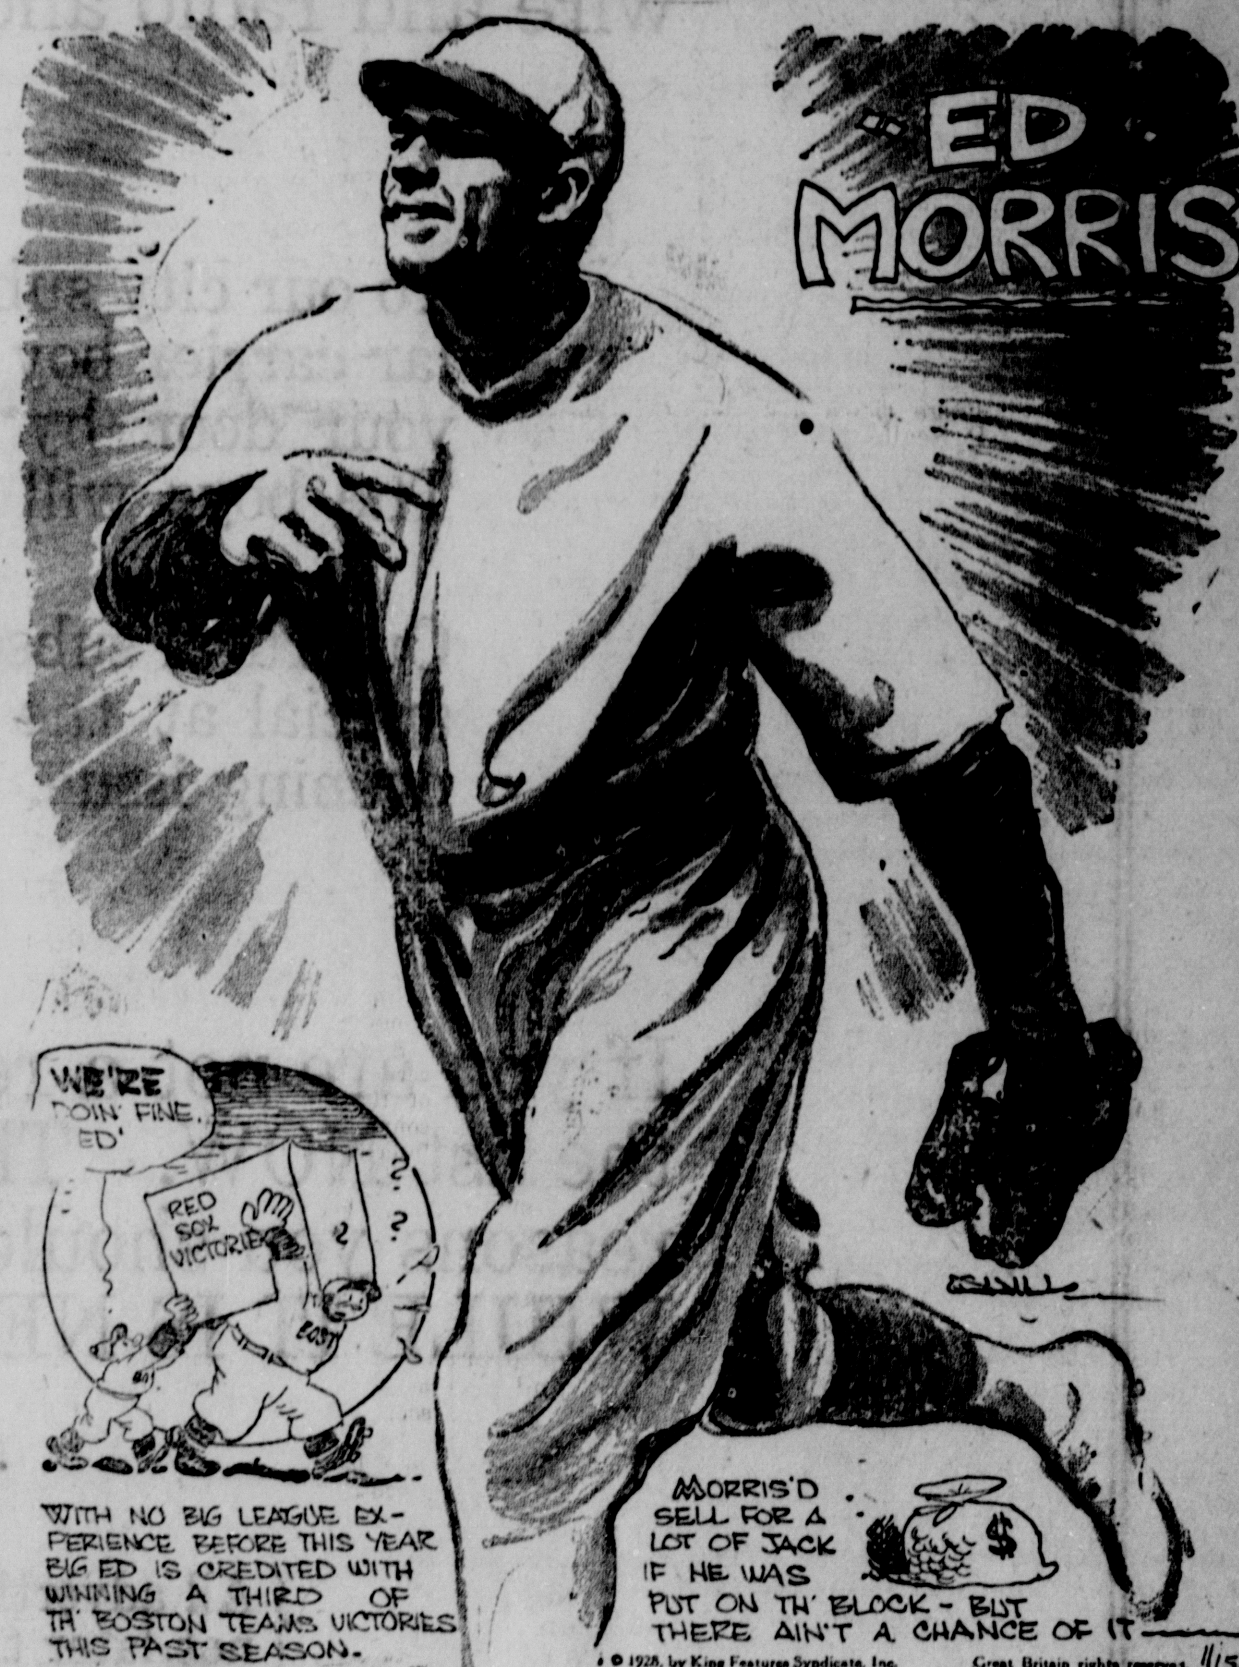

The disease is one which seldom ends fatally, but once it starts spreading it attacks large numbers of persons. The victims are incapacitated for varying periods, and, as in sickness, their suffering is of an exceptionally dispiriting nature.

It is known in this country as "breakbone fever" owing to the deep-seated aches which are its principal symptoms.

Awarded for Heroism

Carnegie medals are awarded at the discretion of the Carnegie hero fund commission, upon submission of proof of extraordinary heroism on the part of persons who have saved or attempted to save others' lives at great risk to, or the loss of, their own.

Boston's Iron Man

By QUIN HALL.
ON the day before election Boston and the State of Massachusetts is still classed as being a little doubtful. Smith, Hoover and the politicians are still wrangling over the strength of each party in the State which made famous the cod, and Boston, the Hub of the world, is naturally being claimed by the followers of the elephant as well as the followers of the donkey.

From a spectator's standpoint it seems that both of the boys who are running for the biggest job in the country—in point of honor—are overlooking a great chance to set themselves in solid with the good residents of the Hub. If one of the parties had listed Ed Morris on the local ticket in Boston for some sort of a political job Ed would have likely carried the city by a considerable margin and lugged along the rest of the ticket with him. And he might even have helped carry the State for the party that was fast enough to have thought up the idea.

Ed Morris, you know, spent the Summer in Boston pitching baseball for the Boston Red Sox. The Sox it is true, didn't make any record to cause the burning of red fire on the Commons or even in Harvard Square but Ed Morris built up quite a reputation for himself despite the fact that he was operating on a tail-end team.

Of the 57 different varieties of ball games won during the season by Bill Carrigan's outfit, Morris is credited with winning 19, which, if the old school books hold good, is exactly one-third of the total wins. And that's a considerable record in any baseball league. Given a couple of more pitchers as good as Morris and Carrigan might have won the old hunting in the American League.

Add to this the fact that Morris started the season as just another ball tosser with no major league experience back of him and you have another good reason for the present popularity of Big Ed in Boston.

When Carrigan speared Morris from the Southern Association last season, his name was listed among three other hurlers. But he leaped the intervening spaces and galloped home as one of the best if not the best first-string pitcher in the American League. In awarding the most valuable player award in the American league this fall, Morris probably wasn't given a tumble. But if the Boston fans had been allowed to vote on the subject Ed, without question, would have been declared the winner. Undoubtedly Morris is Carrigan's most valuable player.

Morris is 28 years old, stands six three and tilts the weight contraption around the 190 figure. During the last season he won 19 while he was losing 15, thereby figuring in the final results of 34 matinee performances. Only one other pitcher in the American League bettered this record. Pipgras, of the New York Yankees, figured in the finals of 37 games. Facing a tough task in twirling winning ball for a last hole team Morris never "beefed." He went in and worked out of his turn on a good many days and thus gained the well deserved "rep" of being an iron man, and he's an idol in the Hub.

Boston could probably sell Morris for a pile of coin, but Boston is interested in building up a winning ball club and therefore there isn't any chance of seeing Ed on the block.

WHEN HOOVER WON APPLAUSE FROM PRESIDENT

Herbert Hoover making campaign address before crowd of 17,000 voters in St. Louis Coliseum, which prompted President Coolidge, who listened to the Republican nominee over the radio, to send a message of congratulations and best wishes. In concluding his series of campaign speeches, Hoover discussed the necessity for constructive government and pledged farm relief within a year.

CLAIM KNUTE ROCKNE HAS SURPRISE UNDER HIS SLEEVE

IRISH TO FACE ARMY ELEVEN AT YANKEE STADIUM

EVERY AVAILABLE SEAT AND INCH OF STANDING ROOM SOLD OUT

NOTRE DAME TO CHECK CHRIS CAGLE FROM RUNNING WILD

By FRANK GETTY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Nov. 5.—(U.P.)—Out of the Indiana lowlands comes a whisper that Knute Rockne has a surprise up his sleeve for the Army when the Irish of Notre Dame come east for the big intersectional battle of the week, which already has sold out every seat and available inch of standing room in spacious Yankee stadium.

Whether it is a plan to stop Chris Cagle, who has run wild against Army's opponents this season, or whether it is a surprise attack as yet undisclosed by the South Bend backfield, deponent sayeth not.

The fact remains that the Cadets, topping, along with Georgetown, the unbeaten eleven of the east, are not looking forward to the coming encounter with any display of overconfidence.

A point has been raised by gridiron critics to the effect that the Army has a one-man attack. To some extent, the point is well taken. So have most of the good football teams of 1928. It is the new science of offense to build the attack around a single ball carrier.

Rockne, on the other hand, has a versatile offense, with Jack Chevigny, Johnny Niemiec and "Moon" Mullins all fast, hard, hitting backs. The Irish, after scoring early against Penn State, whom they defeated 9 to 0 Saturday, went into a shell and kept the extent of their capabilities to themselves.

One of the big unbeaten eleven of the east is due for a reverse next Saturday, when Georgetown and Carnegie Tech meet at Albany. The Blue and Grey, having disposed of New York university, 7 to 2, Saturday, may meet a tartar in the Tech team which enjoyed a day of rest.

Arnie Horween, Harvard head coach, was out in Chicago, scouting the Maroons while Pennsylvania was downing Stagg's eleven, 20 to 13, and reports that the Crimson, which showed new power in trouncing Lehigh, 39 to 0, has an excellent chance of beating the Red and Blue in the big game at Cambridge this week.

Down in Atlanta, two more unbeaten, untied teams of the year are to meet, Georgia Tech opposing Vanderbilt. The two remaining contenders for "Big Ten" honors, Iowa and Ohio State, meet at Columbus.

Altogether, it promises to be quite a Saturday for football.

ZEPPELIN STOWAWAY COMING HOME SOON

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 5.—(U.P.)—In a trans-Atlantic telephone call, Clarence Terhune, Graf-Zeppelin stowaway, in Berlin, told Mrs. Edna Hall here he would leave Southampton, England Wednesday and arrive in New York November 13.

"Why did you go so far?" Mrs. Hall, Terhune's half sister asked. Terhune explained "he did not earn enough money to pay his way to get there some way or another."

Vacuum Sweepers No Worry to Corn Raisers

Oklahoma City, Okla.—Broomcorn producers, watching with increasing alarm the sale of modern housecleaning equipment, may not have as much cause for apprehension as the complexity of current market conditions indicate, federal investigators believe.

In answer to queries from Oklahoma, where 50 per cent of the American broomcorn crop is produced, G. A. Collier of the government market news service says that in relation to average consumption there is scarcely more than a month's supply of broomcorn carried over from 1927 and that pessimism is caused largely by the fact that dealers have a quantity of high-priced stock on hand.

The weather last year, he says, caused a decline in production and manufacturers bought brush at a relatively high price. There was no corresponding rise in price of brooms.

A Family Affair

Maryville, Tenn.—A double wedding in which four first cousins participated was celebrated here when Nellie and Beulah Gourley, sisters, married Fate and Isaac Gourley, brothers. The father of the girls is a brother of the boys' father.

23 Ounce Baby

Liverpool.—A baby weighing only twenty-three ounces was born at the Maternity hospital.

POSSES SCOUR COUNTRYSIDE FOR 31 CONVICTS

Houston, Tex., Nov. 5.—(U.P.)—Posses scoured the countryside here today for 31 convicts who escaped from the Clemens state prison farm Sunday night after sawing a hole in the barracks where they were housed.

Only one guard was on duty and he apparently failed to see the exodus until the convicts had scattered. An alarm was given and prison guards took up the chase. The convicts were dressed in regulation prison uniforms and will be easy to identify.

200 HEAD BUFFALO AND ELK TO BE SOLD

St. Paul, Nov. 5.—Nearly 200 head of buffalo and elk are to be sold from the National Bison Range, also known as the Moose Range, along the Northern Pacific in the Flathead district of Montana, according to information received today by C. H. Goodhue, manager of mail, baggage and express on that railroad.

The Bureau of Biological Survey has called for bids to be opened November 5 of big game to be sold from four principal reservations this fall, including the Bison Range.

From the latter range the proposal is to sell not to exceed 107 head of buffalo, mostly animals from two to five years old, and 85 head of elk, ranging in age from calves to 10-year-olds.

According to Mr. Goodhue, the government conducts these big game sales annually to prevent overstocking the ranges. Accurate records are maintained and the number of head of animals is kept within the accommodations of the ranges. Cowboys, at the times of the sales, drive the animals into the corral. Some of the animals will be taken out alive in less than carlot and carload express shipments, although many of them will be slaughtered on the range and their carcasses shipped out for market.

Most Ancient Pyramid

Sakura Step pyramid, the "Pyramid of Grades" or "of Degrees," which is 45 miles south of Cairo on the opposite side of the Nile from Helwan, has been declared by scientists to be the oldest of the Great Pyramids.

PLAYS NOT BREAKS CAUSED MINNESOTA TO LOSE SATURDAY

NORTHWESTERN U. TRIUMPHS OVER GOPHERS 10-9 AS MICHIGAN TAKES IN ILLINI, 3-0

LACK OF PLAYS IN THE PINCHES COSTS MINNESOTA SCORES; MORALE OF TEAM POOR

By PAUL M. JONES

The peak of the Big Ten schedules was reached Saturday and the results of the four teams playing were upsets according to the "dope" as the mighty Illini fell before Michigan, 3-0, and the sliding Gophers lost by the narrow margin of one point to Northwestern by the score of 10-9, for their second consecutive defeat.

Michigan, after losing three consecutive conference games, rose to the occasion before 80,000 people and defeated the highly touted Illinois team by the score of 3-0, on its own field. This was the first defeat for Illini in two years and like many other victories in the Big Ten it was the uncovering of a new star, that made possible the victory for Michigan, a lad by the name of Dahlem, who was playing his first big game, and the goal kicking ability of Gembis, the hard-driving Wolverine fullback. Dahlem carried the ball within the shadows of the Illini goal line and Gembis kicked a field goal from placement. This victory will give the Wolverines lots of confidence and from now on the team will probably be hard to stop. They close the season with the Iowa team at Michigan and may make quite a day out of it as most Michigan teams do regardless of their start.

Wisconsin played Alabama from the south in an intersectional game at Madison and though Alabama was considered quite a team, they were unable to do much with the stubborn Badger team. Only once did Alabama threaten the Badgers' goal line but the sturdy Wisconsin team was equal to the danger and staved off their drive to score. Wisconsin has three hard games left with Chicago, Iowa and Minnesota, and she will probably lose to Iowa or Minnesota. Regardless of the results of the latter two they will both be battles, Iowa especially.

Iowa had a little rest from her severe game with Minnesota by meeting South Dakota, defeating them easily, 19-0, with their star fullback, McLain, out with an injured hand. Iowa meets Iowa State at Columbus this week and will find the Ohioans quite a task to defeat though in better condition for another hard game than the former before meeting Wisconsin and Michigan.

Ohio State surprised even its most ardent rooters by its great intersectional game with Princeton, which resulted in a tie, 6-6, after one of the greatest games played in the west in many a day. The Ohio stadium was filled to capacity, 72,000 people, and as the game was not decided until the closing minutes of play there was plenty of excitement. Princeton scored its points on an Ohio fumble in the third quarter, while the Buckeyes scored their points by an aerial attack that is not shown on every football field and simply bewildered the "Tigers" in a mad effort to block the long passes. It left Ohio State as the outstanding team of the Big Ten and probably the only undefeated one for the season. Their hardest game left will be at Urbana at the close of the season with the strong Illini team.

Purdue had an easy time in disposing of Case, 19-0, putting her in good shape for her hard game with Northwestern Saturday after three hard conference games with Chicago, Minnesota and Wisconsin, which will be played at Evanston Saturday.

Chicago, after one of the most disastrous seasons in many a year at the midway school, was the only western team to fail to uphold the prestige of the conference by losing to Pennsylvania in the closing moments of play, 20-13, after gaining a tie just before the game closed to let it slip away by a long Penn forward pass. Chicago has Wisconsin and Illinois to play before the season is finished but as she lost to Iowa, Minnesota and Purdue, things do not look very bright for her to win a conference game this season.

Now we come to the Gophers. Northwestern, 10; Minnesota, 9. In two weeks Minnesota lost both games by one point. Had either game been played at Minneapolis, Minnesota would have won by decisive margins but away on poor fields things don't shape so well for them. Surely both teams played in the mud but the Gophers were the superior team in both of the last two combats with Iowa and Northwestern to whom they succumbed. The results of both contests, I couldn't believe, were the results of the Minnesota team I saw so early meet two good conference teams at Minneapolis. Before, the players formed a courageous, powerful, slashing team, while Saturday they comprised a meek, ineffective poor team of players. I feel the loss of Johnson in the defensive wall and Nagurski from the offensive drive took out the backbone of the Gopher team. Though both played for a while in the Northwestern game, the effectiveness of either one as players cost Minnesota a lot in their power. However that does not excuse "Doc" Spears from devising something clever to score with when within scoring distance as we were once or twice Saturday that would have brought home the desired victory for the Gophers. There has been such a sameness to the offensive drive of the Gophers that it didn't take much scouting or watching to detect the scheme of their playing when in possession of the ball. Spears has been here three years and I can remember but one real trick for scoring he has given the team. "Doc" also cries over his injuries and the likes as alibis, but other teams have faced the injured lists and offensive holes but have managed to crawl out of them so why can't the Minnesota mentor? I can't understand a coach so capable as the "Doc" is in fundamentals, so weak in strategy.

The team, to me, now acts as though there is lack of harmony within the ranks, disgusted and the morale gone for the season. It is not the same team. The Gophers have two hard games to prepare for and though the team is in miserable condition and frame of mind, it is up to the coaches to meet the situation this week and defeat Indiana and Wisconsin. It can be done. If I used all the available material I would bag the two games. Give the quarter something besides the guard play and criss crosses on the goal line and a game by scores will be taken. Our plays are what are killing us more than the playing or material weaknesses. Every opponent knows exactly what to expect from a Minnesota team so "cunning and deceiving" are our plays.

Let's place a team in the field Saturday and scalp those Hoosiers, who are trying for ours and then we will have an easy week with the Haskell Indians and time enough to bring back the team for the real struggle at Madison and close a disastrous season by those two victories.

Minneapolis, Nov. 5.—(U.P.)—Mrs. Clarence Spears, wife of Dr. Spears, Minnesota University football coach, uttered a long silvery laugh today when asked if it were true, as was reported at Brainerd, that the doctor was about to resign.

"No, it's not true," Mrs. Spears said as soon as she could catch her breath. "I'm sure Dr. Spears would have told me if we were going to move."

"Those rumors bob up almost every week. When the doctor does resign it won't be a secret."

Experts Report U. S. Free of Dengue Fever

Washington.—Except for sporadic cases, the United States has been practically free since 1922 from dengue fever, the disease which has swept over Athens and Persia in the last few weeks.

Official reports received by the public health service indicate that almost the entire population of these historic centers has been affected by the epidemic, and some idea of the general misery it has caused is undoubtedly possessed by thousands in this country who passed through the last American outbreak six years ago in Texas, Louisiana, Alabama and Mississippi.

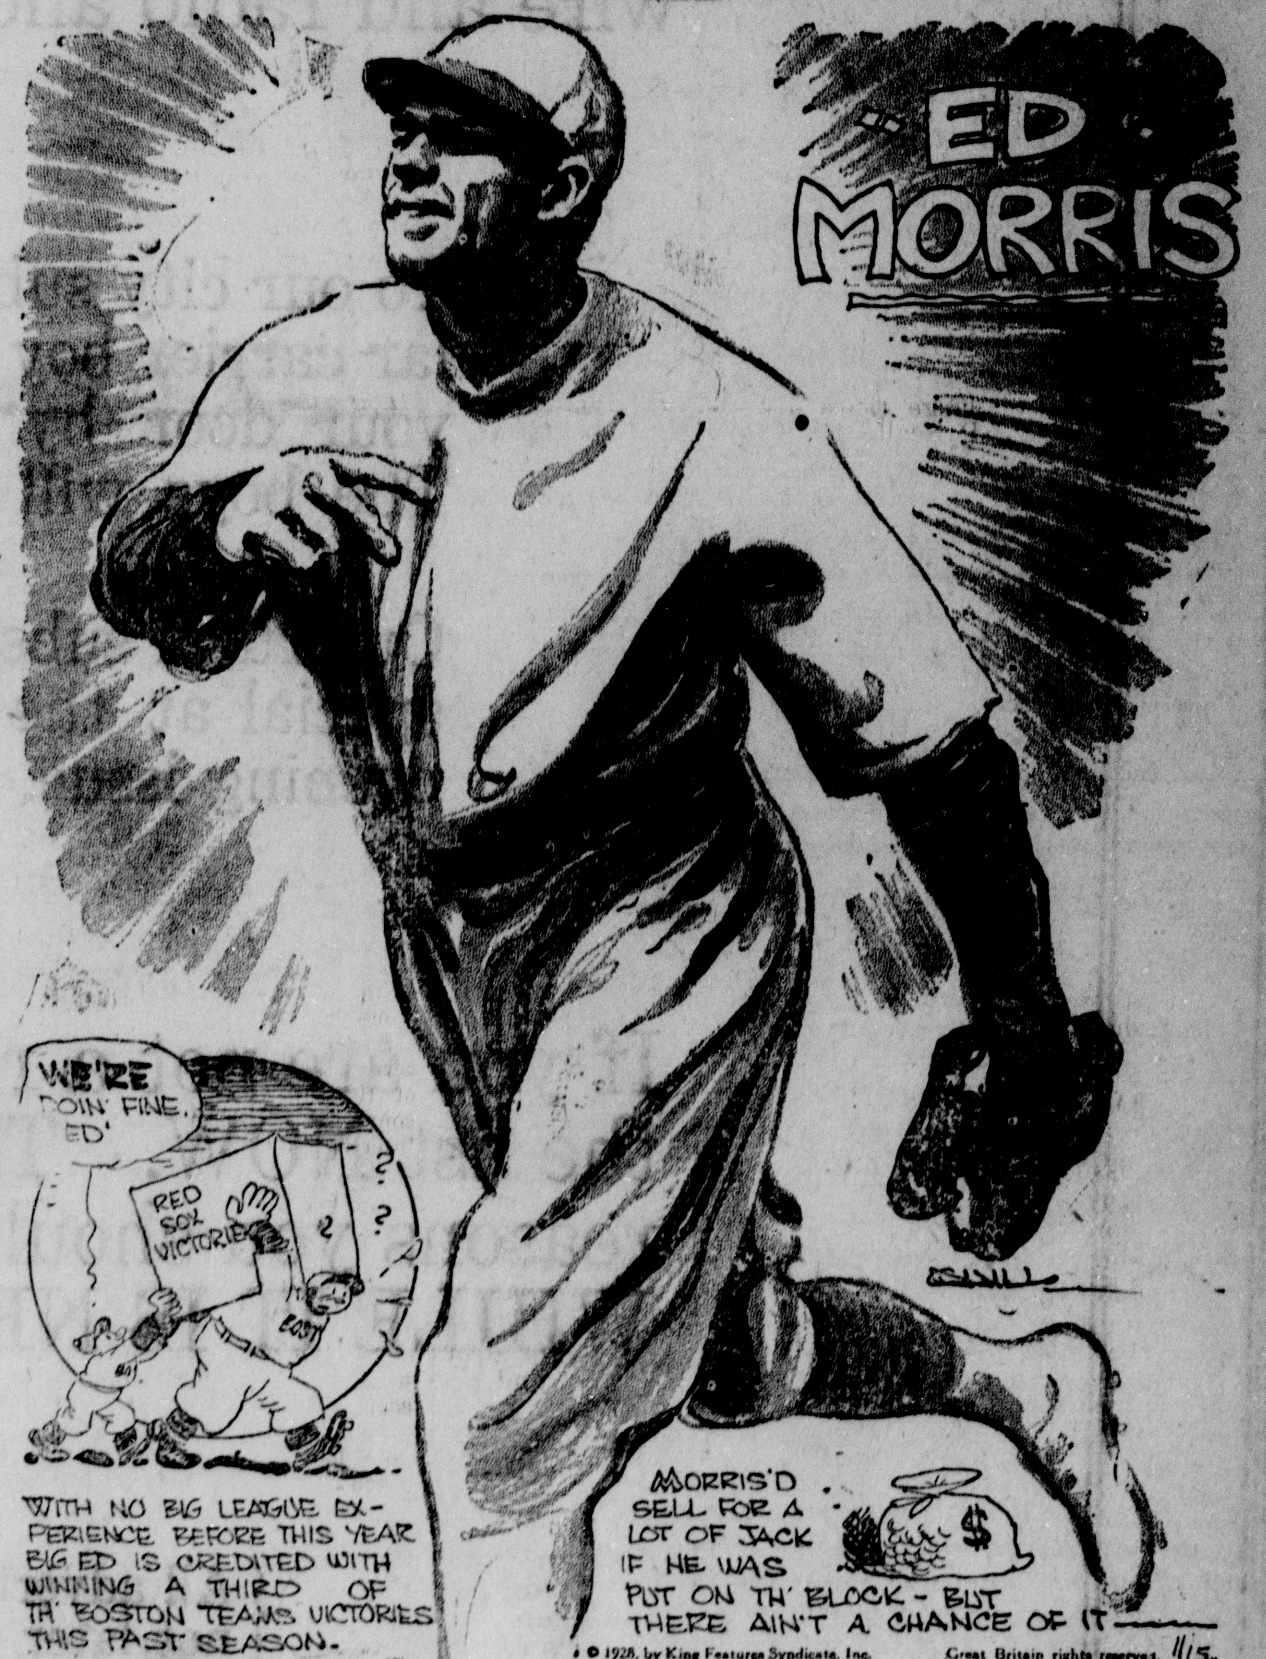

The disease is one which seldom ends fatally, but once it starts spreading it attacks large numbers of persons. The victims are incapacitated for varying periods, and, as in sickness, their suffering is of an exceptionally dispiriting nature.

It is known in this country as "breakbone fever" owing to the deep-rooted aches which are its principal symptoms.

Awarded for Heroism

Carnegie medals are awarded at the discretion of the Carnegie hero fund commission, upon submission of proof of extraordinary heroism on the part of persons who have saved or attempted to save others' lives at great risk to, or the loss of, their own.

Boston's Iron Man

By QUIN HALL

ON the day before election Boston and the State of Massachusetts is still classed as being a little doubtful. Smith, Hoover and the politicians are still wrangling over the strength of each party in the State which made famous the cod, and Boston, the Hub of the works, is naturally being claimed by the followers of the elephant as well as the followers of the dokey.

From a spectator's standpoint it seems that both of the boys who are running for the biggest job in the country—in point of honor—are overlooking a great chance to set themselves in solid with the good residents of the Hub. If one of the parties had listed Ed Morris on the local ticket in Boston for some sort of a political job Ed would have likely carried the city by a considerable margin and lugged along the rest of the ticket with him. And he might even have helped carry the State for the party that was fast enough to have thought up the idea.

Ed Morris, you know, spent the summer in Boston pitching baseball for the Boston Red Sox. The Sox, it is true, didn't make any record to cause the burning of red fire on the Commons or even in Harvard Square but Ed Morris built up quite a reputation for himself despite the fact that he was operating on a tail-end team.

Of the 57 different varieties of ball games won during the season by Bill Carrigan's outfit, Morris is credited with winning 19, which, if the old school books hold good, is exactly one-third of the total wins. And that's a considerable record in any baseball league. Given a couple of more pitchers as good as Morris and Carrigan might have won the old bunting in the American League.

Add to this the fact that Morris started the season as just another ball tosser with no major league experience back of him and you have another good reason for the present popularity of Ed in Boston.

When Carrigan speared Morris from the Southern Association last season, his name was listed among three other hurlers. But he leaped the intervening spaces and galloped home as one of the best if not the best first-strike pitcher in the American League.

In awarding the most valuable player award in the American league this fall, Morris probably wasn't given a tumble. But if the Boston fans had been allowed to vote on the subject Ed, without question, would have been declared the winner. Undoubtedly Morris is Carrigan's most valuable player.

Morris is 28 years old, stands six three and tilts the weight contraption around the 190 figure. During the last season he won 19 while he was losing 15, thereby figuring in the final results of 34 matinee performances. Only one other pitcher in the American League bettered this record. Pipgras, of the New York Yankees, figured in the finals of 37 games. Facing a tough task in twirling winning ball for a last hole team Morris never "beefed." He went in and worked out of his turn on a good many days and thus gained the well deserved "rep" of being an iron man, and he's an idol in the Hub.

Boston could probably sell Morris for a pile of cash. But Boston is interested in building up a winning ball club and therefore there isn't any chance of seeing Ed on the block.

WHEN HOOVER WON APPLAUSE FROM PRESIDENT

Herbert Hoover making campaign address before crowd of 17,000 voters in St. Louis Coliseum, which prompted President Coolidge, who listened to the Republican nominee over the radio, to send a message of congratulations and best wishes. In concluding his series of campaign speeches, Hoover discussed the necessity for constructive government and pledged farm relief within a year.

EXTRA! EXTRA!

WATCH FOR IT!

Wednesday morning we will issue an Election Special giving our readers the very latest in election news at an early hour. The returns will come direct to us from all over the country over United Press leased wire and radio and local returns over telephone.

To our city subscribers we can say that your regular carrier boy will have your copy of the paper at your door by 7:30 o'clock Wednesday morning. The boys will leave this office about 6 o'clock.

Our rural subscribers should receive their election special at the same time they get the Tuesday evening issue.

If you are not a regular subscriber get your name on the list NOW. The extra edition is just one of the reasons you should be on the list. GET THE NEWS WHILE IT IS NEWS. TELEPHONE 74.

{ All advertising copy for this issue should be in }
{ not later than 9:30 o'clock on Tuesday morning. }

THE BRAINERD DAILY DISPATCH

EXTRA! EXTRA!

WATCH FOR IT!

Wednesday morning we will issue an Election Special giving our readers the very latest in election news at an early hour. The returns will come direct to us from all over the country over United Press leased wire and radio and local returns over telephone.

To our city subscribers we can say that your regular carrier boy will have your copy of the paper at your door by 7:30 o'clock Wednesday morning. The boys will leave this office about 6 o'clock.

Our rural subscribers should receive their election special at the same time they get the Tuesday evening issue.

If you are not a regular subscriber get your name on the list NOW. The extra edition is just one of the reasons you should be on the list. GET THE NEWS WHILE IT IS NEWS. TELEPHONE 74.

{ All advertising copy for this issue should be in }
{ not later than 9:30 o'clock on Tuesday morning. }

THE BRAINERD DAILY DISPATCH

OVER 8,000 ELIGIBLE TO VOTE IN COUNTY

Polls Open Tomorrow at 6 A. M.
Continuing to 9 P. M.

CITY VOTE OVER 4,000

Returns to be Received by Dispatch;
Extra at 6 A. M.
Wednesday

More than 8,000 voters throughout Crow Wing county will go to the polls tomorrow to cast their vote on presidential, state and county ballots. Of this number approximately 4,000 votes will be cast in Brainerd, it was estimated today.

Last minute appeal for votes were being made today by workers throughout all parts of the county as the greatest election day ever drew near.

Polls will open in Brainerd tomorrow at 6 a. m. and will continue to remain open until 9 p. m. when officials will immediately start counting.

City and county officials, fearing a heavy rush of voters after working hours, urged all possible to vote early.

With only one voting precinct in the town of Crosby, the second largest town in the county, officials look for a heavy vote polled there with judges and clerks working all night to announce the vote.

Returns are to be received in various sections of the city tomorrow evening. The Brainerd Daily Dispatch force will be on duty throughout the night publishing an extra to be distributed to all regular subscribers in Brainerd and rural routes Wednesday morning. The extra will go to press at 6 a. m. Wednesday and will announce latest returns up to that time as they come in throughout the United States. Returns from county and city precincts will also be given.

Election returns from every state in the United States will come over the printer telegraph machines at the Dispatch office for the extra.

The Dispatch office will be open throughout the night to give out returns. Returns will also be announced from the republican and democratic headquarters. Returns by radio will also be received for the benefit of the public at the Brainerd Dispatch office. A radio will be installed tomorrow.

Six patients in the local hospital who are not residents of the first precinct of the second ward were voting by mail today as absent voters. One hundred and fifty others will also cast their votes in Brainerd by mail as absent voters, the county auditor's office announced today.

Polls in rural precincts in villages 800 or under will open at 9 a. m. continuing until 9 p. m. In cities of the fourth class such as Brainerd and Crosby the polls will open at 6 a. m. continuing to 9 p. m.

Birthday Party

William Frost, was surprised by 15 of his friends at his home, 614 South Broadway Friday evening, in honor of the anniversary of his birthday. He was presented with a cigar stand.

After spending the evening in playing cards and smoking Mrs. Frost served a luncheon. The men were just settling down for another chat and smoke when their stag party came to a sudden end with the sudden appearance of the men's wives at 11 o'clock dressed as darkies, from the south. They took full possession of the house and their husbands. Much laughter ensued.

At a late hour all wished Mr. Frost many more such happy birthdays and the ladies thanked Mrs. Frost for her hospitality to the uninvited guests. After the party each husband had a darkie wife to escort home.

Y. M. C. A. SCHEDULE FOR PERIOD NOV. 8-10

Monday, 10:30 A. M.—Ministerial association.
Monday, 7 P. M.—Comrade club, Calvin Orth leader.
Tuesday, 7 P. M.—Pathfinder club.
Wednesday, 7 P. M.—Hi-Y club.
Thursday, 6 P. M.—Junior Hi-Y supper.
Thursday 7:15 P. M.—N. E. Tiger club.
Thursday, 8 P. M.—Discussion class.
Friday, 7 P. M.—Pioneer officers meeting.

DERAILMENT ON M. & I. RAILWAY

Night Passenger Train Halted at Mile Post No. 54 Four Miles North of Hackensack

LITTLE DAMAGE SUSTAINED

No Passengers or Trainmen Injured—Tender, Baggage and Smoker Front Off Track

The night passenger train of the Minnesota & International railway was delayed six hours last night because of a derailment of the tender, baggage car and front truck of the smoker at Mile Post No. 54 about four miles north of Hackensack.

The train was proceeding slowly and came to a stop quickly. No passengers or trainmen were injured and the damage to equipment was light. The accident occurred on the straight main line and was miles distant from a switch. No cause has yet been assigned for the accident.

A wrecker and crew from Bemidji supplemented by local men quickly made track repairs.

Hackensack, Minn., Nov. 5.—(U.P.)—Cass county authorities and officials of the Minnesota and International railway today began an investigation of what was believed a deliberate attempt to wreck an international train.

Following the derailment of the engine and two cars of a passenger train near here early today an investigation showed that spikes had been pulled from the rails. Railroad tools were said to have been found which had been stolen from a car house at Walker some time ago.

No one was reported injured in the derailment.

YOUTH SHOOTS OFF HIS RIGHT HAND

Milton Heff, Aged 22, Merrifield Hunter, is Victim of Accident Sunday

NOW AT LOCAL HOSPITAL

Was Trying to Eject Shell From Shotgun at His Home When Gun Was Discharged

Milton Heff, single, age 22, hunter of Merrifield, accidentally shot off his right hand at the wrist yesterday afternoon while trying to eject a shell from his shotgun. The youth was at his home when the accident occurred and was taken to St. Joseph's hospital at Brainerd where his injuries were treated.

Although suffering from shock and loss of blood, he is said to have retained his courage and strength and is expected to recover.

CHILD SAVES MONEY TO PAY OPERATION

Little Girl, Underweight, Pays $40 She Has Earned to Have Tonsils Removed

CHILDREN DESIRE HEALTH

Twenty-Six Schools Inspected During Month of October, Miss C. Walz Reports

The spirit of some children eager for health is to be admired, Miss Caroline Walz, county nurse, writes as she explains two cases which have come to her attention recently.

A little girl who was examined last spring was found to be considerably underweight. Her tonsils apparently were not of a healthy kind. She was told of the condition. Her ambition was to be up to weight and remove the cause of her defect. She took advantage of every opportunity and earned $40 during vacation. Before school opened last September she had her tonsils operated on and paid for this service with the money out of her small treasury.

In another family, three children are saving their earnings in the hope to pay for the cost of having their teeth taken care of at an early date. Miss Walz's report for the month of October follows:

Schools

Twenty-six schools were inspected. Fifty-one visits were made to schools.

Fifteen were communicable disease visits.

Three hundred-five children were inspected.

Thirty-two corrections has been made.

Forty-six health talks were given to school children.

Clinics

Two tuberculosis clinics were held with an attendance of 13, seven old and six new cases.

Special Cases

Arrangements were made for dental care and a little girl was taken to the dentist.

A man who had considerable trouble with his artificial limb was taken to the Winlye Artificial Limb Company at Minneapolis for an adjustment.

Arrangements were made for one patient for a tonsillectomy and hospitalization for another.

By the request of the Social Service Department of the University Hospital, a boy who had been a patient there for some time was returned for an examination.

Home Visits

Twenty-three homes were visited. Seventy-three calls were made. Mileage, 2,354.

Two meetings were attended and a talk given at each.

Miss Fern Kennedy, assistant director of the division of reeducation, and J. J. Bohlander of the Lyons & Carnahan Educational Publishing Company were visitors.

reector of the division of reeducation, and J. J. Bohlander of the Lyons & Carnahan Educational Publishing Company were visitors.

Miscellaneous
Eighty-nine copies of Control of Communicable Diseases were obtained from the Child Hygiene Division of the State Board of Health. A copy is sent to each teacher in the county. This was made possible through the Crow Wing County Public Health Association.

Several ladies of Brainerd very generously contributed clothing and bedding for a poor family. This very splendid assistance was greatly appreciated and a most hearty thanks is extended to these kind ladies.

12 CRIMINAL CASES BEFORE COURT

Judge W. S. McClenahan to Adjourn District Court Tomorrow to Wednesday

JUDGE FREEMAN TO RESIDE

County Attorney Expects Pleas of Guilty in Majority of Cases

Twelve criminal cases will be brought before the district court which officially opens Wednesday morning before Judge Edward Freeman.

Judge W. S. McClenahan will open court tomorrow morning and will call its adjournment immediately to Wednesday morning in respect of election day. Judge McClenahan will assist Judge Freeman during the court session.

County Attorney Arthur J. Sullivan who is completing his preparation today for the prosecution of the criminal cases announced that he expected pleas of guilty in the majority of the criminal cases.

Defendants in the criminal cases will be arraigned Wednesday morning for pleas.

The One Best Gift for Christmas
Passing years will never dim the memory of the one best gift—your photograph. It is the one thing in the world no one else can buy. Arrange for an appointment now.

Canniff Studio
319 So. 6th St. Phone 653-J
PHOTOGRAPHS
Live Forever

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT—Inserted by and for A. M. Opsahl, Brainerd, for which regular rates are paid.

To the Citizens of Brainerd and Crow Wing County

I respectfully solicit your vote on election day Nov. 6th for the office of

Representative

to the Legislature

A. M.
OPSAHL

FOR RENT—CALL 74

Remove the
I F
From Your Future

—by keeping your Savings Account growing steadily EVERY MONTH. It's the REGULAR deposits that make your saving worth while!

HAVE YOU MADE A DEPOSIT RECENTLY?

CITIZENS STATE BANK OF BRainerd

Oldest and Largest State Bank in Crow Wing Co.

Special Millinery Feature

Kiddie Hats at 86 Cents

Hats for school. Beautiful Miss models, matron styles, all shapes and head sizes.

Beautifully made dress hats, metallics, velvets and felts. Everyone worth twice the price of

$4.75

ELECTION DAY

Occasions Special Opportunities

One day every four years brings such an opportunity!!!

Grouped at $6.00, beautiful metallic pattern hats, large, medium, small. All desirable colors and each an individual model, at just

$6.00

NOVEMBER 6th

Before you vote pay us a call and select one of these wonderful election specials.

E. F. Gates Store

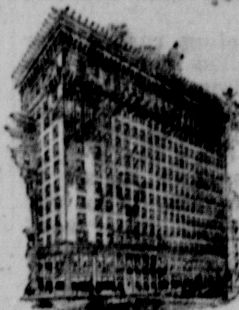

BEANS

Just like those baked in the Maine woods with the real outdoor taste

acup of molasses
acup of brown sugar layer of sugar coat layer of beans

BEAN HOLE BEANS

Be Sure to Vote
Tuesday

"IN MINNEAPOLIS" it's

Hotel Radisson

Luxurious—Central—Economical

Four Cafes

Cuisine and Service Unexcelled at Moderate Prices

500 Rooms

$2.00 per day and up

Garage Accommodations One Block

At Seventh Between Hennepin and Nicollet

OVER 8,000 ELIGIBLE TO VOTE IN COUNTY

Polls Open Tomorrow at 6 A. M.
Continuing to 9 P. M.

CITY VOTE OVER 4,000

Returns to be Received by Dispatch;
Extra at 6 A. M.
Wednesday

More than 8,000 voters throughout Crow Wing county will go to the polls tomorrow to cast their vote on presidential, state and county ballots. Of this number approximately 4,000 votes will be cast in Brainerd, it was estimated today.

Last minute appeal for votes were being made today by workers throughout all parts of the county as the greatest election day ever drew near.

Polls will open in Brainerd tomorrow at 6 a. m. and will continue to remain open until 9 p. m. when officials will immediately start counting.

City and county officials, fearing a heavy rush of voters after working hours, urged all possible to vote early.

With only one voting precinct in the town of Crosby, the second largest town in the county, officials look for a heavy vote polled there with judges and clerks working all night to announce the vote.

Returns are to be received in various sections of the city tomorrow evening. The Brainerd Daily Dispatch force will be on duty throughout the night publishing an extra to be distributed to all regular subscribers in Brainerd and rural routes Wednesday morning. The extra will go to press at 6 a. m. Wednesday and will announce latest returns up to that time as they come in throughout the United States. Returns from county and city precincts will also be given.

Election returns from every state in the United States will come over the printer telegraph machines at the Dispatch office for the extra.

The Dispatch office will be open throughout the night to give out returns. Returns will also be announced from the republican and democratic headquarters. Returns by radio will also be received for the benefit of the public at the Brainerd Dispatch office. A radio will be installed tomorrow.

Six patients in the local hospital who are not residents of the first precinct of the second ward were voting by mail today as absent voters. One hundred and fifty others will also cast their votes in Brainerd by mail as absent voters, the county auditor's office announced today.

Polls in rural precincts in villages 800 or under will open at 9 a. m. continuing until 9 p. m. In cities of the fourth class such as Brainerd and Crosby the polls will open at 6 a. m. continuing to 9 p. m.

Birthday Party

William Frost, was surprised by 15 of his friends at his home, 614 South Broadway Friday evening, in honor of the anniversary of his birthday. He was presented with a cigar stand.

After spending the evening in playing cards and smoking Mrs. Frost served a luncheon. The men were just settling down for another chat and smoke when their stag party came to a sudden end with the sudden appearance of the men's wives at 11 o'clock dressed as darkies, from the south. They took full possession of the house and their husbands. Much laughter ensued.

At a late hour all wished Mr. Frost many more such happy birthdays and the ladies thanked Mrs. Frost for her hospitality to the invited guests. After the party each husband had a darkie wife to escort home.

Y. M. C. A. SCHEDULE FOR PERIOD NOV. 8-10

Monday, 10:30 A. M.—Ministerial association.
Monday, 7 P. M.—Comrade club, Calvin Orth leader.
Tuesday, 7 P. M.—Pathfinder club.
Wednesday, 7 P. M.—Hi-Y club.
Thursday, 6 P. M.—Junior Hi-Y supper.
Thursday 7:15 P. M.—N. E. Tiger club.
Thursday, 8 P. M.—Discussion class.
Friday, 7 P. M.—Pioneer officers meeting.

DERAILMENT ON M. & I. RAILWAY

Night Passenger Train Halted at Mile Post No. 54 Four Miles
North of Hackensack

LITTLE DAMAGE SUSTAINED
No Passengers or Trainmen Injured —Tender, Baggage and Smoker
Front Off Track

The night passenger train of the Minnesota & International railway was delayed six hours last night because of a derailment of the tender, baggage car and front truck of the smoker at Mile Post No. 54 about four miles north of Hackensack.

The train was proceeding slowly and came to a stop quickly. No passengers or trainmen were injured and the damage to equipment was light. The accident occurred on the straight main line and was miles distant from a switch. No cause has yet been assigned for the accident.

A wrecker and crew from Bemidji supplemented by local men quickly made track repairs.

Hackensack, Minn., Nov. 5.—(UP)—Cass county authorities and officials of the Minnesota and International railway today began an investigation of what was believed a deliberate attempt to wreck an international train.

Following the derailment of the engine and two cars of a passenger train near here early today an investigation showed that spikes had been pulled from the rails. Railroad tools were said to have been found which had been stolen from a car house at Walker some time ago.

No one was reported injured in the derailment.

YOUTH SHOOTS OFF HIS RIGHT HAND

Milton Hafl, Aged 22, Merrifield
Hunter, is Victim of Accident
Sunday

NOW AT LOCAL HOSPITAL
Was Trying to Eject Shell From Shotgun at His Home When Gun Was Discharged

Milton Hafl, single, age 22, hunter of Merrifield, accidentally shot off his right hand at the wrist yesterday afternoon while trying to eject a shell from his shotgun. The youth was at his home when the accident occurred and was taken to St. Joseph's hospital at Brainerd where his injuries were treated.

Although suffering from shock and loss of blood, he is said to have retained his courage and strength and is expected to recover.

CHILD SAVES MONEY TO PAY OPERATION

Little Girl, Underweight, Pays $40
She Has Earned to Have Tonsils Removed

CHILDREN DESIRE HEALTH

Twenty-Six Schools Inspected During Month of October, Miss C.
Walz Reports

The spirit of some children eager for health is to be admired, Miss Caroline Walz, county nurse, writes as she explains two cases which have come to her attention recently.

A little girl who was examined last spring was found to be considerably underweight. Her tonsils apparently were not of a healthy kind. She was told of the condition. Her ambition was to be up to weight and remove the cause of her defect. She took advantage of every opportunity and earned $40 during vacation. Before school opened last September she had her tonsils operated on and paid for this service with the money out of her small treasury.

In another family, three children are saving their earnings in the hope to pay for the cost of having their teeth taken care of at an early date. Miss Walz's report for the month of October follows:

Schools
Twenty-six schools were inspected. Fifty-one visits were made to schools.

Fifteen were communicable disease visits. Three hundred-fifty children were inspected.

Thirty-two corrections has been made.

Forty-six health talks were given to school children.

Clinics
Two tuberculosis clinics were held with an attendance of 13, seven old and six new cases.

Special Cases
Arrangements were made for dental care and a little girl was taken to the dentist.

A man who had considerable trouble with his artificial limb was taken to the Winwyke Artificial Limb Company at Minneapolis for an adjustment.

Arrangements were made for one patient for a tonsillectomy and hospitalization for another. By the request of the Social Service Department of the University Hospital, a boy who had been a patient there for some time was returned for an examination.

Home Visits
Twenty-three homes were visited. Seventy-three calls were made. Mileage, 2,354. Two meetings were attended and a talk given at each. Miss Fern Kennedy, assistant director of the division of reeducation, and J. J. Bohlander of the Lyons & Carnahan Educational Publishing Company were visitors.

Miscellaneous
Eighty-nine copies of Control of Communicable Diseases were obtained from the Child Hygiene Division of the State Board of Health. A copy is sent to each teacher in the county. This was made possible through the Crow Wing County Public Health Association. Several ladies of Brainerd very generously contributed clothing and bedding for a poor family. This very splendid assistance was greatly appreciated and a most hearty thanks is extended to these kind ladies.

12 CRIMINAL CASES BEFORE COURT

Judge W. S. McClenahan to Adjourn
District Court Tomorrow to Wednesday

JUDGE FREEMAN TO RESIDE
County Attorney Expects Pleas of Guilty in Majority of Cases

Twelve criminal cases will be brought before the district court which officially opens Wednesday morning before Judge Edward Freeman.

Judge W. S. McClenahan will open court tomorrow morning and will call its adjournment immediately to Wednesday morning in respect of election day. Judge McClenahan will assist Judge Freeman during the court session.

County Attorney Arthur J. Sullivan who is completing his preparation today for the prosecution of the criminal cases announced that he expected pleas of guilty in the majority of the criminal cases.

Defendants in the criminal cases will be arraigned Wednesday morning for pleas.

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT—Inserted by and for A. M. Opsahl, Brainerd, for which regular rates are paid.

To the Citizens of Brainerd and Crow Wing County

I respectfully solicit your vote on election day Nov.
6th for the office of Representative

to the Legislature

A. M.

OPSAHL

FOR RENT—CALL 74

The One Best Gift for Christmas
Passing years will never dim the memory of the one best gift—your photograph. It is the one thing in the world no one else can buy. Arrange for an appointment now.

Canniff Studio
319 So. 6th St. Phone 653-J
PHOTOGRAPHS
Live Forever

Remove the
IF
From Your Future

—by keeping your Savings Account growing steadily EVERY MONTH.
It's the REGULAR deposits that make your saving worth while!

HAVE YOU MADE A DEPOSIT
RECENTLY?

CITIZENS STATE BANK OF BRAINERD
Oldest and Largest State Bank in Crow Wing Co.

Special
Millinery Feature

Kiddie Hats at 86 Cents

Hats for school. Beautiful Miss models, matron styles, all shapes and head sizes.

Beautifully made dress hats, metallics, velvets and felts. Every one worth twice the price of

$4.75

Occasions
Special Opportunities

One day every four years brings such an opportunity!!!

Grouped at $6.00, beautiful metallic pattern hats, large, medium, small. All desirable colors and each an individual model, at just

$6.00

E
L
E
C
T
I
O
N

D
A
Y

NOVEMBER 6th

Before you vote pay us a call and select one of these wonderful election specials.

E. F. Gates Store

BEANS

Just like those baked in the Maine woods with the real outdoor taste

a cup of molasses
a cup of brown sugar
a layer of sugar-cured pork
a layer of beans

BEAN HOLE BEANS

Be Sure to Vote
Tuesday

"IN MINNEAPOLIS"
it's

Hotel Radisson

Luxurious—Central—Economical

Four Cafes

Cuisine and Service Unexcelled at Moderate Prices

500 Rooms

$2.00 per day and up

Garage Accommodations
One Block

At Seventh Between Hennepin and Nicollet

Peaks of Desire

by Kane O'Day

WHAT HAS HAPPENED SO FAR.

JERRY DUNN, star reporter on a large newspaper, covers a garden fete given by Spencer Hayden, a millionaire. There he meets Ann Tremaine, debutante daughter of a wealthy banker, who is engaged to marry Hector Richards, whom she does not love. She becomes interested in Dunn, and pretends she is a poor girl who has crashed the party. Dunn rails against the class he hates, and Dunn is shocked, but admits he could fall in love with her if they belonged to the same social group. She is offended by something he says and they part. Ann goes back to the party and is greeted by Tom Garson, a notorious map-about-town. Because she is bored she asks him to take her away.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

CHAPTER VII.

ANN was perfectly aware that she was tonight off on a tangent—that she had been mysteriously stirred out of her usual self. She was shaken inside, as a tree is shaken by the wind. Far more important than any external accident or upset in the regular order of her life was this bewildering unrest that had assailed her. Something beyond the ability of her mind was fermenting, beginning to work in her heart and in her mind with a vital urge that was almost terrifying.

The sensation made her slightly dizzy. Had it happened, she wondered, to other girls—this nameless crisis coming suddenly into life? This feeling that everything was beginning to tremble in a balance... that something had to happen... something that might change the whole course of her career?

But it wasn't, she knew, the primitive promptings of sex instinct, the desire and the necessity of answering any mating call. Perhaps it was freedom she wanted... but what sort of freedom? A dark curtain shut off the answer.

Would Tom Garson with his defiance of social restraints, his adventurous way of looking at life, be able to help her solve the problem? He was looking at her now, his handsome, hawkish face lit with pleasure at her swift acceptance of his proposal that they should both leave the party and go forth upon an undetermined quest in search of an unestablished goal.

For the second time that night she left the grounds of the Spencer Haydens with a man... seeking escape.

"You're glorious," Garson said, as they moved rapidly among the shadowy trees. "You're game! You can't stand these women who eternally play safe—afraid to take a chance on the things they really want to do. You're like a breath of cool air in the desert, a draught of cold water to a parched throat."

His words had the heat of passion in them but no answering warmth arose within her.

"Do you actually mean what you say?" she asked him, curiously.

"Every word of it!" he breathed as he hurried her toward a space inside the drive where his coupe was parked. Without hesitation she entered the car; he started it and the bright beam of his headlights searched ahead of them toward the open country.

He drove lightly, touching the wheel with one hand, and she found herself regarding his faintly dissipated face with interest. Why had she come with him... where were they going?

Beside the road where a clump of overhanging trees stretched their shadowy boughs he slowed the car to a stop. From a flap pocket he produced a beaten silver flask; the top, unscrewed, made a small drinking cup.

"It's good stuff," he said as he poured a measure. "A little of this'll drive the gloom out of us both. It's liquid sunshine."

Her eyes looked at him. "Is that all you have to offer me?"

They held each other with steady gaze as though with human sight they were trying to peer each into the other's soul. In Tom Garson's eyes came a widening of the pupils, a slow fire smoldering and growing.

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of this. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"You're one of the kind that leads a man on and—"

Ann smiled at him wearily, without fear of resentment. "No, it might be all right—the kissing and the necking—if I wanted you to, but I don't. I don't blame you for misunderstanding me—I don't know what it is I want, myself. I suppose I thought you might be different from all other men... that you might be able to talk to me and show me some magic way to find the kind of happiness I never had."

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of this. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"You're one of the kind that leads a man on and—"

Ann smiled at him wearily, without fear of resentment. "No, it might be all right—the kissing and the necking—if I wanted you to, but I don't. I don't blame you for misunderstanding me—I don't know what it is I want, myself. I suppose I thought you might be different from all other men... that you might be able to talk to me and show me some magic way to find the kind of happiness I never had."

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of this. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"You're one of the kind that leads a man on and—"

Ann smiled at him wearily, without fear of resentment. "No, it might be all right—the kissing and the necking—if I wanted you to, but I don't. I don't blame you for misunderstanding me—I don't know what it is I want, myself. I suppose I thought you might be different from all other men... that you might be able to talk to me and show me some magic way to find the kind of happiness I never had."

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of this. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"You're one of the kind that leads a man on and—"

Ann smiled at him wearily, without fear of resentment. "No, it might be all right—the kissing and the necking—if I wanted you to, but I don't. I don't blame you for misunderstanding me—I don't know what it is I want, myself. I suppose I thought you might be different from all other men... that you might be able to talk to me and show me some magic way to find the kind of happiness I never had."

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of this. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"You're one of the kind that leads a man on and—"

Ann smiled at him wearily, without fear of resentment. "No, it might be all right—the kissing and the necking—if I wanted you to, but I don't. I don't blame you for misunderstanding me—I don't know what it is I want, myself. I suppose I thought you might be different from all other men... that you might be able to talk to me and show me some magic way to find the kind of happiness I never had."

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of this. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"You're one of the kind that leads a man on and—"

Ann smiled at him wearily, without fear of resentment. "No, it might be all right—the kissing and the necking—if I wanted you to, but I don't. I don't blame you for misunderstanding me—I don't know what it is I want, myself. I suppose I thought you might be different from all other men... that you might be able to talk to me and show me some magic way to find the kind of happiness I never had."

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of this. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"You're one of the kind that leads a man on and—"

Ann smiled at him wearily, without fear of resentment. "No, it might be all right—the kissing and the necking—if I wanted you to, but I don't. I don't blame you for misunderstanding me—I don't know what it is I want, myself. I suppose I thought you might be different from all other men... that you might be able to talk to me and show me some magic way to find the kind of happiness I never had."

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of this. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"You're one of the kind that leads a man on and—"

Ann smiled at him wearily, without fear of resentment. "No, it might be all right—the kissing and the necking—if I wanted you to, but I don't. I don't blame you for misunderstanding me—I don't know what it is I want, myself. I suppose I thought you might be different from all other men... that you might be able to talk to me and show me some magic way to find the kind of happiness I never had."

"You're one of the kind that leads a man on and—"

Ann smiled at him wearily, without fear of resentment. "No, it might be all right—the kissing and the necking—if I wanted you to, but I don't. I don't blame you for misunderstanding me—I don't know what it is I want, myself. I suppose I thought you might be different from all other men... that you might be able to talk to me and show me some magic way to find the kind of happiness I never had."

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of this. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"You're one of the kind that leads a man on and—"

Ann smiled at him wearily, without fear of resentment. "No, it might be all right—the kissing and the necking—if I wanted you to, but I don't. I don't blame you for misunderstanding me—I don't know what it is I want, myself. I suppose I thought you might be different from all other men... that you might be able to talk to me and show me some magic way to find the kind of happiness I never had."

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of this. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"You're one of the kind that leads a man on and—"

Ann smiled at him wearily, without fear of resentment. "No, it might be all right—the kissing and the necking—if I wanted you to, but I don't. I don't blame you for misunderstanding me—I don't know what it is I want, myself. I suppose I thought you might be different from all other men... that you might be able to talk to me and show me some magic way to find the kind of happiness I never had."

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of this. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"You're one of the kind that leads a man on and—"

Ann smiled at him wearily, without fear of resentment. "No, it might be all right—the kissing and the necking—if I wanted you to, but I don't. I don't blame you for misunderstanding me—I don't know what it is I want, myself. I suppose I thought you might be different from all other men... that you might be able to talk to me and show me some magic way to find the kind of happiness I never had."

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of this. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"You're one of the kind that leads a man on and—"

Ann smiled at him wearily, without fear of resentment. "No, it might be all right—the kissing and the necking—if I wanted you to, but I don't. I don't blame you for misunderstanding me—I don't know what it is I want, myself. I suppose I thought you might be different from all other men... that you might be able to talk to me and show me some magic way to find the kind of happiness I never had."

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of this. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"You're one of the kind that leads a man on and—"

Ann smiled at him wearily, without fear of resentment. "No, it might be all right—the kissing and the necking—if I wanted you to, but I don't. I don't blame you for misunderstanding me—I don't know what it is I want, myself. I suppose I thought you might be different from all other men... that you might be able to talk to me and show me some magic way to find the kind of happiness I never had."

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of this. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"You're one of the kind that leads a man on and—"

Ann smiled at him wearily, without fear of resentment. "No, it might be all right—the kissing and the necking—if I wanted you to, but I don't. I don't blame you for misunderstanding me—I don't know what it is I want, myself. I suppose I thought you might be different from all other men... that you might be able to talk to me and show me some magic way to find the kind of happiness I never had."

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of this. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"You're one of the kind that leads a man on and—"

Ann smiled at him wearily, without fear of resentment. "No, it might be all right—the kissing and the necking—if I wanted you to, but I don't. I don't blame you for misunderstanding me—I don't know what it is I want, myself. I suppose I thought you might be different from all other men... that you might be able to talk to me and show me some magic way to find the kind of happiness I never had."

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of this. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"You're one of the kind that leads a man on and—"

Ann smiled at him wearily, without fear of resentment. "No, it might be all right—the kissing and the necking—if I wanted you to, but I don't. I don't blame you for misunderstanding me—I don't know what it is I want, myself. I suppose I thought you might be different from all other men... that you might be able to talk to me and show me some magic way to find the kind of happiness I never had."

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of this. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"You're one of the kind that leads a man on and—"

Ann smiled at him wearily, without fear of resentment. "No, it might be all right—the kissing and the necking—if I wanted you to, but I don't. I don't blame you for misunderstanding me—I don't know what it is I want, myself. I suppose I thought you might be different from all other men... that you might be able to talk to me and show me some magic way to find the kind of happiness I never had."

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of this. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"You're one of the kind that leads a man on and—"

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT—Inserted for Wm. A. Syreen, by Volunteer Committee, Brainerd, Minn., A. R. Falconer, Chairman, for which regular advertising rates are paid.

VOTE for the interest of Brainerd and Crow Wing County.

VOTE for the person that is up and coming; elect a live wire.

VOTE for the person whose definite object for aspiring to the Legislature is to accomplish something for Crow Wing County.

VOTE for the person who has the get-up to get you something for your town and county.

VOTE for the person that has REALLY accomplished things; that is your assurance of capability.

VOTE for the person that puts his confidence in YOU and your city.

VOTE for the person that spends his money in helping to develop your city and county.

VOTE for and ELECT "BIM" Syreen.

Mr. Syreen came to this county in 1902, he for 17 years operated a farm successfully in Crow Wing County 15 miles from Brainerd and later went into the oil business and is investing his money in "Brainerd"; he built Tourist Haven which surely is an asset to our city, he purchased the school lots on Oak and Sixth streets on which he plans very extensive improvements; these improvements add employment and build up our city.

If you feel that consideration is due a person of such aggressive ness and ability you will cast your vote for Wm. A. Syreen for Legislature, 53rd Legislative District.

PROTECTION FOR FARM PRODUCTS IS VITAL ISSUE

Republican Text Book Points Out How Tariff Has Helped Nation's Agriculture.

REVIEWS HOOVER FARM PLAN

First Section of New Campaign Document Deals With Basic Farm Problems.

WASHINGTON — The American farmer under Republican administration has had practically a monopoly of his home market. In this protected market, he disposes of 95 per cent of his products at prices higher than are paid elsewhere in the world for like products. This is pointed out in the Republican campaign textbook.

The complete book is being printed in installments of which the first is devoted entirely to agriculture, and includes pertinent extracts from Herbert Hoover's acceptance address, the agricultural plank of the Kansas City platform and other pertinent data relative to the farm situation.

In addition to this, there is a recital of the Republican party's constructive legislation in behalf of agriculture since 1920, a provision intended to show that the promises now being made to the farmers by Mr. Hoover and Senator Curtis spring from a sympathetic attitude and therefore will be fulfilled in good faith by the Republicans.

The problems of agriculture are treated from an economic rather than a political viewpoint, and emphasis is laid on the freedom from economic fallacies of the agricultural legislation already passed by Republican congresses which includes 24 measures since March, 1921.

"Republican legislation in behalf of agricultural producers has been formulated with a view of its having permanent value and being founded in sound political economy and good sense," says the textbook. "The control of every Republican Congress has been in the hands of those representing agricultural constituencies. So it has been logical and inevitable that the interests of agriculture have been conserved by the Republican party."

Loan Banks Aid Farmers

Since the loan banks have been made available to agricultural borrowers under Republican administration a total of $2,774,199,050, chiefly through the federal farm loan banks, the joint stock land banks, the intermediate credit banks and the war finance corporation. This recapitulation does not take into account such organizations as the Agricultural Credit Corporation, organized in 1924 to relieve an agricultural crisis in the northwest, nor the development of federal warehousing as an aid to marketing under the amended Federal Warehousing Act.

In the same period, under a Republican tariff which protects more agricultural products than any in history, the farm price of wheat has increased 20 per cent; rye, 20 per cent; corn, 70 per cent; oats, 30 per cent; barley, 60 per cent; flaxseed, 27 per cent; beef cattle, 80 per cent; calves, 50 per cent; butter, 15 per cent; hogs, 25 per cent; sheep, 80 per cent; lambs, 72½ per cent; wool, 100 per cent.

The fallacy of arbitrary methods for lessening the spread between the producer and the ultimate consumer, such as are advocated by the 1928 Democratic platform, is pointed. They would necessarily result in price-fixing, and inevitably the 89,000,000 non-agricultural consumers would be fixing the price they desired to pay the 28,000,000 agricultural producers.

"Such a proposal is abhorrent to the spirit of American institutions," says the textbook. "It is the very essence of state socialism in that it would completely eliminate the element of individual initiative and enterprise with their commensurate individual reward."

Mr. Hoover's suggestions for the improvement of the farm situation are reviewed, particularly the emphasis he has laid upon the need for development of the home market, rather than experimental attempts to increase shipments of our agricultural products to foreign countries.

available to agricultural borrowers under Republican administration a total of $2,774,199,050, chiefly through the federal farm loan banks, the joint stock land banks, the intermediate credit banks and the war finance corporation. This recapitulation does not take into account such organizations as the Agricultural Credit Corporation, organized in 1924 to relieve an agricultural crisis in the northwest, nor the development of federal warehousing as an aid to marketing under the amended Federal Warehousing Act.

In the same period, under a Republican tariff which protects more agricultural products than any in history, the farm price of wheat has increased 20 per cent; rye, 20 per cent; corn, 70 per cent; oats, 30 per cent; barley, 60 per cent; flaxseed, 27 per cent; beef cattle, 80 per cent; calves, 50 per cent; butter, 15 per cent; hogs, 25 per cent; sheep, 80 per cent; lambs, 72½ per cent; wool, 100 per cent.

The fallacy of arbitrary methods for lessening the spread between the producer and the ultimate consumer, such as are advocated by the 1928 Democratic platform, is pointed. They would necessarily result in price-fixing, and inevitably the 89,000,000 non-agricultural consumers would be fixing the price they desired to pay the 28,000,000 agricultural producers.

"Such a proposal is abhorrent to the spirit of American institutions," says the textbook. "It is the very essence of state socialism in that it would completely eliminate the element of individual initiative and enterprise with their commensurate individual reward."

Mr. Hoover's suggestions for the improvement of the farm situation are reviewed, particularly the emphasis he has laid upon the need for development of the home market, rather than experimental attempts to increase shipments of our agricultural products to foreign countries.

NEED OF HELP—CALL 74

Bank No. 116
CITIZENS STATE BANK
of Brainerd

Statement of the condition of Citizens State Bank of Brainerd at close of business on October 29, 1928.

RESOURCES
Loans and discounts, including real-estate loans, 482,292.41
Overdrafts, 139.58
Securities, etc., 694,167.43
Banking house, furniture and fixtures, 31,500.00
Other real estate owned, 4,516.39
Checks and drafts in transit, 181.50
Due from other banks and cash on hand, 178,531.41
Cash items and checks, 7,905.55
Total, $1,393,244.27

LIABILITIES
Capital stock, 25,000.00
Surplus fund, 30,000.00
Undivided profits, net, 9,604.67
Reserves for depreciation, 2,317.97
Bills payable with War Finance Corporation, None
Bills payable—other than with War Finance Corporation (including certificates for borrowed money), None
Notes and bills rediscounted, None
Bonds borrowed, 482,292.41
Savings deposits, 280,807.69
Time certificates, 423,651.57
Certified checks, 91.80
Cashier's checks, 482,292.41
Deposits subject to check, 516,898.50
Total, $1,393,244.27

Amount of reserve on hand, $189,536.96
Amount of reserve required by law of Minnesota, County of Crow Wing, 88.
We, R. J. TINKELBAUGH, President, and Elmer O. Olson, Cashier, of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of our knowledge and belief.

R. J. TINKELBAUGH, President.
ELMER O. OLSON, Cashier.
Correct Attest: (Two) Directors—
A. G. TROMMALD,
M. E. RYAN.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 5th day of November, 1928.
(Seal)
E. W. WISE,
Notary Public,
Crow Wing County, Minn.
My commission expires Aug. 4, 1933.

Dispatch Want Ads

Two cents per word for first insertion; one cent each issue thereafter.

HELP WANTED

AMBITIOUS girl wanted to train in our X-Ray Physio Therapy and Clinical Laboratories. Opportunity to qualify as a Doctor's Professional Assistant or Combination Technician. Write for qualifying application. Professional Service Bureau, Inc., Baker Arcade, Minneapolis. 3481-13113

FOR SALE

ROOMS for rent signs for sale at Dispatch. 2760-6811

FOR SALE — Small stack of hay. Phone 36-F-12. 3490-1312p

FOR SALE—Cabbage. A. S. Lindberg. Phone 695-W. 11

FOR SALE — Dry seasoned poplar cordwood, $6.50. Phone 23-F-310. 3366-12112p

GRADED hand picked potatoes, 40c bushel. Potato Warehouse. 3363-12011

FOR SALE — Potatoes, 25 cents a bushel. Echo Stock Farm. 3258-11111

FOR SALE — Mitchell touring car, $30, also Chevrolet sedan, 620 Kingwood. 3477-13013p

FOR SALE—No. 24 Monitor parlor heater. Will trade for wood. 1609 Norwood street S. E. 3479-1312p

NICE Russett potatoes, 60c bushel delivered. No decay. Call 850-W. Samples. Fred Drexler shop. 3480-13113p

FOR SALE — Leather living room furniture. Splitdorf radio, breakfast set, kitchen cabinet, gas range, hot water heater and other furnishings. 616 N. 6th St. 3485-13111

FOR RENT

FOR RENT—Double garage. Phone 755-L-J. 3478-13013p

FOR RENT—Garage, 722 S. 8th St. 3034-9011

FOR RENT—Furnished room. Phone 671-J. 711 Norwood. 3328-11811

FOR RENT — Furnished housekeeping rooms at 412 12th St. S. E. 3379-12211

NEWLY furnished rooms. Rates reasonable. Tourist Haven. Phone 603-J. 3252-11111

FOR RENT—Three partly furnished rooms for light housekeeping, 209 Main. 3443-12711

FOR RENT—Modern 5 room house, newly finished, garage, south side. Call 409-W. 3488-13111

FOR RENT — Light housekeeping and sleeping rooms. 510 North 4th. 3476-13016p

FOR RENT—Four room flat downstairs. Riverside apartments. See janitor. 3470-13012p

SLEEPING room and garage for rent. 510 5th St. South. 3471-13011

FOR RENT—2 to 4 room flats for light housekeeping. Phone 799-J. 3435-12611

FOR RENT — Furnished room in modern home. 201 Juniper. Call 648-R. 3489-13111

FOR RENT—3 furnished rooms for light housekeeping. Can be seen afternoons, 223 N. 8th street. 3486-13113

APARTMENT FOR RENT — Newly decorated four room heated apartment. Inquire National Tea Co. 3381-12211

FOR RENT — Seven room house, newly decorated, 509 Holly St., Call E. O. Webb, 162 or 649. 3239-10911

Peaks of Desire

by Kane O'Day

WHAT HAS HAPPENED SO FAR.

JERRY DUNN, star reporter on a large newspaper, covers a garden fête given by Spencer Hayden, a millionaire. There he meets Ann Tremaine, debutante daughter of a wealthy banker, who is engaged to marry Hector Richards, whom she does not love. She becomes interested in Dunn, and pretends she is a poor girl who has crashed the party. Dunn rails against the idle rich and his ideas stir Ann. She confesses she belongs to the class he hates, and Dunn is shocked, but admits he could fall in love with her if they belonged to the same social group. She is offended by something he says and they part. Ann goes back to the party and is greeted by Tom Garson, a notorious map-about-town. Because she is bored she asks him to take her away.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

ANN was perfectly aware that she was tonight off on a tangent—that she had been mysteriously stirred out of her usual self. She was shaken inside, as a tree is shaken by the wind. Far more important than any external accident or upset in the regular order of her life was this bewildering unrest that had assailed her. Something beyond the ability of her mind was fermenting, beginning to work in her heart and in her mind with a vital urge that was almost terrifying.

The sensation made her slightly dizzy. Had it happened, she wondered, to other girls—this nameless crisis coming suddenly into life? This feeling that everything was beginning to tremble in a balance—that something had to happen—something that might change the whole course of her career?

But it wasn't, she knew, the primitive promptings of sex instinct, the desire and the necessity of answering any mating call. Perhaps it was freedom she wanted—but what sort of freedom? A dark curtain shut off the answer.

Would Tom Garson with his defiance of social restraints, his adventurous way of looking at life, be able to help her solve the problem?

He was looking at her now, his handsome, hawkish face lit with pleasure at her swift acceptance of his proposal that they should both leave the party and go forth upon an undetermined quest in search of an unestablished goal.

For the second time that night she left the grounds of the Spencer Haydens with a man... seeking escape.

"You're glorious," Garson said, as they moved rapidly among the shadowy trees. "You're game! I can't stand these women who eternally play safe—afraid to take a chance on the things they really want to do. You're like a breath of cool air in the desert, a draught of cold water to a parched throat."

His words had the heat of passion in them but no answering warmth arose within her. "Do you actually mean what you say?" she asked him, curiously.

"Every word of it!" he breathed as he hurried her toward a space inside the drive where his coupe was parked. Without hesitation she entered the car; he started it and the bright beam of his headlights searched ahead of them toward the open country.

He drove lightly, touching the wheel with one hand, and she found herself regarding his faintly dissipated face with interest. Why had she come with him... where were they going?

Beside the road where a clump of overhanging trees stretched their shadowy boughs he slowed the car to a stop. From a flap pocket he produced a beaten silver flask; the top, unscrewed, made a small drinking cup.

"It's good stuff," he said as he poured a measure. "A little of this'll drive the gloom out of us both. It's liquid sunshine."

Her eyes looked at him. "Is that all?"

all you have to offer me?" They held each other with steady gaze as though with human sight they were trying to peer each into the other's soul. In Tom Garson's eyes came a widening of the pupils, a slow fire smoldering and growing.

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of it. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of it. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of it. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of it. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of it. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of it. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of it. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of it. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of it. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of it. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

You're one of the kind that leads a man on and—

Ann smiled at him wearily, without fear of resentment. "No, it might be all right—the kissing and the necking—if I wanted you to, but I don't. I don't blame you for misunderstanding me—I don't know what it is I want, myself. I suppose I thought you might be different from all other men—that you might be able to talk to me and show me some magic way to find the kind of happiness I never had."

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of it. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of it. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of it. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of it. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of it. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of it. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of it. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of it. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of it. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of it. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of it. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

"I don't know what you mean," Garson said, studying her with a surly look.

"I'm not getting any fun out of it. It's all too easy—everything comes without effort. You've led a full life, you've been a man of the world—you've sampled almost everything. And I thought—I

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT—Inserted for Wm. A. Syreen, by Volunteer Committee, Brainerd, Minn., A. R. Falconer, Chairman, for which regular advertising rates are paid.

VOTE for the interest of Brainerd and Crow Wing County.

VOTE for the person that is up and coming; elect a live wire.

VOTE for the person whose definite object for aspiring to the Legislature is to accomplish something for Crow Wing County.

VOTE for the person who has the get-up to get you something for your town and county.

VOTE for the person that has REALLY accomplished things; that is your assurance of capability.

VOTE for the person that puts his confidence in YOU and your city.

VOTE for the person that spends his money in helping to develop your city and county.

VOTE for and ELECT "BHI" Syreen.

Mr. Syreen came to this county in 1902, he for 17 years operated a farm successfully in Crow Wing County 15 miles from Brainerd and later went into the oil business and is investing his money in "Brainerd"; he built Tourist Haven which surely is an asset to our city, he purchased the school lots on Oak and Sixth streets on which he plans very extensive improvements; these improvements add employment and build up our city.

If you feel that consideration is due a person of such aggressive, ness and ability you will cast your vote for Wm. A. Syreen for Legislature, 53rd Legislative District.

PROTECTION FOR FARM PRODUCTS IS VITAL ISSUE

Republican Text Book Points Out How Tariff Has Helped Nation's Agriculture.

REVIEWS HOOVER FARM PLAN

First Section of New Campaign Document Deals With Basic Farm Problems.

WASHINGTON—The American farmer under Republican administration has had practically a monopoly of his home market. In this protected market, he disposes of 95 per cent of his products at prices higher than are paid elsewhere in the world for like products. This is pointed out in the Republican campaign textbook.

The complete book is being printed in installments of which the first is devoted entirely to agriculture, and includes pertinent extracts from Herbert Hoover's acceptance address, the agricultural plank of the Kansas City platform and other pertinent data relative to the farm situation.

In addition to this, there is a recital of the Republican party's constructive legislation in behalf of agriculture since 1920, a provision intended to show that the promises now made to the farmers by Mr. Hoover and Senator Curtis spring from a sympathetic attitude and therefore will be fulfilled in good faith by the Republicans.

The problems of agriculture are treated from an economic rather than a political viewpoint, and emphasis is laid on the freedom from economic fallacies of the agricultural legislation already passed by Republican congresses which includes 24 measures since March, 1921.

"Republican legislation in behalf of agricultural producers has been formulated with a view of its having permanent value and being founded in sound political economy and good sense," says the textbook. "The control of every Republican Congress has been in the hands of those representing agricultural constituencies. So it has been logical and inevitable that the interests of agriculture have been conserved by the Republican party."

Loan Banks Aid Farmers

Since 1921 the loan banks have been made

Nausea Gas Bloating

"I have been troubled with indigestion, sour, gassy stomach for 28 years. Since taking ZINSEP I have been greatly benefited. I noticed marked relief after the first two doses, and I recommend it to anyone who has suffered as I have," writes Mr. Chas. Moore, 1415 Edison St., Topeka, Kans.

ZINSEP has brought stomach comfort to thousands who have suffered from nausea, indigestion, bloating, belching, sick headache, dizziness, nervousness, vomiting, heartburn and sour and gassy stomach. Your own druggist will refund your money if ZINSEP doesn't help you. Get a bottle TODAY.

Sold and guaranteed by JOHNSON'S PHARMACY and all other good druggists everywhere available to agricultural borrowers under Republican administration a total of $2,774,193,010, chiefly through the federal farm loan banks, the joint stock land banks, the intermediate credit banks and the war finance corporation. This recapitulation does not take into account such organizations as the Agricultural Credit Corporation, organized in 1921 to relieve an agricultural crisis in the northwest, for the development of federal warehousing as an aid to marketing under the amended Federal Warehousing Act.

In the same period, under a Republican tariff which protects more agricultural products than any in history, the farm price of wheat has increased 20 per cent; rye, 20 per cent; corn, 70 per cent; oats, 30 per cent; barley, 60 per cent; flaxseed, 27 per cent; beef cattle, 80 per cent; calves, 50 per cent; butter, 15 per cent; hogs, 25 per cent; sheep, 80 per cent; lambs, 72½ per cent; wool, 100 per cent.

The fallacy of arbitrary methods for lessening the spread between the producer and the ultimate consumer, such as are advocated by the 1928 Democratic platform, is pointed. They would necessarily result in price-fixing, and inevitably the $9,000,000 non-agricultural consumers would be fixing the price they desired to pay the 28,000,000 agricultural producers.

"Such a proposal is abhorrent to the spirit of American institutions," says the textbook. "It is the very essence of state socialism in that it would completely eliminate the element of individual initiative and enterprise with their commensurate individual reward."

Mr. Hoover's suggestions for the improvement of the farm situation are reviewed, particularly the emphasis he has laid upon the need for development of the home market, rather than experimental attempts to increase shipments of our agricultural products to foreign countries.

NEED OF HELP—CALL 74

Bank No. 116
CITIZENS STATE BANK of Brainerd

Statement of the condition of Citizens State Bank of Brainerd at close of business on October 29, 1928.

RESOURCES
Loans and discounts, including rediscounts.....$482,202.41
Overdrafts.....129.58
Receivables.....694,167.43
Banking house, furniture and fixtures.....31,500.00
Other Real Estate owned.....4,516.29
Checks and drafts in transit.....151.50
Due from other banks and cash on hand.....173,531.41
Cash items and checks.....7,005.65
Total.....$1,393,244.27

LIABILITIES
Capital stock.....$25,000.00
Surplus fund.....30,000.00
Undivided profits, net.....9,604.67
Reserve for depreciation.....2,317.67
Bills payable with War Finance Corporation.....None
Bills payable—other than with War Finance Corporation (including certificates for borrowed money).....None
Notes and bills rediscounted.....None
Cashier's checks.....None
Savings deposits.....380,807.69
Time certificates.....423,651.57
Cashier's checks.....91.60
Deposits subject to check.....516,898.50
Total.....$1,393,244.27

Amount of reserve on hand.....$180,536.96
Amount of reserve required by law.....$102,846.48
State of Minnesota, County of Crow Wing, ss.
We, R. J. Tinkelpaugh, President, and Elmer O. Olson, Cashier of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of our knowledge and belief.
R. J. TINKELPAUGH, President.
ELMER O. OLSON, Cashier.
Correct Attest: (Two) Directors—
A. G. THOMMALD,
M. E. RYAN.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 31st day of November, 1928.
(Seal) E. W. WISE, Notary Public.
Crow Wing County, Minn.
My commission expires Aug. 4, 1929.

Dispatch Want Ads

Two cents per word for first insertion; one cent each issue thereafter.

HELP WANTED

AMBITIOUS girl wanted to train in our X-Ray Physio-Therapy and Clinical Laboratories. Opportunity to qualify as a Doctor's Professional Assistant or Combination Technician. Write for qualifying application. Professional Service Bureau, Inc., Baker Arcade, Minneapolis. 3481-1313

FOR SALE

ROOMS for rent signs for sale at Dispatch. 2760-68tf

FOR SALE—Small stack of hay. Phone 36-F-12. 3490-1312p

FOR SALE—Cabbage. A. S. Lindberg. Phone 695-W. 1f

FOR SALE—Dry seasoned poplar cordwood, $6.50. Phone 23-F-310. 3366-12112p

GRADED hand picked potatoes, 40c bushel. Potato Warehouse. 3363-120tf

FOR SALE—Potatoes, 25 cents a bushel. Echo Stock Farm. 3258-111tf

FOR SALE—Mitchell touring car, $30, also Chevrolet sedan. 3477-1303p

FOR SALE—No. 24 Monitor parlor heater. Will trade for wood. 1609 Norwood street S. E. 3479-1312p

NICE Russett potatoes, 60c bushel delivered. No decay. Call 850-W. Samples. Fred Drexler shop. 3480-1313p

FOR SALE—Leather living room furniture, Splittorf radio, breakfast set, kitchen cabinet, gas range, hot water heater and other furnishings. 616 N. 6th St. 3485-131tf

FOR RENT

FOR RENT—Double garage. Phone 755-L-J. 3478-1303p

FOR RENT—Garage, 722 S. 8th St. 3034-90tf

FOR RENT—Furnished room. Phone 671-J. 711 Norwood. 3328-118tf

FOR RENT—Furnished housekeeping rooms at 412 12th St. S. E. 3379-122tf

NEWLY furnished rooms. Rates reasonable. Tourist Haven. Phone 603-J. 3252-111tf

FOR RENT—Three partly furnished rooms for light housekeeping. 209 Main. 3443-127tf

FOR RENT—Modern 5 room house, newly finished, garage, south side. Call 409-W. 3488-1311f

FOR RENT—Light housekeeping and sleeping rooms. 510 North 4th. 3476-1306p

FOR RENT—Four room flat downstairs. Riverside apartments. See janitor. 3470-1302p

SLEEPING room and garage for rent. 510 5th St., South. 3471-130tf

FOR RENT—2 to 4 room flats for light housekeeping. Phone 799-J. 3435-126tf

FOR RENT—Furnished room in modern home. 201 Juniper. Call 648-R. 3489-131tf

FOR RENT—3 furnished rooms for light housekeeping. Can be seen afternoons. 223 N. 8th street. 3486-1311f

APARTMENT FOR RENT—Newly decorated four room heated apartment. Inquire National Tea Co. 3381-122tf

FOR RENT—Seven room house newly decorated. 509 Holly St., Call E. O. Webb, 162 or 649. 3239-109tf

FOR RENT—5 room house, garage. 516 South 10th Street. Inquire Geo. Kuehmichel, 510 South 10th St. 3455-128tf

Woman's Dream Comes True

At last you find a new wonderful face powder that keeps ugly shine away. Will not enlarge the pores, and spreads so smoothly the skin looks like a peach. MELLO-GLO is made by a new French Process and stays on longer. Good looking, well groomed women simply love this marvelous new Face Powder—MELLO-GLO. —Advt.

Zonite

For Cuts and Wounds

Prevent infection! Treat every cut, wound or scratch with this powerful non-poisonous antiseptic. Zonite actually kills germs. Helps to heal, too.

FOR RENT—Attractive apartments, steam heated, electric lighted, with gas and bath. Also desirable store, centrally located. Gould-Gray Co. Phone 1. 2058-290tf

LOST AND FOUND

LOST—Check book, Name Jens Roberson. Return to Citizens State bank. 3487-1312p

LOST—On Scenic highway Sunday, lady's soft black hat with purple stitching. Reward. Call 606-W. 3484-1312f

MISCELLANEOUS

LADY wants work by day. Phone 491-L-M. 3472-1303p

WANTED—Wood-sawing. Phone 31-F-3. 3292-14126

FOR well drilling. Repair. Call 215 2nd Street South. 3461-1296p

WANTED—Curtains to wash and stretch. Will call for and deliver. Call 980-M. 3410-1256

WEAVING done on Thursday each week at 714 N. 10th St., Brainerd. 3482-1315p

LOCAL AND LONG DISTANCE HAULING—Insured service. W. E. Lewis. Phone 303. 2129-3tf

BOARD, room and laundry, $8 a week. 311 N. 4th St. Phone 566-J. 3483-131tf

WILL do washings. Will call and deliver. Call 706-L-R. 3450-1296

PARTY finding package of soiled curtains, put in their car by mistake, leave at Dispatch. Reward. 3473-1302f

DE ROSIER & MAGNAN

Phone 405-W 414 So. 4th St.

Plumbing and Heating

D. E. WHITNEY

DIRECTOR OF FUNERALS

726 Front St.

BRAINERD, MINN.

PLUMBING and HEATING

All kinds of pipes, fittings and valves

L. W. SHERLUND

Call 69

GEO. D. PALMER

LICENSED AUCTIONEER

Satisfaction Guaranteed

Phone 363-J or 945-W

Babies Love It

For all stomach and intestinal troubles and disturbances due to teething, there is nothing better than a safe Infant's and Children's Laxative.

Mrs. Winslow's Syrup

For all stomach and intestinal troubles and disturbances due to teething, there is nothing better than a safe Infant's and Children's Laxative.

For all stomach and intestinal troubles and disturbances due to teething, there is nothing better than a safe Infant's and Children's Laxative.

</